TEAMSTERS CHARGE

Industrialists Giving Help To Insurgent Move

NEW YORK (AP) — International Brotherhood of Teamsters charged Friday that members of the industry have given financial aid to 12 insurgent Teamsters trying to oust union President James R. Hoffa.

The union filed a suit in federal court seeking to nullify an anti-Hoffa court action filed on behalf of the 12 members by attorney Godfrey P. Schmidt.

Schmidt filed a motion in U. S. District Court in Washington nine days ago asking for Hoffa's removal pending trial before a board of special examiners or referees.

The motion accused Hoffa of denying Teamsters members their legal rights and of refusing to cooperate with a court-appointed board of monitors to supervise Teamsters's affairs.

CLAIM

In its counteraction, the union claimed that Schmidt and his 12 clients were working together in a "common scheme and plan" and "aided and abetted by members of industry."

"The now-apparent aim of this scheme was to do disrupt and disorganize the lawful and legitimate operations of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and its subordinate bodies as a labor organization that its internal efficiency as a labor representative for its more than 1,600,000 members would be impeded and obstructed and rendered ineffective," it added.

The union's suit said that money paid to Schmidt and his 12 clients by representatives of industry were paid in New York City.

The union also asked that the court direct Schmidt and his clients to reimburse the union for any money it has had to pay as a result of the suit brought against it.

The suit, charging Schmidt and his clients with "perfidy in joining with, but concealng the aid and financial assistance they received from members of industry," claimed that such payments constitued an unfair labor practice.

Named in the suit as among those giving financial aid were the Brass Rail Restaurants, Howard

Nehru Wins Approval On Border Issue

Says Policy Is To Reach Calm Finale

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru won over-whelming approval Friday of his handling of the border dispute with Red China afted demanding that Parliament back him up or get a new prime minister.

Only one or two noes were heard in the thundering voice vote.

Closing a three-day debate in the lower house on the dispute in which the Red Chinese killed 12 Indian border patrolmen in two incidents Aug. 26 and Oct. 21, Nehru upbraided the Chinese but said his policy is to settle the issue peacefully if possible.

The affair, he said, "could shake the world" but India's plan is to take a calm approach without giving in. For him, he added, this is "one of those peak events of history when the plunge has to be taken in some direction."

DISTINCTION

Drawing a sharp distinction between the Soviet Union and Red China, Nehru declared: "I don't think there is any country in the world today which is more anxious for peace than the Soviet Union. I don't think there is any country in the world today which cares less for peace than China."

He then made this dramatic assertion: "If this house thinks my manner of carrying on in this situation is not adequate then the honorable members are free to choose another prime minister."

"If on balance, this house feels this government and this prime minister have got to face a challenge, then help him, stand by him. Don't criticize him," he said.

Dying Teacher Merciful

TOKYO (UPI)—Dr. Charles E. Perry, an American missionary, could only return good for evil with his dying breath.

In the brief hour Thursday night between the moment two drunken Japanese college students attacked him with vicious rabbit punches and the moment he died at the home of a Japanese professor, the 51-year-old teacher from Canton, N.Y., gasped to police a Christian testament.

Forgive them, he said: It is enough if only they repent.

Both the police and some of Perry's colleagues at St. Paul's University told his last words for the record. But the law must be served.

HELD

Authorities held Setsuji Morita, 20, and Teruo Yokoyama, 19, for his death, under charges similar to manslaughter in the United States.

Morita was named as the actual assailant. He is an expert in karate, an ancient form of hand fighting in Japan and Okinawa.

Practitioners toughen their hands to the point where they can shatter wooden planks with the underside of the hand.

Perry, who had served his calling in China, had ben in Japan since 1950, teaching history at St. Paul's. Neither Morita nor Ykoyama were students at the Christian school. They attended Tokyo's Bunka University.

Perry loved Japan, his friends said. He was popular with his students. A "very fine person," his colleagues agreed.

Thursday night, he emerged from his home on the St. Paul campus to investigate a window apparently broken by drunken revellers.

Senator Sees Industry Gain For District

By DALLAS ROPER
State Editor

RUSTON — U. S. Senator John L. McClellan predicted here last night that Ruston and the entire area would grow in a coming "industrial boom that will sweep the country". Sen. McClellan addressed the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet.

The Arkansas solon predicted that the South — Arkansas and Louisiana in particular — lie in the "direct line of march of the world's greatest economic advance." He urged that the proper political, social and educational climate be prepared to make the area acceptable to industry.

LAUDS RUSTON

And he complimented Ruston for having taken "great strides" in this direction. He said that in the two hours that he had been in the city, he had observed that just such a climate exists here. He also complimented Louisiana Tech.

Sen. McClellan also had things to say in his particular Congressional field — labor and labor racketeering. He has served as chairman of the Senate Rackets Committee which has conducted extensive investigations into labor racketeering.

'ALARMING'

He said that the past session of Congress wrote history when it passed the Landrum-Griffin, labor reform bill. He referred to the legislation as a "victory for laboring people and all citizens," but warned against "becoming complacent over this victory." The senator claimed that labor "bosses" are "exerting every pressure" to repeal or amend the law. He accused union leadership of using false slogans against the bill. He cited the expressions "killer bill" and "union busting" and said that these labels are improper and untrue. He said that the bill is "gang-

Death Toll On Highways Slackening

Many People Returning To Normal Routine

By Associated Press

Highway traffic deaths slackened yesterday as many Americans went back to a workaday routine after the Thanksgiving feast.

Late last night the toll showed 187 killed in traffic; 19 by fire, and 40 in miscellaneous mishaps for a total of 246.

With some pickup expected during normal weekend hours, especially Saturday night and early Sunday when tipplers are most numerous, it still appeared the four-day highway toll might be modest.

SURVEY

The current holiday survey covers the period from 6 p.m. local time Wednesday to midnight Sunday — 102 hours. The accident death toll in a survey made by The Associated Press for a weekend of similar length from 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 11 to midnight Sunday, Nov. 15, was 433 traffic fatalities.

During the test period 49 were killed in fires and 100 in miscellaneous other accidents, an overall toll of 582.

The National Safety Council estimated that 470 persons would be killed during a weekend period of four days at this time of year.

Last year, the Associated Press counted 454 traffic deaths during the Thanksgiving holiday weekend, 54 in fires and 118 from miscellaneous accidents — 626 in all.

The record four-day holiday traffic toll, for Christmas 1956, was 707. Fires and miscellaneous other accidents brought the fatality toll to 884.

Police Chief Is Witness In Ark. Bomb Case

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Police Chief Gene Smith testified today police had made periodic checks on E. A. Lauderdale's activities prior to Labor Day dynamitings here.

"We had reports that Lauderdale was a Ku Klux Klan member and that there might be violence," Smith said.

Smith was a witness as Lauderdale's trial on charges of dynamiting Little Rock School Board headquarters on Sept. 7 went into its third day.

The state has sought to show the 48-year-old segregationist leader was the mastermind of a plot which resulted in three blasts Labor Day evening.

RECORD

Already in the trial record is testimony to that effect by Jesse Raymond Perry, 24, and Samuel Graydon Beavers, 49. Perry, convicted in the school board bombing, told the jury Lauderdale approached him at a Ku Klux Klan meeting and advanced the bomb plot to "shake up Little Rock"

Another Train Takes Off On Solitary Ride

WEEHAWKEN, N.J. AP—A small New York Central Railroad locomotive caught the fever Friday and went off alone on a two-mile ride with no one in its cab.

The little diesel engine was parked outside the office of the railroad's Weehawken yards while its engineer and fireman went inside to get further orders.

A Central spokesman said the locomotive then drifted off at a slow speed over about two miles of yard tracks. It stopped when it nudged into a pile of ties and dirt at the stub end of a track.

According to the spokesman, its brakes were found to be improperly set and its reverser handle had not been removed as operating rules require when engines are left untended.

WINNFIELD (Special)—The chairman of the Lincoln Parish Democratic Executive Committee and his wife were killed in a head-on collision of two cars that also claimed the lives of two youthful Winnfield brothers here Friday. The four fatalities brought the area Thanksgiving holiday weekend traffic death toll to six.

Two other persons were injured in the accident which occurred three miles north of here on U.S. Highway 167 at 3:15 p.m.

Dead are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Phillips of Simsboro, 67 and 66 respectively, Tommy Massey, 20 and his brother, Wayne Massey, 19. Injured are the Phillips' daughter, Mrs. Loyd Tabor, 23, Shreveport, a bride of six weeks, and Mrs. Joe Bryan, 50, of Ruston.

RETIRED

Phillips, in addition to being chairman of the Lincoln Parish Democratic Executive Committee, was a retired farmer and real estate holder. He was noted for his work in the federal farm program.

It was the second traffic accident in this area involving fatalities in two days. Two Goodpine Negroes died in an auto crash Thursday near Summerville between Olla and Jena. They were Lee Odis Washington, 19 and Howard Jackson, 22.

THROWN OUT

The Massey brothers were headed south and attempted to pass another car in front of which was a slow-moving truck. Attempting to wedge in behind the truck, the Massey auto swerved to the left, swerved sidewise down the highway and met the oncoming vehicle driven by Mrs. Tabor.

Gremillion Tells Views About NAACP Lists

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Louisiana attorney general Jack Gremillion told a three-judge federal court Friday that a state law requiring organizations to submit membership lists was enacted to aid the NAACP, not hinder it.

Gremillion's statement came as the NAACP opened its bid for a federal ruling on the constitutionality of the Louisiana law.

The act, he said, was passed 24 to 30 years ago, "to help groups discriminated against."

The NAACP asked for removal of the suit from the Caddo Parish district court, where Gremillion brought the issue Oct. 9, to the federal court.

HALTED

The suit halted an NAACP convention in Shreveport on grounds that it had not filed a membership in 1958, as required by state law.

Gremillion told the court that the NAACP had been offended by the Ku Klux Klan and other groups and the suit was passed in the NAACP's behalf.

Recently, he said, the KKK attempted to reorganize, but he told them they would have to comply with the law. The reorganization failed because of the law's requirements.

"Since I have been in office," Gremillion said, "I have not in one instance discriminated against the NAACP. I ask them only to obey the law. Then I took the action I felt was my duty and I still feel it is my duty."

AT U.S. CONSULATE IN BOMBAY

Marine Guard Reported Kidnaped

BOMBAY, India (AP) — A Marine guard at the U. S. consulate in Bombay, India, was reported kidnaped and held for six hours Friday by the staff of the Chinese Communist consulate there.

The State Department said the guard had stayed overnight at a beach house with a would-be defector from Red China, identified as the Bombay representative of the Chinese Import - Export Corp.

Sgt. Robert Amstrong, a native of Martinez, Calif., was released after intervention by the Bombay police.

A news dispatch from Bombay said he had been bound and beaten by the Chinese Reds. The dispatch attributed his discovery to an Indian postman. The State Department said only that he had been seen by an Indian citizen as he was being taken, bound, into the Chinese Communist consulate.

State department press officer Joseph Reap called it kidnaping and added: "A high - handed, outrageous thing."

The reported kidnaping was connected, in both the department account and an account provided by a U. S. spokesman in Bombay, with efforts by the consulate to protect the would-be defector, Chang Chien-Huh.

The State Department said Chang called at the consulate, inquired about obtaining entry into the United States, and "showed extreme anxiety for his safety."

There were some discrepancies in the two accounts although the report from the State Department admittedly was incomplete.

Chang, the department said, told consulate officials "he had been brooding over the implications of the extremist trend in Chinese Communist policies and was fed up with the increased regimentation of his life."

He wrote out a statement in Chinese and English, requesting asylum in the United States, the department said.

An officer of the consulate, who was not named by the department, was said to have taken Chang and Armstrong to a beach house where they could talk quietly. The cottage was at Jehu, a resort 15 miles outside Bombay, the Bombay dispatch said.

"Since he feared for his safety," the State Department said, "arrangements were made for Chang Chien-Huh to stay at the beach house overnight with Sgt. Armstrong."

That was Thursday night Bombay time. About 7:30 Friday morning, Bombay time, the State Department said, "Armstrong was seen by an Indian private citizen being taken, bound, by Chinese into the Chinese Communist consulate general.

"The Indian national reported this to the local police and to the American consulate general. Our latest information indicates that it was

Death Toll On Highways Slackening

Many People Returning To Normal Routine

By Associated Press

Highway traffic deaths slackened yesterday as many Americans went back to a workaday routine after the Thanksgiving feast.

Late last night the toll showed 187 killed in traffic; 19 by fire, and 40 in miscellaneous mishaps for a total of 246.

With some pickup expected during normal weekend hours, especially Saturday night and early Sunday when tipplers are most numerous, it still appeared the four-day highway toll might be modest.

The current holiday survey covers the period from 6 p.m. local time Wednesday to midnight Sunday — 102 hours. The accident death toll in a survey made by The Associated Press for a weekend of similar length from 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 11 to midnight Sunday, Nov. 15, was 433 traffic fatalities.

During the test period 49 were killed in fires and 100 in miscellaneous other accidents, an overall toll of 582.

The National Safety Council estimated that 470 persons would be killed during a weekend period of four days at this time of year.

Last year, the Associated Press counted 454 traffic deaths during the Thanksgiving holiday weekend, 54 in fires and 118 from miscellaneous accidents — 626 in all.

The record four-day holiday traffic toll, for Christmas 1956, was 707. Fires and miscellaneous other accidents brought the fatality toll to 884.

Khrushchev May Remove Troops

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Informed Western sources speculated Friday night that Nikita Khrushchev may be thinking of removing Soviet troops from Hungary.

The Soviet Embassy announced the Soviet Premier will attend the seventh congress of the Hungarian Communist party opening here Monday. He is expected to fly in Sunday.

The congress will be the Hungarian party's first full conclave since 1956, when the Hungarian revolution was crushed by Soviet tanks. It is estimated from 50,000 to 80,000 Soviet troops are still stationed in this country.

The Western source said Khrushchev may well be coming to discuss with Hungarian leaders

Police Chief Is Witness In Ark. Bomb Case

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Police Chief Gene Smith testified today police had made periodic checks on E. A. Lauderdale's activities prior to Labor Day dynamitings here.

"We had reports that Lauderdale was a Ku Klux Klan member and that there might be violence," Smith said.

Smith was a witness as Lauderdale's trial on charges of dynamiting Little Rock School Board headquarters on Sept. 7 went into its third day.

The state has sought to show the 48-year-old segregationist leader was the mastermind of a plot which resulted in three blasts Labor Day evening.

RECORD

Already in the trial record is testimony to that effect by Jesse Raymond Perry, 24, and Samuel Graydon Beavers, 49. Perry, convicted in the school board bombing, told the jury Lauderdale approached him at a Ku Klux Klan meeting and advanced the bomb plot to "shake up Little Rock"

Another Train Takes Off On Solitary Ride

WEEHAWKEN, N.J. AP—A small New York Central Railroad locomotive caught the fever Friday and went off alone on a two-mile ride with no one in its cab.

The little diesel engine was parked outside the office of the railroad's Weehawken yards while its engineer and fireman went inside to get further orders.

A Central spokesman said the locomotive then drifted off at a slow speed over about two miles of yard tracks. It stopped when it nudged into a pile of ties and dirt at the stub end of a track.

According to the spokesman, its brakes were found to be improperly set and its reverser handle had not been removed as operating rules require when engines are left untended.

AT U.S. CONSULATE IN BOMBAY

Marine Guard Reported Kidnaped

BOMBAY, India (AP) — A Marine guard at the U. S. consulate in Bombay, India, was reported kidnaped and held for six hours Friday by the staff of the Chinese Communist consulate there.

The State Department said the guard had stayed overnight at a beach house with a would-be defector from Red China, identified as the Bombay representative of the Chinese Import - Export Corp.

Sgt. Robert Amstrong, a native of Martinez, Calif., was released after intervention by the Bombay police.

A news dispatch from Bombay said he had been bound and beaten by the Chinese Reds. The dispatch attributed his discovery to an Indian postman. The State Department said only that he had been seen by an Indian citizen as he was being taken, bound, into the Chinese Communist consulate.

State department press officer Joseph Reap called it kidnaping and added: "A high - handed, outrageous thing."

The reported kidnaping was connected, in both the department account and an account provided by a U. S. spokesman in Bombay, with efforts by the consulate to protect the would-be defector, Chang Chien-Huh.

The State Department said Chang called at the consulate, inquired about obtaining entry into the United States, and "showed extreme anxiety for his safety."

There were some discrepancies in the two accounts although the report from the State Department admittedly was incomplete.

Chang, the department said, told consulate officials "he had been brooding over the implications of the extremist trend in Chinese Communist policies and was fed up with the increased regimentation of his life."

He wrote out a statement in Chinese and English, requesting asylum in the United States, the department said.

An officer of the consulate, who was not named by the department, was said to have taken Chang and Armstrong to a beach house where they could talk quietly. The cottage was at Jehu, a resort 15 miles outside Bombay, the Bombay dispatch said.

"Since he feared for his safety," the State Department said, "arrangements were made for Chang Chien-Huh to stay at the beach house overnight with Sgt. Armstrong."

That was Thursday night Bombay time. About 7:30 Friday morning, Bombay time, the State Department said, "Armstrong was seen by an Indian private citizen being taken, bound, by Chinese into the Chinese Communist consulate general.

"The Indian national reported this to the local police and to the American consulate general. Our latest information indicates that it was

Lincoln Demo Official, Wife Are Fatalities

WINNFIELD (Special)—The chairman of the Lincoln Parish Democratic Executive Committee and his wife were killed in a head-on collision of two cars that also claimed the lives of two youthful Winnfield brothers here Friday. The four fatalities brought the area Thanksgiving holiday weekend traffic death toll to six.

Two other persons were injured in the accident which occurred three miles north of here on U.S. Highway 167 at 3:15 p.m.

Dead are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Phillips of Simsboro, 67 and 66 respectively, Tommy Massey, 20 and his brother, Wayne Massey, 19. Injured are the Phillips' daughter, Mrs. Loyd Tabor, 23, Shreveport, a bride of six weeks, and Mrs. Joe Bryan, 50, of Ruston.

RETIRED

Phillips, in addition to being chairman of the Lincoln Parish Democratic Executive Committee, was a retired farmer and real estate holder. He was noted for his work in the federal farm program.

It was the second traffic accident in this area involving fatalities in two days. Two Goodpine Negroes died in an auto crash Thursday near Summerville between Olla and Jena. They were Lee Odis Washington, 19 and Howard Jackson, 22.

THROWN OUT

The Massey brothers were headed south and attempted to pass another car in front of which was a slow - moving truck. Attempting to wedge in behind the truck, the Massey auto swerved to the left, swerved sidewise down the highway and met the oncoming vehicle driven by Mrs. Tabor.

Gremillion Tells Views About NAACP Lists

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Louisiana attorney general Jack Gremillion told a three-judge federal court Friday that a state law requiring organizations to submit membership lists was enacted to aid the NAACP, not hinder it.

Gremillion's statement came as the NAACP opened its bid for a federal ruling on the constitutionality of the Louisiana law.

The act, he said, was passed 24 to 30 years ago, "to help groups discriminated against."

The NAACP asked for removal of the suit from the Caddo Parish district court, where Gremillion brought the issue Oct. 9, to the federal court.

HALTED

The suit halted an NAACP convention in Shreveport on grounds that it had not filed a membership in 1958, as required by state law.

Gremillion told the court that the NAACP had been offended by the Ku Klux Klan and other groups and the suit was passed in the NAACP's behalf.

Recently, he said, the KKK attempted to reorganize, but he told them they would have to comply with the law. The reorganization failed because of the law's requirements.

"Since I have been in office," Gremillion said, "I have not in one instance discriminated against the NAACP. I ask them only to obey the law. Then I took the action I felt was my duty and I still feel it is my duty."

a possible withdrawal of these men.

ACTION

(Such an action could help clear the air for the projected East-West summit meeting. It would be in keeping with Khrushchev's announced desire for normalization of relations. So far the Soviets have ignored U.N. Assembly resolutions calling for removal of the troops.)

The announcement of Khrushchev's visit came as Sir Leslie Munro of New Zealand, U. N. special representative on Hungary placed his report before the General Assembly in New York.

Munro said withdrawal of the troops "would undoubtedly be regarded by all members of the United Nations as a contribution to the normalization of the situation."

Hungary's official view has been that the Soviets are here under arrangements of the Soviet-led Warsaw Pact and any withdrawal would be a Warsaw Pact decision.

But the Western sources feel that Janos Kadar, chief of the Communist party, would gain in popularity if they went.

There is a new feeling of vitality in Hungary. The situation of the people has changed considerably since 1956.

Under Kadar's leadership, the party is now firmly in the saddle.

The standard of living of the 10 million Hungarians is rising. Shops are filled with consumer goods, though they are sometimes of poor quality and often cost more than in the West.

The main item on the program of the Communist congress is a new five-year-plan aimed at rising industrial production 65 or 70 per cent by 1965.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A special U. N. representative reported Friday that new reprisals against anti-Communist rebels in Hungary justified continued U. N. concern with the situation.

Sir Leslie Munro of New Zealand made the statement in a 15-page report to the 82-atio Ge-i page report to the 82-nation General Assembly, which will hold full-scale debate on Hungary next week.

The Assembly named Munro, its former president, as special representative last year. He was told to explore what could be done to implement previous Assembly resolutions stemming from the suppression of the 1956 Hungarian revolt with the aid of Soviet armed forces.

Release of his report coincided with word from Moscow that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will attend the Hungarian Communist party congress in Budapest opening on Monday—the first since the 1956 uprising.

The report was made public also amid a flurry of excitement over the apparent suicide of Povl Bang-Jensen, a former U. N. political officer who was fired for refusal to turn over to U. N. officials a list of Hungarian witnesses who testified in secret before a U. N. fact-finding committee on Hungary.

"In the course of the past year," Munro said, "no evidence has been forthcoming on any basic change in the Hungarian situation which would warrant relaxation by the United Nations of its continued attention to the problem."

He said there had been a long blackout of news from Budapest on trials of anti-Communist rebels, but that in recent weeks new information on both trials and executions had come to light.

He noted statements given to reporters in Budapest last month on death sentences carried out in connection with the 1956 uprising, and also to reports of "another major trial."

"It is against this background that consideration needs to be given to recent reports of a disturbing character which have aroused widespread concern regarding the imminent possibility of further executions," he said.

Munro reported that Soviet troops still remain in Hungary despite U. N. Assembly resolutions calling for their removal.

Withdrawal of these forces, he said, "would undoubtedly be regarded by all members of the United Nations as a contribution to the normalization of the situation."

He cited charges in a Hungarian Communist newspaper that "American monopoly capitalists" were behind the 1956 revolt. He said this was part of the "fanciful version" of the revolt being told by Hungarian authorities to justify their defiance of the United Nations.

He said what happened in Hungary was that Soviet tanks shot at Hungarian workers who were trying to set up a government controlled by the people.

"Does it make sense to claim that, when the people of a country are targets for military operations conducted by the armed forces of a foreign power, such actions are a matter of domestic jurisdiction?" he asked.

"To assert this view is to destroy the very foundations of the United Nations."

a number of hours later and after repeated interventions by the Bombay police that Sgt. Armstrong was released by the Chinese Communists."

Reap said the department had no information on what happened to Chang, but "presumably he's in the hands of the Chinese Communists."

Reap also said he had no information that Armstrong had been harmed.

The State Department had no information, officials said, about how Armstrong and Chang got from the beach cottage to the Red Chinese consulate, or where the alleged attack on Armstrong occurred.

The Bombay account said the two men spent the night at the beach cottage and that while Chang was still there Friday morning the sergeant discovered that a tape recording of statements made earlier by Chang had disappeared.

According to this account, Chang told Armstrong he wanted to go back to Bombay and the two took a taxi into the city. Chang got out at the Red Chinese consulate and Armstrong followed him, the dispatch said, in an effort to recover the tape recording which he assumed Chang had.

Armstrong was seized by a group of Chinese near the consulate gate, the dispatch said.

sterbusting" and "that is what it was intended to do."

McClellan said that his committee heard 1,525 witnesses in its investigations and that almost one-fourth of them stood on their constitutional grounds under the fifth amendment and refused to testify. He called this condition "alarming."

He said that in 1958 the major crime in the nation increased by 11 per cent and said that this is five times greater than the population increase.

The senator pointed out that his remarks, nor the labor bill, were indictments of labor and workers. He said he and his Congressional colleagues "realize that a majority of union members are honest, sincere citizens. It is this majority that we are trying to protect."

He claimed that $20-billion have been invested in industry abroad since 1945 and that, had this money been used for industrial expansion in the U.S., it would have created one million more jobs. He said that the reason it was being used abroad was because of the high cost of production in the U.S. which he tied to "inflationary wage demands" by unions.

INTERVIEW

In an interview after the address, Sen. McClellan said that he felt that if the steel strike is resumed after the Taft - Hartley injunction expires, that Congress will take positive action to end the strike. He said that at the expiration of the 80-day period, Congress will be in session.

He also said that he was sure a strong effort will be made to pass more civil rights legislation. He expressed a hope that the Southerners in Congress would be able to block it.

He said he had no knowledge of Jimmy Hoffa's future — that it was a court matter now. Hoffa is the Teamster Union boss who has been one of the main characters in the Rackets probes.

Sen. McClellan revealed that the Senate Rackets Committee will expire on Jan. 30, 1960, and that he did not intend to ask continuance of it.

way this is talked over," Nehru said.

Military action would make India a nation in arms, he declared.

Toward the end of his 80-minute speech, Nehru defended Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon, who was charged with being soft on communism. Nehru said Menon was sometimes wrong but he is "a man of the deepest patriotism and national feeling."

For the first time in the present dispute, Nehru declared an attack on independent Nepal or on Bhutan would be regarded as an attack on India.

There have been reports of Red Chinese troop concentrations in Tibet on the border of Nepal which has been trying to stay neutral in the Indian-Chinese dispute. India already handles the foreign affairs of Bhutan and a protectorate over the neighboring Himalayan border state of Sikkim.

Nehru also sought to quell criticisms of India's settlement of the eastern border dispute with Pakistan. One member complained that 370 Indian families were handed over to Pakistan.

Withdrawal of these forces, he said, "would undoubtedly be regarded by all members of the United Nations as a contribution to the normalization of the situation."

He cited charges in a Hungarian Communist newspaper that "American monopoly capitalists" were behind the 1956 revolt. He said this was part of the "fanciful version" of the revolt being told by Hungarian authorities to justify their defiance of the United Nations.

He said what happened in Hungary was that Soviet tanks shot at Hungarian workers who were trying to set up a government controlled by the people.

"Does it make sense to claim that, when the people of a country are targets for military operations conducted by the armed forces of a foreign power, such actions are a matter of domestic jurisdiction?" he asked.

"To assert this view is to destroy the very foundations of the United Nations."

a number of hours later and after repeated interventions by the Bombay police that Sgt. Armstrong was released by the Chinese Communists."

Reap said the department had no information on what happened to Chang, but "presumably he's in the hands of the Chinese Communists."

Reap also said he had no information that Armstrong had been harmed.

The State Department had no information, officials said, about how Armstrong and Chang got from the beach cottage to the Red Chinese consulate, or where the alleged attack on Armstrong occurred.

The Bombay account said the two men spent the night at the beach cottage and that while Chang was still there Friday morning the sergeant discovered that a tape recording of statements made earlier by Chang had disappeared.

According to this account, Chang told Armstrong he wanted to go back to Bombay and the two took a taxi into the city. Chang got out at the Red Chinese consulate and Armstrong followed him, the dispatch said, in an effort to recover the tape recording which he assumed Chang had.

Armstrong was seized by a group of Chinese near the consulate gate, the dispatch said.

sterbusting" and "that is what it was intended to do."

McClellan said that his committee heard 1,525 witnesses in its investigations and that almost one-fourth of them stood on their constitutional grounds under the fifth amendment and refused to testify. He called this condition "alarming."

He said that in 1958 the major crime in the nation increased by 11 per cent and said that this is five times greater than the population increase.

The senator pointed out that his remarks, nor the labor bill, were indictments of labor and workers. He said he and his Congressional colleagues "realize that a majority of union members are honest, sincere citizens. It is this majority that we are trying to protect."

He claimed that $20-billion have been invested in industry abroad since 1945 and that, had this money been used for industrial expansion in the U.S., it would have created one million more jobs. He said that the reason it was being used abroad was because of the high cost of production in the U.S. which he tied to "inflationary wage demands" by unions.

INTERVIEW

In an interview after the address, Sen. McClellan said that he felt that if the steel strike is resumed after the Taft - Hartley injunction expires, that Congress will take positive action to end the strike. He said that at the expiration of the 80-day period, Congress will be in session.

He also said that he was sure a strong effort will be made to pass more civil rights legislation. He expressed a hope that the Southerners in Congress would be able to block it.

He said he had no knowledge of Jimmy Hoffa's future — that it was a court matter now. Hoffa is the Teamster Union boss who has been one of the main characters in the Rackets probes.

Sen. McClellan revealed that the Senate Rackets Committee will expire on Jan. 30, 1960, and that he did not intend to ask continuance of it.

way this is talked over," Nehru said.

Toward the end of his 80-minute speech, Nehru defended Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon, who was charged with being soft on communism. Nehru said Menon was sometimes wrong but he is "a man of the deepest patriotism and national feeling."

For the first time in the present dispute, Nehru declared an attack on independent Nepal or on Bhutan would be regarded as an attack on India.

There have been reports of Red Chinese troop concentrations in Tibet on the border of Nepal which has been trying to stay neutral in the Indian-Chinese dispute. India already handles the foreign affairs of Bhutan and a protectorate over the neighboring Himalayan border state of Sikkim.

Nehru also sought to quell criticisms of India's settlement of the eastern border dispute with Pakistan. One member complained that 370 Indian families were handed over to Pakistan.

Strike Paving Way To Caution

NEW YORK (AP) — Corporate dividends are expected to reach an all-time high this year despite effects of the steel strike.

A survey by Business Week indicated Friday that the total probably won't reach the 14 billion dollars expected earlier this year, but should go to at least $13,300,000,000 and perhaps to 13½ billion.

In the previous record year of 1957, corporations paid out 12½ billion to their stockholders.

The strike has made some companies cautious about raising dividends but many others say it won't change their plans for payments, according to the survey.

The balance of this year doesn't appear as promising as before the strike. Some companies won't pay extras which had been planned and others have put off proposed increases.

Railroad stock hold the key to the stock market activity, says E. F. Hutton & Co. "The current rise in the industrials would appear to be technically secure if it were not for the divergence in the rails," Hutton observes. "If the carrier group turns around and rises now it would do more to insure a broad and sustained rally in the market than any other single technical occurrence."

"By early 1960 good recoveries are expected in stocks now heavily depressed by tax selling," says Goodbody & Co. "However, a highly selective market performance will probably continue with stocks or strong and popular growing companies probably doing better over the next half year than issues merely offering 'bargain' characteristics.

"Many stocks today are lower than they were two months ago, when the average reached a low for the decline some 35 points below the present level. Other stocks are far higher than they were when the averages reached an all-time high last summer nearly 30 points above the present level.

"In connection with these diverse trends, every investor would do well to study holdings and, where possible, switch his uninteresting, lusterless or doubtful stocks to issues apparently offering well-secured prospects and that have not fully discounted in market price at patently favorable future."

Many oil stocks appear to be statistical bargains as the result of year-end tax selling, comments Oil Statistics Co., Inc., adding that indications are renewed buying will come from many of today's sellers after the required 30-day waiting period.

Boy Gambles With Russian Roulette, Loses

PEORIA, Ill. (UPI)—A 14-year-old boy who lost a game of Russian roulette battled for life Friday.

Police said Ralph Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ford Sr., critically wounded himself when he put a bullet in a .38 caliber pistol, spun the chamber, pressed the muzzle against his temple and pulled the trigger.

The bullet crashed into Ralph's right temple.

The boy had gone to the home of a neighbor, James Sturgeon, to watch television with Sturgeon's sons, James, 17, Jerry, 15, and Terry, 12.

Young James Sturgeon said Ralph was sitting on the top bunk in the bedroom when he suddenly drew the pistol and asked if anyone wanted to play Russian roulette.

"Are you crazy?" James said.

Without answering, Ralph fired the bullet into his head and was rushed to St. Francis Hospital in critical condition.

Police said the boy's parents could not identify the pistol and did not know where their son got it.

Education Study Experimenting With Recruits

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UPI)—A Yale-Fairfield education study financed by the Fund for the Advancement of Education has successfully carried out an experiment to show that young mothers can be recruited for public school teaching.

The Yale education experts, working under professor emeritus Clyde M. Hill, reported Friday that three years of special training prepared housewives possessing college degrees to be better teachers than those who normally begin immediately following graduation.

Of eight young mothers who did part-time supervised practice teaching in the Fairfield Public schools and attended special teaching classes, five are still on the job and the remaining three definitely plan an educational career.

The Yale study reported that the program's cost was $750 per woman. Another conclusion was that the maturity of mother-teachers gives them greater ability to cope with classroom problems.

70-Year-Old Killed, Four Hurt In Ala.

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—A 70-year-old Mississippi man was killed and four servicemen injured Friday in a headon collision on U.S. 98 about 20 miles west of downtown Mobile.

Mac Kellum, Lucedale, Miss., alone in one car, was killed.

Highway patrolman W. O. Peak said Kellum's car veered off the right side of the road, traveled about 280 feet along the shoulder and swerved across the road and into the path of the second car.

The driver of that car, 21-year-old Glen A. Walley of Richton, Miss., a serviceman on leave, was slightly injured.

Three servicemen who had hitched a ride with him also were hurt and two were listed in serious condition.

The three were Airman Tommy Rials, 21, of (McDowell Rd.) Jackson, Miss., and Clyde Finch, 29, of (219 Winfield St.) Jackson, both assigned to Eglin Air Force Base, Fla.; and Navy enlisted man Wayne R. Williams, 19, of Emogee, Ala., stationed at the Pensacola (Fla.) Naval Air Station.

Rials and Williams were in serious condition. Finch suffered minor injuries.

Christmas Decorations

With everything entirely new, the Christmas decorations in Monroe this year far surpass anything to be found in a town of comparable size anywhere in the gulf south.

Based on dollar cost alone, the new and amazingly beautiful decorations are on a level with those which may be found in cities twice the size of Monroe.

Purchase price of the completely new decorations was reported to have exceeded any single such sale in the gulf south this year, including those for larger cities.

Elaborately lighted foil trees.

Matching ornaments crossing the streets in tier eschelon patterns.

This outstandingly beautiful system of Christmas decorations was made possible by members of the Retail Merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce, Monroe city officials and the Monroe utilities comission.

Money for the purchase was supplied by members of the Retail Merchants division. The splendid job of erecting the display was performed through the cooperation of Mayor W. L. (Jack) Howard, other members of the city council, members of the utilities commission and city employes.

Friday night at 6 o'clock the lights were turned on for the first time and the magnificent display burst forth in all its glory, amazing and delighting the many spectators who were present for the occasion. There were numerous expressions of admiration and commendation for those who made it possible for Monroe to turn on a spectacle of magnificence rarely seen in a city of this size.

Decorations here were erected not only for the benefit of the people of the Twin Cities but for those of the entire Monroe trade area, including the 14 parishes of the fifth congressional district and a few parishes beyond, as well as for all others who might visit in this area or pass through. Those who visit Monroe will find that this city has something really worth seeing and beautiful to behold.

Congratulations of the Monroe Morning World and Monroe News-Star are extended not only to those who made the display possible but to all those having the pleasure of viewing such a wonderful display.

Jury Trial Guarantee

Although the American constitution gives ample guarantees of the right to trial by jury, there appears to be constant pressure, somtimes by court personnel themselves, for eliminating jury trials insofar as possible.

It can be said, without fear of contradiction, that most misdemeanor and felony cases reach the point of sentencing by a judge without benefit of jury trial, both in federal and state courts. This, of course, includes the cases in which pleas of guilty are entered and in which jury trials are waived.

In many of the lesser criminal cases, however, the defendant is not offered a jury trial. This is true in federal and in some state and city courts, although the provisions of the constitution make it difficult to find out a jury trial can be avoided legally if the defendant wishes it.

It must be noted here that some states still guarantee the right of trial by jury, even in traffic cases and other minor offenses, if the defense requests it. Among these states are California and Texas, the former of which provides in article one, section seven, of the California constitution that the right of a jury trial shall remain inviolate.

Provision is made in California and in other states in which the right to a jury trial is guarantee that such right may be waived "in open court by the defendant, his counsel and the people." This merely means that if the defendant does not desire a jury trial he may waive it and be tried by the judge if his counsel and the prosecutor (who represents the people) are also willing

Article 3, section 2, of the fed-constitution provides that "the trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury."

The sixth amendment to the federal constitution provides, "in all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the trial shall have been committed."

Neither of these provisions says that such guarantees shall apply only in state courts or only in federal courts, nor that they shall apply only in major crimes and not minor crimes, nor that they shall apply only to adults and not to juveniles. They simply say flatly that every defendant is entitled to trial by jury. Anyone who says these guarantees were meant to apply only in such and such a set of circumstances is merely using his own interpretation.

Every person accused of a crime, whether minor or major and whether he is an adult or a juvenile, is entitled both to a jury trial and to representation by counsel if he desires it or if his nearest relative or guardian desires it in the case of a juvenile.

This is not intended to mean that juvenile cases ordinarily should be handled in open court or tried by a jury. In most cases, if not all, the better method probably is that now generally in use. Yet it is hard to find a way in which representation and jury trial can be legally avoided if desired by those most concerned.

There must have been good historical reasons for preserving so carefully the right to a trial by jury for defendants in criminal cases. Whatever those reasons may have been, we should be willing to examine the importance of such right in its present-day application.

Such statements as, "it is outmoded," "it makes for extra expense and unreasonable delay," "jurors are not qualified," are "judges are better trained" are frequently made.

There has also been the argument that a jury verdict must always be a compromise verdict, since no 12 men can agree exactly on anything, whereas a judge returns a verdict on the basis of his considered judgment. A compromise judgement for a person who is subject to conviction for a crime may be better than the judgment of one man, since it is a cross - section of the average man's belie, whereas the judge's decision is that of a single mind. None of us can be completely without prejudice.

Whatever arguments may be presented in favor of non-jury trials, on the basis of expediency or even on the presumed basis of justice, none can change the right guaranteed under the constitution.

That right can be changed or abridged only through amendments to the constitution.

There is not much likelihood that such an amendment could be enacted, since the right of trial by jury has always been regarded as a major part of our American democracy.

Brains Principal Waste

'Conflict Of Interest' Rule Means That Some Of Best Intellects Of Country Not Available For U. S.

The principal waste in this country is of brains. The "conflict of interest" rule means that some of the best intellects of the country are not available for service to the American people. Another waste of intellect is the system of retirement. When a man reaches 62 in some firms or 65 in others and similar ages in government positions, out he goes no matter how alert, how wise, how experienced, how capable he may be.

This is utter waste. Some of the most capable men in this country are in their 80's. Bernard Baruch will be 90 on his next birthday and he is thinking more clearly than most of our politicians in Washington. General J. H. Doolittle, in an address nearly a decade ago, said:

"Two thousand years ago, the average individual could expect to live 25 years. The actual and projected average life span for white males in the U.S. was 48 years in 1900, 58 years in 1925, and is 66 for 1950 and 71 for 1975.

"This trend is splendid, but it presents several problems. Along with greater longevity, there has been a continuing increase in educational level and a consequent increase in the age at which individuals enter the labor force. There has also been a decline in the relative number of very old people engaged in productive work. In general, the tendency, after a liberal pension plan is assured, is to decrease retirement age . . ."

The waste is not so much that the middle-aged group have to support the oldsters as it is that we lose the advantage of the experience and wisdom of older men and women. We are depriving ourselves of the advantages of their knowledge and skill. We are casting aside years of training and losing billions of dollars of costly education. This is particularly true of engineers and scholars of various kinds.

It has been suggested by Frederick E. Moskovics, himself an oldster still at work, that it would be sound for the government to take on retired men of great experience in an advisory capacity. Many such men are financially independent or are living on pensions from their former companies and are capable of 10 or 15 years more of top-notch work. This is what General Doolittle had to say about Moskovics:

* * *

". . . Fred had practically retired before the war and was absolutely lost. When the war crisis came up, he went back to work as a full time consultant with the U.S.A.F. and not only found happiness, but health and renewed youth. Having had that experience, he now doesn't want to return to inactivity — Fred is 71 years young (80 in 1959) . . . . Age and obsolescence should not be measured chronologically, but by competence and productive capacity. This is sometimes difficult to do in business, where an arbitrary 'par for the retirement age course' is often established. It is particularly those people who are at their mental peak and in good physical condition, but who are forced to retire as a result of company ruling, whom we should attempt to retrieve."

Moskovics tells this:

". . . Some years ago when I was vice president of the American Standards Association I was closely associated with Bancroft Gherardi, who was vice president and general manager of the A.T.&T. He was at that time president of the American Standards Association and that particular year received the Edison medal for electrical achievements. At 65 years of age he was retired arbitrarily. Physically he was in splendid shape . . ."

To pull a strong, active man away from his work and to tell him to do nothing is to kill him. Even if he does not die, even if he devotes himself to golf and bridge or some other hobbies, he is no longer constructive; he feels death at his heels. In a country such as ours, where brain-power needs to be mobilized in the public interest, such men should not be wasted.

The reasons why the older and wiser men are pushed aside are that pension funds, insurance policies, the demands of younger men force companies and government offices to adopt rigid rules. Age is no longer a barrier to hard work, particularly in fields which involve mental effort rather than physical activity. We need only look at what Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has done for West Germany to realize the great advantage of orderly thinking at whatever age.

DR. PETER J. STEINCROHN

'Chronic Appendix'

Don't Go Around Worrying About It Unless Case Is Acute

"Dear Dr. Steincrohn: What is borderline appendicitis? A friend of mine said he almost had to go to the hospital because he had a borderline case. Mr. T. L."

ANSWER: I really don't know; unless his doctor meant that it was a "suspicious" case that deserved close observation and study.

I have always gone along on this practical basis: either you have acute appendicitis or you haven't. If you don't have it, better forget about it. In other words, don't go worrying about having a "chronic appendix." If you have an acute attack, then operation within hours is a must.

There can be no procrastinating with an inflamed appendix. No experimenting with ice bags, antibiotics or other measures to "try to prevent operation."

I think you should know, Mr. T. L., that all attacks of appendicitis are not "text book cases." In the typical case — in which any junior in medical school can make the correct diagnosis — these are the following symptoms and signs:

The patient begins to have diffuse pain all over his abdomen. After a few hours the discomfort localizes over his lower right side. He has nausea and vomiting. His pulse becomes rapid and he has fever.

But never try to make the diagnosis yourself. That is the doctor's job. For, you can have acute appendicitis without vomiting, nausea, rapid pulse and fever. Sometimes the pain isn't too bad, either.

I recall one patient years ago who might have been the proverbial "dead duck" if the surgeon hadn't been willing to operate. All he had was a little discomfort which was exaggerated slightly (rebound tenderness) when the examiner's fingers pressed over a spot in the lower right abdomen called "McBurney's point."

Yet, when operated (in spite of no other symptoms or signs), he had the most inflamed appendix I had ever seen. You see, early diagnosis is imperative. Acute appendicitis is not borderline. Either it is or isn't acute.

DIAGNOSIS OF OVERACTIVE THYROID

From Mrs. K. K. of Calgary, Canada comes the queston: "Just what is the best laboratory test to use in diagnosing thyroid trouble, especially when you suspect that the gland is too active?"

COMMENT: Your doctor probably will not rely upon laboratory examination alone. Often I have persisted in the diagnosis of overactive thyroid when the laboratory examinations were quite questionable. Correct diagnosis depends upon clinical observation, too.

I recall equivocal laboratory reports in one woman. Nothing was definite. Yet she had an unusually warm and moist skin, a moderately rapid pulse and a persistent, though slight, finger tremor. Subsequent treatment confirmed the diagnosis of hyperthyroidism.

I am not saying that laboratory determinations are unimportant. They are. But we mustn't forget clinical judgment.

As for the best test, I don't believe one is much better than another. Sometimes more than one must be tried. Often, a carefully taken metabolism test plus clinical evaluation is all that is necessary for the diagnosis.

If the results are indefinite, there are two other valuable tests for thyroid function. 1. Protein-bound iodine determination (PBI test). 2. Radioiodine uptake.

However, these, too, can be deceptive if the patient has been taking such things as iodine, antithyroid drugs, thyroid, mercurial diuretics. Sometimes accurate results are thrown off in the presence of hepatitis or pregnancy.

ADVICE TO CORRESPONDENT

Aside to Mr. J. B. V. of Michigan: A little patience and understanding will keep your marriage from blowing apart. Remember there is such a disturbing condition known as premenstrual tension.

EARLY DIAGNOSIS IMPORTANT IN ARTHRITIS

For Mrs. L. P. of Oregon: You are right. In arthritis, the most important consideration is correct and early diagnosis. Many's the case of undiagnosed gout I have seen in long suffering patients.

Early diagnosis would have brought an effective barrage of such drugs as colchicine, benecid, steroids, etc.

Same Thing Again

Putting Cranberry Crop In Warehouses Hurts Thanksgiving

"You'll do the same thing over again, Over and over and over again." Thus ran a tuneful song of a bygone day. It could be the present day theme song of either or both major political parties.

Perhaps the subject is a little offkey today when the nation at Thanksgiving rejoices over bountiful crops from Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Canadian border to the Gulf — cranberries, and all. But there would be greater rejoicing if less of that bumper crop had gone into warehouses on expensive loans. Or, if the end of the college football season did not signal the on-season for making the nation's farmers the football of politics.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson lopes out with the 1960 version of a farm bill, so little changed from the 1957, 1958, 1959 ad infinitum model as to again insure no sale in congress.

From the opposite camp Senators Symington of Missouri, Kennedy of Massachusetts and Humphrey of Minnesota, all running as hard as ever they can for the Democratic presidential nomination, assail the administration proposal and unveil some very vague plans of their own, which are deciperable enough for an assured judgment that none of them could withstand a presidential veto.

So they'll do the same thing over again beginning in January —first in congress and then in the presidential campaign. The presidential campaign is where the grand old game of passing the buck will really get the play. Farmers have been leaving the farms in all makes of cars and entering other walks of life at an increasingly accelerated rate. Just how many have moved from farm to town and city in the last decade will be told in the farm census just about ready to get underway. But there are sufficient numbers who still abide on farms to swing an election in some states, and that's not hay.

Nearly everybody here is looking forward to a copious yield of epithets and invective at the gathering time although the young shoots are sprouting feebly as of now. They will be nurtured carefully and become increasingly robust.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson sneaked up on the unsuspecting Democrats by his memorandum laying down "essential aspects of a sound farm program" on November 10, two days more than a full fortnight before Thanksgiving. Farmers received Benson's five point program with subdued cheering as it contained nothin new. But the peripatetic presidential candidates of the opposition party and their surprised script writers stopped in their dizzy whirl through the hustings to reply. No politician could sustain presidential availability claims unless he could create an image of himself as the farmers' friend.

Senator Symington, a cityman-born, but who knows a grass root when he sees it, was in Long Beach, California. He called Benson's new plans as well as all Benson - sponsored programs "an obvious waste of both food and money." To put the 5-point Benson plan in the shade he imparted a six-point Symington plan.

Senator Kennedy comes from Boston, the happy habitat of both Brahmans and lace curtain Irish, though seldom thought of as a seat of agriculture. But Boston is the capital of the land of the bean and the cod. The soft-finned cod is, of course, a sea crop. But the bean is agricultural, although largely an import crop for Massachusetts. But Kennedy was close to the rich soil of the Wisconsin Dairyland at the time and he issued a horny - handed five-point farm program of his own, exactly tying Benson on points by falling one short of Symington.

Senator Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, a pharmacist by trade, is no rookie in any sphere. He contented himself with a short, (for Humphrey) statement, the gist of which was that the Benson program would "result in even greater surpluses and bring ruin to thousands of wheat producers." As Humphrey made ready to hasten to the quondam unfriendly state of Texas, and points south the word was that he would release his 1960 farm plan piecemeal.

Humphrey backers were entirely satisfied with this strategy for Humphrey emits farm solutions, as he does on all other problems with effortless grace, and the political bookmakers were offering odds of 7 to 5 that when the complete Humphrey farm program bursts forth in its full resplendency it will have more points than those of Benson, Symington, Kennedy and all other comers combined.

There the lines stood at Thanksgiving. The agricultural caldron will really get up a head of steam in January. That session of congress will be Benson's last stand. He will be out of office after that. He has been very durable. Picked as the cabinet member most likely not to remain, he is one of the remaining two of the original Eisenhower cabinet. Benson knows his farm plan has no chance. The itinerate electioneering presidential candidates know the prospects for their plans are nil.

Doubtless anything that would spoil the politician's heyday, such as mention in the taxpayer, should be frowned upon. But next year's budget is being readied for presentation to congress and the taxpayer will again be asked to pick up a whopping tab for agriculture, perhaps $4,000,000,000 or at any rate close to it. That would make net agricultural expenditures in twenty - eight years $62,200,000,000, divided $25,200,000,000 in the twenty Roosevelt-Truman years, $37,000,000,000 in the eight Eisenhower years. And the warehouses bulge with $100,000,000,000 storage of surpluses on which government loans have been made.

Land Buying Decision Still Pending Here

A decision on whether the Utilities Commission will buy 5½ lots on Park Avenue is still pending, but the purchase will have to be approved by the City Council for a second time.

Mayor W. L. (Jack) Howard said yesterday afternoon the council had not received a request for approval from the Utilities Commission.

Commission chairman Travis Oliver Jr. said, "Members of the commission have favored the purchase individually, but I'll have to talk to the mayor."

Under the law, the purchase would have to be approved by the City Council.

CHANGED

The $59,850 proposal originally received the council's approval, but the commission later changed its position and decided against buying the land.

"That action by the commission rescinded our resolution," Howard explained. "So if the commission decides again to buy it, they'll have to bring the request before the council again and we in turn will have to pass another resolution."

At a meeting several days ago members of the commission voiced approval of buying the land, but failed to take action because of Oliver's absence.

He said yesterday, "If the members of the commission are in favor of buying the land, I am too."

The land is being offered to the commission for $59,850 by owners Mrs. Berta Petagna, Mrs. Susie R. Griffith, Mrs. W. A. Bickham and Ivy Rayner.

Located across the street from the power plant, the land would be used for plant expansion purposes. Water mains would be run from the Ouachita River to the power plant.

One Child Killed, One Injured In Freak Mishap

KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. (AP) —Ben F. Sessoms, 58, was driving a trash truck to the city dump today when a large cardboard box blew off.

He retrieved the box and went on to the dump. Unknown to him, the box fell off again.

On the return trip, he told patrolmen, he saw the box on the roadside and decided to drive over it to mash it so it wouldn't blow away again.

He drove over the box and killed Rosa Oliva Black, 9, and seriously injured Edgar Moore, 11, who were playing inside.

Daily Devotional

Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel. — Ezk. 8:17

It is interesting to note how the President of the United States and other high government officials are surrounded by security agents when we see them on television and in the news pictures of movie houses. These men are in the background, but their eyes are ever roving over the crowds like searchlights that probe into the darkness of the night. You feel confident that any move to harm the men they are protecting would be immediately discovered. In like manner, we are watchmen for the Lord, to see that His children are kept safe.

Heavenly Father, help us to take seriously our obligation to watch over the helpless and the erring. In Christ's name we plead. Amen.

Another waste of intellect is the system of retirement. When a man reaches 62 in some firms or 65 in others and similar ages in government positions, out he goes no matter how alert, how wise, how experienced, how capable he may be.

This is utter waste. Some of the most capable men in this country are in their 80's. Bernard Baruch will be 90 on his next birthday and he is thinking more clearly than most of our politicians in Washington. General J. H. Doolittle, in an address nearly a decade ago, said:

"Two thousand years ago, the average individual could expect to live 25 years. The actual and projected average life span for white males in the U.S. was 48 years in 1900, 58 years in 1925, and is 66 for 1950 and 71 for 1975.

"This trend is splendid, but it presents several problems. Along with greater longevity, there has been a continuing increase in educational level and a consequent increase in the age at which individuals enter the labor force. There has also been a decline in the relative number of very old people engaged in productive work. In general, the tendency, after a liberal pension plan is assured, is to decrease retirement age . . ."

The waste is not so much that the middle-aged group have to support the oldsters as it is that we lose the advantage of the experience and wisdom of older men and women. We are depriving ourselves of the advantages of their knowledge and skill. We are casting aside years of training and losing billions of dollars of costly education. This is particularly true of engineers and scholars of various kinds.

It has been suggested by Frederick E. Moskovics, himself an oldster still at work, that it would be sound for the government to take on retired men of great experience in an advisory capacity. Many such men are financially independent or are living on pensions from their former companies and are capable of 10 or 15 years more of top-notch work. This is what General Doolittle had to say about Moskovics:

* * *

". . . Fred had practically retired before the war and was absolutely lost. When the war crisis came up, he went back to work as a full time consultant with the U.S.A.F. and not only found happiness, but health and renewed youth. Having had that experience, he now doesn't want to return to inactivity — Fred is 71 years young (80 in 1959) . . . Age and obsolescence should not be measured chronologically, but by competence and productive capacity. This is sometimes difficult to do in business, where an arbitrary 'par for the retirement age course' is often established. It is particularly those people who are at their mental peak and in good physical condition, but who are forced to retire as a result of company ruling, whom we should attempt to retrieve."

Moskovics tells this:

". . . Some years ago when I was vice president of the American Standards Association I was closely associated with Bancroft Gherardi, who was vice president and general manager of the A.T.&T. He was at that time president of the American Standards Association and that particular year received the Edison medal for electrical achievements. At 65 years of age he was retired arbitrarily. Physically he was in splendid shape . . ."

To pull a strong, active man away from his work and to tell him to do nothing is to kill him. Even if he does not die, even if he devotes himself to golf and bridge or some other hobbies, he is no longer constructive; he feels death at his heels. In a country such as ours, where brain-power needs to be mobilized in the public interest, such men should not be wasted.

The reasons why the older and wiser men are pushed aside are that pension funds, insurance policies, the demands of younger men force companies and government offices to adopt rigid rules. Age is no longer a barrier to hard work, particularly in fields which involve mental effort rather than physical activity. We need only look at what Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has done for West Germany to realize the great advantage of orderly thinking at whatever age.

DR. PETER J. STEINCROHN

'Chronic Appendix'

Don't Go Around Worrying About It Unless Case Is Acute

"Dear Dr. Steincrohn: What is borderline appendicitis? A friend of mine said he almost had to go to the hospital because he had a borderline case. Mr. T. L."

ANSWER: I really don't know; unless his doctor meant that it was a "suspicious" case that deserved close observation and study.

I have always gone along on this practical basis: either you have acute appendicitis or you haven't. If you don't have it, better forget about it. In other words, don't go worrying about having a "chronic appendix." If you have an acute attack, then operation within hours is a must. There can be no procrastinating with an inflamed appendix. No experimenting with ice bags, antibiotics or other measures to "try to prevent operation."

I think you should know, Mr. T. L., that all attacks of appendicitis are not "text book cases." In the typical case — in which any junior in medical school can make the correct diagnosis — these are the following symptoms and signs:

The patient begins to have diffuse pain all over his abdomen. After a few hours the discomfort localizes over his lower right side. He has nausea and vomiting. His pulse becomes rapid and he has fever.

But never try to make the diagnosis yourself. That is the doctor's job. For, you can have acute appendicitis without vomiting, nausea, rapid pulse and fever. Sometimes the pain isn't too bad, either.

I recall one patient years ago who might have been the proverbial "dead duck" if the surgeon hadn't been willing to operate. All he had was a little discomfort which was exaggerated slightly (rebound tenderness) when the examiner's fingers pressed over a spot in the lower right abdomen called "McBurney's point."

Yet, when operated (in spite of no other symptoms or signs), he had the most inflamed appendix I had ever seen. You see, early diagnosis is imperative. Acute appendicitis is not borderline. Either it is or isn't acute.

DIAGNOSIS OF OVERACTIVE THYROID

From Mrs. K. K. of Calgary, Canada comes the queston: "Just what is the best laboratory test to use in diagnosing thyroid trouble, especially when you suspect that the gland is too active?"

COMMENT: Your doctor probably will not rely upon laboratory examination alone. Often I have persisted in the diagnosis of overactive thyroid when the laboratory examinations were quite questionable. Correct diagnosis depends upon clinical observation, too.

I recall equivocal laboratory reports in one woman. Nothing was definite. Yet she had an unusually warm and moist skin, a moderately rapid pulse and a persistent, though slight, finger tremor. Subsequent treatment confirmed the diagnosis of hyperthyroidism.

I am not saying that laboratory determinations are unimportant. They are. But we mustn't forget clinical judgment.

As for the best test, I don't believe one is much better than another. Sometimes more than one must be tried. Often, a carefully taken metabolism test plus clinical evaluation is all that is necessary for the diagnosis.

If the results are indefinite, there are two other valuable tests for thyroid function. 1. Protein-bound iodine determination (PBI test). 2. Radioiodine uptake.

However, these, too, can be deceptive if the patient has been taking such things as iodine, antithyroid drugs, thyroid, mercurial diuretics. Sometimes accurate results are thrown off in the presence of hepatitis or pregnancy.

ADVICE TO CORRESPONDENT

Aside to Mr. J. B. V. of Michigan: A little patience and understanding will keep your marriage from blowing apart. Remember there is such a disturbing condition known as premenstrual tension.

EARLY DIAGNOSIS IMPORTANT IN ARTHRITIS

For Mrs. L. P. of Oregon: You are right. In arthritis, the most important consideration is correct and early diagnosis. Many's the case of undiagnosed gout I have seen in long suffering patients.

Early diagnosis would have brought an effective barrage of such drugs as colchicine, benecid, steroids, etc.

Same Thing Again

Putting Cranberry Crop In Warehouses Hurts Thanksgiving

"You'll do the same thing over again, Over and over and over again." Thus ran a tuneful song of a bygone day. It could be the present day theme song of either or both major political parties.

Perhaps the subject is a little offkey today when the nation at Thanksgiving rejoices over bountiful crops from Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Canadian border to the Gulf — cranberries, and all. But there would be greater rejoicing if less of that bumper crop had gone into warehouses on expensive loans. Or, if the end of the college football season did not signal the on-season for making the nation's farmers the football of politics.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson lopes out with the 1960 version of a farm bill, so little changed from the 1957, 1958, 1959 ad infinitum model as to again insure no sale in congress.

From the opposite camp Senators Symington of Missouri, Kennedy of Massachusetts and Humphrey of Minnesota, all running as hard as ever they can for the Democratic presidential nomination, assail the administration proposal and unveil some very vague plans of their own, which are deciperable enough for an assured judgment that none of them could withstand a presidential veto.

So they'll do the same thing over again beginning in January —first in congress and then in the presidential campaign. The presidential campaign is where the grand old game of passing the buck will really get the play. Farmers have been leaving the farms in all makes of cars and entering other walks of life at an increasingly accelerated rate. Just how many have moved from farm to town and city in the last decade will be told in the farm census just about ready to get underway. But there are sufficient numbers who still abide on farms to swing an election in some states, and that's not hay.

Nearly everybody here is looking forward to a copious yield of epithets and invective at the gathering time although the young shoots are sprouting feebly as of now. They will be nurtured carefully and become increasingly robust.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson sneaked up on the unsuspecting Democrats by his memorandum laying down "essential aspects of a sound farm program" on November 10, two days more than a full fortnight before Thanksgiving. Farmers received Benson's five point program with subdued cheering as it contained nothin new. But the peripatetic presidential candidates of the opposition party and their surprised script writers stopped in their dizzy whirl through the hustings to reply. No politician could sustain presidential availability claims unless he could create an image of himself as the farmers' friend.

Senator Symington, a citymanborn, but who knows a grass root when he sees it, was in Long Beach, California. He called Benson's new plans as well as all Benson - sponsored programs "an obvious waste of both food and money." To put the 5-point Benson plan in the shade he imparted a six-point Symington plan.

Senator Kennedy comes from Boston, the happy habitat of both Brahmans and lace curtain Irish, though seldom thought of as a seat of agriculture. But Boston is the capital of the land of the bean and the cod. The soft-finned cod is, of course, a sea crop. But the bean is agricultural, although largely an import crop for Massachusetts. But Kennedy was close to the rich soil of the Wisconsin Dairyland at the time and he issued a horny - handed five-point farm program of his own, exactly tying Benson on points by falling one short of Symington.

Senator Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, a pharmacist by trade, is no rookie in any sphere. He contented himself with a short, (for Humphrey) statement, the gist of which was that the Benson program would "result in even greater surpluses and bring ruin to thousands of wheat producers." As Humphrey made ready to hasten to the quondam unfriendly state of Texas, and points south the word was that he would release his 1960 farm plan piecemeal.

Humphrey backers were entirely satisfied with this strategy for Humphrey emits farm solutions, as he does on all other problems with effortless grace, and the political bookmakers were offering odds of 7 to 5 that when the complete Humphrey farm program bursts forth in its full resplendency it will have more points than those of Benson, Symington, Kennedy and all other comers combined.

There the lines stood at Thanksgiving. The agricultural caldron will really get up a head of steam in January. That session of congress will be Benson's last stand. He will be out of office after that. He has been very durable. Picked as the cabinet member most likely not to remain, he is one of the remaining two of the original Eisenhower cabinet. Benson knows his farm plan has no chance. The itinerate electioneering presidential candidates know the prospects for their plans are nil.

Doubtless anything that would spoil the politician's heyday, such as mention in the taxpayer, should be frowned upon. But next year's budget is being readied for presentation to congress and the taxpayer will again be asked to pick up a whopping tab for agriculture, perhaps $4,000,000,000 or at any rate close to it. That would make net agricultural expenditures in twenty - eight years $62,200,000,000, divided $25,200,000,000 in the twenty Roosevelt-Truman years, $37,000,000,000 in the eight Eisenhower years. And the warehouses bulge with $100,000,000,000 storage of surpluses on which government loans have been made.

Land Buying Decision Still Pending Here

A decision on whether the Utilities Commission will buy 5½ lots on Park Avenue is still pending, but the purchase will have to be approved by the City Council for a second time.

Mayor W. L. (Jack) Howard said yesterday afternoon the council had not received a request for approval from the Utilities Commission.

Commission chairman Travis Oliver Jr. said, "Members of the commission have favored the purchase individually, but I'll have to talk to the mayor."

Under the law, the purchase would have to be approved by the City Council.

CHANGED

The $59,850 proposal originally received the council's approval, but the commission later changed its position and decided against buying the land.

"That action by the commission rescinded our resolution," Howard explained. "So if the commission decides again to buy it, they'll have to bring the request before the council again and we in turn will have to pass another resolution."

At a meeting several days ago members of the commission voiced approval of buying the land, but failed to take action because of Oliver's absence.

He said yesterday, "If the members of the commission are in favor of buying the land, I am too."

The land is being offered to the commission for $59,850 by owners Mrs. Berta Petagna, Mrs. Susie R. Griffith, Mrs. W. A. Bickham and Ivy Rayner.

Located across the street from the power plant, the land would be used for plant expansion purposes. Water mains would be run from the Ouachita River to the power plant.

One Child Killed, One Injured In Freak Mishap

KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. (AP) —Ben F. Sessoms, 58, was driving a trash truck to the city dump today when a large cardboard box blew off.

He retrieved the box and went on to the dump. Unknown to him, the box fell off again.

On the return trip, he told patrolmen, he saw the box on the roadside and decided to drive over it to mash it so it wouldn't blow away again.

He drove over the box and killed Rosa Oliva Black, 9, and seriously injured Edgar Moore, 11, who were playing inside.

Daily Devotional

Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel. — Ezk. 8:17

It is interesting to note how the President of the United States and other high government officials are surrounded by security agents when we see them on television and in the news pictures of movie houses. These men are in the background, but their eyes are ever roving over the crowds like searchlights that probe into the darkness of the night. You feel confident that any move to harm the men they are protecting would be immediately discovered. In like manner, we are watchmen for the Lord, to see that His children are kept safe.

Heavenly Father, help us to take seriously our obligation to watch over the helpless and the erring. In Christ's name we plead. Amen.

Committee Asks AF For Explanation

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House subcommittee wants the Air Force to explain whether the decision to continue its Mace missile program will divert funds from more highly regarded missile projects.

Reporting this Friday, a spokesman for the House Defense Appropriations subcommittee said the Air Force will be asked specifically where it is getting the 100 million dollars it plans to spend on additional Mace missiles.

The Air Force, announced the other day it is earmarking that sum to continue the Mace, an air-breathing, surface-to-surface guided missile with a range reportedly in the neighborhood of 1,000 miles.

The House turned down an Air Force request in this year's defense appropriation bill for about 127 million dollars to continue the Mace.

The Senate concurred but inserted language in its report on the bill to the effect that the Air Force could continue the program if it could scrape up the money.

"We want to know where the money is coming from," the House subcommittee spokesman said.

Asked about reports indicating Chairman George H. Mahon (D-Tex) was irked by the Mace decision, the spokesman said: "I am quite sure Mr. Mahon is interested only in seeing that the Air Force doesn't use money that we gave them for missiles with higher priority and that are considerably more important to the defense of the country."

He said he was referring particularly to intercontinental ballistic missiles such as the Atlas and Titan.

Singer Tells Of Evidence In Payola

NEW YORK (AP) — A singer who also owns a record firm told newsmen Friday he had turned over two canceled checks to the office of Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan as evidence he had made payoffs to disc jockeys to plug his records.

Don Anthony, 31, was questioned by investigators for Hogan after the Bronx entertainer reported payments to disc jockeys "all over the country." He had been given police protection earlier in the day—but Anthony called off the guard during his interrogation Friday in Hogan's office.

The singer asked for police protection because he believed he had been followed while riding subways from Manhattan to his Pronx home. "No one has been following me lately," Anthony said. He described the persons following him previously as "cranks."

Also questioned Friday by investigators for the district attorney was Scott Muni, a disc jockey for radio station WMCA and first vice president of the Disc Jockey Assn., Inc., a recently formed organization Muni says has 200 members.

Muni said as he left Hogan's office that he had never taken payments to plug records over WMCA.

"In New York I've been offered money," Muni said. He then declared he had been approached in a "general way" once or twice out of town, and added: "I had a reputation and so they didn't offer me money."

Hogan's office announce meanwhile that Jack Lynn, program director for station WNEW-TV, had been subpoenaed to produce the books of Alan Freed next Monday.

Freed, a disc jockey, was dropped by WNEW earlier this week and has been subpoenaed to appear Monday before a Manhattan grand jury. Although he failed to appear voluntarily in the New York payola probe, Freed said he would comply with the grand jury's subpoena.

Congressional investiagors also are making an inquiry into payola—payments made for having records plugged on the air.

Freed has lost both his television and radio outlets here. He was fired last Saturday by WABC radio after he refused to sign a statement, saying he had not taken payola. Freed has denied, however, that he ever took any undercover payments to plug tunes on the air.

Release Set For Study Of Shakespeare

BATON ROUGE (Special) — A classic study of the philosophical foundations of Shakespeare's dramas with emphasis on "Macbeth" and "The Tempest" will be released by the Louisiana State University this week.

Originally published in 1937, the 256-page reprinted volume has been unavailable for many years. The book was written by Walter Clyde Curry and is entitled Shakespeare's Philosophical Patterns."

Containing a new introduction and index, the work traces the philosophical ancestry of two of Shakespeare's most famous works "Macbeth" and "The Tempest," the first down to medieval Scholasticsm and the other to the tradition of the Renaissance.

In the case of "Macbeth," the book shows the close relationship of Elizabethan thought to the vitalism of the Middle Ages, revealing the ultimate sources of Macbeth's changing character, of the demonic possession of Lady Macbeth, and of the Weird Sisters as representatives of the world of darkness.

The magical elements demonstrated in "The Tempest" are traced back to their derivation from the pagan science of the Neo - Platonists.

Hardin Craig has commented on the book as a whole: "No approach to Elizabethan literature could be more fundamental and it is difficult to see how in such a limited space so clear and so complete a digest could have been prepared."

Walter Clyde Curry is now emeritus professor of English at Vanderbilt University, from which he retired in 1955. after fourty years of distinguished service. He is also author of "The Middle English Ideal of Personal Beauty" and "Chaucer and the Medieval Sciences."

FOR INDUSTRY

Delta Council Broadens Work

WINNSBORO (Special) — Officers and directors of the Louisiana Delta council and a member of interested visitors took preliminary steps at an informal supper meeting in Winnsboro night, to broaden the activities of the Delta council to include industrial developement as well as agriculture.

George S. Shepherd of Lake Providence, Delta Council president said, "The plans will be presented to the entire board of directors and if they are approved a complete survey of the assets of Northeast Louisiana will be made and put in brochure form. All possible steps will then be taken to promote industrial developement by attracting industry to this area. This additional activity will not decrease in any way the excellent work in agriculture which the council has been doing in this 10 parish district."

PURPOSE

Purpose of the industrial development program in connection with agriculture is to improve the general economy and to stop the steady decrease in population in Northeast Louisiana.

Lamar Bryant, president of Delhi Development Corp.,and Harvey P. Grant, Jr., secretary-manager of Delta council; Richland; Tom C. Hatfield, Delta council vice-president, and members Don K. Committee Asks AF For Explanation

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House subcommittee wants the Air Force to explain whether the decision to continue its Mace missile program will divert funds from more highly regarded missile projects.

Reporting this Friday, a spokesman for the House Defense Appropriations subcommittee said the Air Force will be asked specifically where it is getting the 100 million dollars it plans to spend on additional Mace missiles.

The Air Force, announced the other day it is earmarking that sum to continue the Mace, an air-breathing, surface-to-surface guided missile with a range reportedly in the neighborhood of 1,000 miles.

The House turned down an Air Force request in this year's defense appropriation bill for about 127 million dollars to continue the Mace.

The Senate concurred but inserted language in its report on the bill to the effect that the Air Force could continue the program if it could scrape up the money.

"We want to know where the money is coming from," the House subcommittee spokesman said.

Asked about reports indicating Chairman George H. Mahon (D-Tex) was irked by the Mace decision, the spokesman said: "I am quite sure Mr. Mahon is interested only in seeing that the Air Force doesn't use money that we gave them for missiles with higher priority and that are considerably more important to the defense of the country."

He said he was referring particularly to intercontinental ballistic missiles such as the Atlas and Titan.

Singer Tells Of Evidence In Payola

NEW YORK (AP) — A singer who also owns a record firm told newsmen Friday he had turned over two canceled checks to the office of Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan as evidence he had made payoffs to disc jockeys to plug his records.

Don Anthony, 31, was questioned by investigators for Hogan after the Bronx entertainer reported payments to disc jockeys "all over the country." He had been given police protection earlier in the day—but Anthony called off the guard during his interrogation Friday in Hogan's office.

The singer asked for police protection because he believed he had been followed while riding subways from Manhattan to his Pronx home. "No one has been following me lately," Anthony said. He described the persons following him previously as "cranks."

Also questioned Friday by investigators for the district attorney was Scott Muni, a disc jockey for radio station WMCA and first vice president of the Disc Jockey Assn., Inc., a recently formed organization Muni says has 200 members.

Muni said as he left Hogan's office that he had never taken payments to plug records over WMCA.

"In New York I've been offered money," Muni said. He then declared he had been approached in a "general way" once or twice out of town, and added: "I had a reputation and so they didn't offer me money."

Hogan's office announce meanwhile that Jack Lynn, program director for station WNEW-TV, had been subpoenaed to produce the books of Alan Freed next Monday.

Freed, a disc jockey, was dropped by WNEW earlier this week and has been subpoenaed to appear Monday before a Manhattan grand jury. Although he failed to appear voluntarily in the New York payola probe, Freed said he would comply with the grand jury's subpoena.

Congressional investiagors also are making an inquiry into payola—payments made for having records plugged on the air.

Freed has lost both his television and radio outlets here. He was fired last Saturday by WABC radio after he refused to sign a statement, saying he had not taken payola. Freed has denied, however, that he ever took any undercover payments to plug tunes on the air.

Release Set For Study Of Shakespeare

BATON ROUGE (Special) — A classic study of the philosophical foundations of Shakespeare's dramas with emphasis on "Macbeth" and "The Tempest" will be released by the Louisiana State University this week.

Originally published in 1937, the 256-page reprinted volume has been unavailable for many years. The book was written by Walter Clyde Curry and is entitled Shakespeare's Philosophical Patterns."

Containing a new introduction and index, the work traces the philosophical ancestry of two of Shakespeare's most famous works "Macbeth" and "The Tempest," the first down to medieval Scholasticsm and the other to the tradition of the Renaissance.

In the case of "Macbeth," the book shows the close relationship of Elizabethan thought to the vitalism of the Middle Ages, revealing the ultimate sources of Macbeth's changing character, of the demonic possession of Lady Macbeth, and of the Weird Sisters as representatives of the world of darkness.

Hardin Craig has commented on the book as a whole: "No approach to Elizabethan literature could be more fundamental and it is difficult to see how in such a limited space so clear and so complete a digest - could have been prepared."

Walter Clyde Curry is now emeritus professor of English at Vanderbilt University, from which he retired in 1955. after fourty years of distinguished service. He is also author of "The Middle English Ideal of Personal Beauty" and "Chaucer and the Medieval Sciences."

5 Arrested On Narcotics Charges

BATON ROUGE (AP)—Sheriff Bryan Clemmons said today officers arrested five persons on narcotics charges after a raid on a Baker residence yielded a quantity of marijuana.

Officers last night booked Dalton J. Castille, 32, Baker, and Richard B. Pardo, 28, New Orleans and Tampa, Fla., for possession of marijuana.

Three others were held on charges of investigation of narcotics. They were John W. Ryan, 23, New Orleans; Thelma Ann Ttate, 23, New Orleans and Plymouth, Mich., and Maxie Dale McCauley, 27, New Orleans and Tulsa, Okla.

Clemmons said the raid on Castille's house ended a joint investigation by the sheriff's office and the city police department that has continued for the past several weeks.

Lt. E. E. Rives said he and other officers told Castille they had a search warrant and began questioning him.

Castille put his hand in his pocket and drew out a small package wrapped in aluminum foil, Rives said.

"I guess this is what you're looking for," Castille said.

The package, Rives said, turned out to be a matchbox full of what later proved to be marijuana.

Candy Barr Queried By Federal Men

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Strip tease dancer Candy Barr returned here Friday from a brief honeymoon in Las Vegas to face questioning by the same internal revenue agents who previously asked her about ex-beau Mickey Cohen's finances.

The disclosure that federal agents were closeted with Miss Barr and her new husband, Jack Sahakian, came as her San Antonio attorney announced she would fly to Texas Saturday to surrender on a narcotics conviction.

Virgil G. Crabtree, chief assistant to the head of the Internal Revenue Intelligence Division, said only Candy "is not being detained by any representative of the U.S. Treasury Department."

When Miss Barr was questioned agents, they did ask her about the financial affairs of Cohen, the ex-gambler who championed her previously by the internal revenue cause and proclaimed he intended to marry her.

The attorney, Fred Semaan, said the surrender would be the first step in a last-ditch fight to keep the blonde dancer from going to prison for hiding marijuana in her brassiere.

Semaan said he would surrender Miss Barr to Bexar County Sheriff Owen Kilday as soon as she arrived from Los Angeles and then would immediately file a habeas corpus action for her freedom.

Semaan's disclosure was the latest development as authorities in two states began maneuvers to bring the shapely 24-year-old dancer back to Texas to start serving a 15-year narcotics sentence handed down in Dallas in October, 1957 after officers raided her apartment.

Semaan said his habeas corpus action will attempt to set aside the prison conviction on the grounds that Miss Barr was deprived of her civil rights in that the search warrant used to raid her apartment and obtain evidence was issued Oct. 26, 1957 but was not used until 36 hours later.

Warning Issued Against Books From America

LONDON (UPI) —British paperbacked book distributors warned Friday that a flood of what they called cheap, lurid, and near-obscene American books would arrive in Britain soon.

But a check of the home-grown products displayed in London book stores showed examples that would make the American paperbacked trade blush and the American censors act.

The British claimed that lifting of import restrictions on low-priced American fiction books meant that millions of copies of "this sort of filth" would be dumped here.

HUGE PARADE

Hawaii Notes Admission Day

HONOLULU (UPI) — The 50th state of Hawaii, its famed beach resorts overflowing with tourists and visiting dignitares, Friday celebrated its first admission day.

Gov. William F. Quinn, as grand marshal, led the biggest parade in island history along a three mile route on Ala Moana Boulevard from Waikiki to downtown Honolulu.

Islanders were enjoying a five-day celebration that began on Thanksgiving Day and winds up Monday. For most, it was a holiday until Monday.

Madam Pele, the volcano goddess, added her bit Thursday when Milauea Iki crater on the island of Hawaii blew up again with a 16-hour show of nature's fireworks.

The 40-year-old governor, first to hold the post by election instead of appointment, led a parade that included 2,500 men in the military sections alone.

There were bands from the Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, Air Force, National Guard and reserves. Twelve floats displayed the history and culture of the islands and there were floats or entries representing each of the other 49 states.

The royal Hawaiian band, long a feature of steamship arrivals, and the Aloha Week Royal Court in colorful Hawaiian costumes were other parade features.

It was estimated 100,000 persons lined the parade route.

Visiting dignitaries included Secretary of Interior Fred Seaton, one of the strong backers of statehood. There were five United States senators, several congressmen, official representatives of state governors, State Department officials and foreign diplomats.

There was such a hubbub at the airport Thursday that at least one foreign official was lost temporarily. August F. Ompi, Indonesia's minister counselor to Washington, arrived ungreeted and without hotel accommodations.

He was about to make an angry departure back to the mainland when the Royal Hawaiian Hotel found him a suite and he agreed to stay until Sunday.

Thursday Hawaii paid tribute to Hawaii's war dead for the part they played not only in national victory but in bringing the islands into the Union.

Arrest Follows Probe Of Blaze Near Winnsboro

WINNSBORO (Special) — The arrest of Willie Howard Jr., Negro, 22, Route 1, Winnsboro, completed the investigation of a fire that swept across 195 acres of land one mile southeast of here doing extensive property damage and threatening several homes Thursday.

According to law enforcement agents of the Louisiana Forestry Commission, who investigated, Howard was charged with simple arson and placed in the Franklin Parish jail. Bond was set at $500.

According to agents, Howard said he had started to visit some friends and changed his mind. He rested a while in a vacant house on the "Old Ellis Place" and then "set the grass on fire to see it burn."

District Forester James N. Stevens, says investigators are working overtime on the rash of forest fires that have occurred and reminds the public that it is against the law to allow fire to spread negligently.

Such an offense, he said is punishable by a fine of up to $300 or 30 days in jail or both. Fires set deliberately are punishable by penalties of up to $5,000 fine or 10 years at hard labor or both, he added.

IN COURTHOUSE

2 Arrested Here After Disturbance

A disturbance erupted on the first floor of the Ouachita Parish Courthouse a few minutes after Fourth District Court had adjourned for lunch yesterday. Two men, one of whom testified in a minor trial, staged a fight as Courthouse employees gathered.

It didn't take long for deputy sheriffs, stationed in the courthouse to break up the battle at 12:20 p.m.

Alton Robertson, 39, of Swartz, and C. B. Grice, 62, Route 4, Oak Grove, each were arrested, charged with disturbing the peace by fighting, and placed in the parish jail.

At 2 p.m. when Judge Jesse Heard returned to the courtroom, there stood Robertson who had appeared during the morning as a witness in the trial of his wife, Mrs. Estelle Robertson. She had been found guilty of disturbing the peace and fined $25 and court costs or 10 days in the parish jail.

SENTENCE

Robertson received a slightly stiffer sentence: $50 fine plus court costs or 30 days. Grice a spectator at the trials also drew a $50 fine plus court costs or 30 days.

Sheriff's Department officials said the fight took place after Robertson and Grice left the courtroom.

Mrs. Robertson was charged with Pat Free, who was tried for simple battery and fined $25 and costs or 10 days.

5 Arrested On Narcotics Charges

Officers last night booked Dalton J. Castille, 32, Baker, and Richard B. Pardo, 28, New Orleans and Tampa, Fla., for possession of marijuana.

Three others were held on charges of investigation of narcotics. They were John W. Ryan, 28, New Orleans; Thelma Ann Ttate, 23, New Orleans and Plymouth, Mich., and Maxie Dale McCauley, 27, New Orleans and Tulsa, Okla.

Clemmons said the raid on Castille's house ended a joint investigation by the sheriff's office and the city police department that has continued for the past several weeks.

Lt. E. E. Rives said he and other officers told Castille they had a search warrant and began questioning him.

Castille put his hand in his pocket and drew out a small package wrapped in aluminum foil, Rives said.

"I guess this is what you're looking for," Castille said.

The package, Rives said, turned out to be a matchbox full of what later proved to be marijuana.

Candy Barr Queried By Federal Men

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Strip tease dancer Candy Barr returned here Friday from a brief honeymoon in Las Vegas to face questioning by the same internal revenue agents who previously asked her about ex-beau Mickey Cohen's finances.

The disclosure that federal agents were closeted with Miss Barr and her new husband, Jack Sahakian, came as her San Antonio attorney announced she would fly to Texas Saturday to surrender on a narcotics conviction.

Virgil G. Crabtree, chief assistant to the head of the Internal Revenue Intelligence Division, said only Candy "is not being detained by any representative of the U.S. Treasury Department."

When Miss Barr was questioned agents, they did ask her about the financial affairs of Cohen, the ex-gambler who championed her previously by the internal revenue cause and proclaimed he intended to marry her.

The attorney, Fred Semaan, said the surrender would be the first step in a last-ditch fight to keep the blonde dancer from going to prison for hiding marijuana in her brassiere.

Semaan said he would surrender Miss Barr to Bexar County Sheriff Owen Kilday as soon as she arrived from Los Angeles and then would immediately file a habeas corpus action for her freedom.

Semaan's disclosure was the latest development as authorities in two states began maneuvers to bring the shapely 24-year-old dancer back to Texas to start serving a 15-year narcotics sentence handed down in Dallas in October, 1957 after officers raided her apartment.

Semaan said his habeas corpus action will attempt to set aside the prison conviction on the grounds that Miss Barr was deprived of her civil rights in that the search warrant used to raid her apartment and obtain evidence was issued Oct. 26, 1957 but was not used until 36 hours later.

Warning Issued Against Books From America

LONDON (UPI) —British paper-backed book distributors warned Friday that a flood of what they called cheap, lurid, and near-obscene American books would arrive in Britain soon.

But a check of the home-grown products displayed in London book stores showed examples that would make the American paper-backed trade blush and the American censors act.

The British claimed that lifting of import restrictions on low-priced American fiction books meant that millions of copies of "this sort of filth" would be dumped here.

HUGE PARADE

Hawaii Notes Admission Day

HONOLULU (UPI) — The 50th state of Hawaii, its famed beach resorts overflowing with tourists and visiting dignitares, Friday celebrated its first admission day.

Gov. William F. Quinn, as grand marshal, led the biggest parade in island history along a three mile route on Ala Moana Boulevard from Waikiki to downtown Honolulu.

Islanders were enjoying a five-day celebration that began on Thanksgiving Day and winds up Monday. For most, it was a holiday until Monday.

Madam Pele, the volcano goddess, added her bit Thursday when Milauea Iki crater on the island of Hawaii blew up again with a 16-hour show of nature's fireworks.

The 40-year-old governor, first to hold the post by election instead of appointment, led a parade that included 2,500 men in the military sections alone.

There were bands from the Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, Air Force, National Guard and reserves. Twelve floats displayed the history and culture of the islands and there were floats or entries representing each of the other 49 states.

The royal Hawaiian band, long a feature of steamship arrivals, and the Aloha Week Royal Court in colorful Hawaiian costumes were other parade features.

It was estimated 100,000 persons lined the parade route.

Visiting dignitaries included Secretary of Interior Fred Seaton, one of the strong backers of statehood. There were five United States senators, several congressmen, official representatives of state governors, State Department officials and foreign diplomats.

There was such a hubbub at the airport Thursday that at least one foreign official was lost temporarily. August F. Ompi, Indonesia's minister counselor to Washington, arrived ungreeted and without hotel accommodations.

He was about to make an angry departure back to the mainland when the Royal Hawaiian Hotel found him a suite and he agreed to stay until Sunday.

Thursday Hawaii paid tribute to Hawaii's war dead for the part they played not only in national victory but in bringing the islands into the Union.

Arrest Follows Probe Of Blaze Near Winnsboro

WINNSBORO (Special) — The arrest of Willie Howard Jr., Negro, 22, Route 1, Winnsboro, completed the investigation of a fire that swept across 195 acres of land one mile southeast of here doing extensive property damage and threatening several homes Thursday.

According to law enforcement agents of the Louisiana Forestry Commission, who investigated, Howard was charged with simple arson and placed in the Franklin Parish jail. Bond was set at $500.

According to agents, Howard said he had started to visit some friends and changed his mind. He rested a while in a vacant house on the "Old Ellis Place" and then "set the grass on fire to see it burn."

District Forester James N. Stevens, says investigators are working overtime on the rash of forest fires that have occurred and reminds the public that it is against the law to allow fire to spread negligently.

Such an offense, he said is punishable by a fine of up to $300 or 30 days in jail or both. Fires set deliberately are punishable by penalties of up to $5,000 fine or 10 years at hard labor or both, he added.

Gov. Coleman Could Call Special Meet

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Gov. J. P. Coleman weighed comment from legislators Friday to decide whether to call a special legislative session Tuesday.

Coleman told The Associated Press he has not mailed the official proclamation but that he had mailed lawmakers a copy of a proclamation containing 15 items and asked for comment on whether they would cooperate.

"They've been calling in and wiring in all the time," he said. "I'll know by the weekend whether to call them to Jackson at noon Tuesday."

Coleman's hesitancy about calling the session stemmed from a heart attack suffered by House Speaker Sillers of Bolivar County in Frankfurt, Germany, while on official business in Europe.

Sillers had told Coleman he would go along with some of the items Coleman wanted considered. The governor hesitated to call a session until he determined the feeling of the lawmakers.

The proclamation he mailed lawmakers was one he planned to issue before Sillers' attack.

He declined to discuss the items he planned to include in the official proclamation.

But he has told newsmen he wanted the Legislature to consider raising the 4 per cent ceiling on Balance Agriculture With Industry bonds, appropriating funds for a state coliseum, donating land for a boll weevil laboratory at Mississippi State University, re- [illegible] the documentary stamp [illegible] and appropriating emergency funds for college buildings.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

C J Q N E J Z Z K T Y M M. C E Y S P A Q U

FOR EISENHOWER

Solon Endorses Good Will Tour

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. John J. Sparkman (D-Ala.) Friday endorsed President Eisenhower's forthcoming 11-nation good will tour as a move that should win friends abroad for the United States.

Sparkman, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the 1952 democratic vice-presidential nominee, said the principal value of Eisenhower's mission is its "public demonstration to the world that the United States is interested in peace."

Sparkman told newsmen the President personally "has a great capacity for building up an attitude of friendship for this country."

"I'm glad he's going," Sparkman added. "I believe there will be some good from the trip because he has a way about him that creates confidence and we certainly need such an attitude of friendship in the countries he is going to visit."

Sparkman's comments constituted one of the warmest endorsements of the President's trip yet made by a high-ranking Democrat.

In the field of foreign affairs, he said, "the biggest weight around our necks so far as the nations of the world are concerned is the image that Russia has been able to develop that we are a war-making people."

Sparkman said he believed the most significant result of Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's visit to the United States was his subsequent concession that he was convinced that the American people do not want war.

"During all these years, we have been preaching to the world just that," Sparkman said. "If the President can get that idea across, we'll be in a much better position."

The President intends to brief Democratic and Republican congressional leaders alike before leaving Dec. 3 for his unprecedented trip to Asia, Africa and Europe. The briefing was designed to increase bipartisan support for his mission.

But the President has rejected as impractical a suggestion by Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.) that he invite former President Harry S. Truman or some other leading Democrat to accompany him on the trip.

Sparkman also told newsmen he expected some progress to be made at the contemplated summit meeting between Khrushchev and the Western heads of government next year. The conference is expected to be held in Geneva in late April.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Gov. Coleman Could Call Special Meet

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Gov. J. P. Coleman weighed comment from legislators Friday to decide whether to call a special legislative session Tuesday.

Coleman told The Associated Press he has not mailed the official proclamation but that he had mailed lawmakers a copy of a proclamation containing 15 items and asked for comment on whether they would cooperate.

"They've been calling in and wiring in all the time," he said. "I'll know by the weekend whether to call them to Jackson at noon Tuesday."

Coleman's hesitancy about calling the session stemmed from a heart attack suffered by House Speaker Sillers of Bolivar County in Frankfurt, Germany, while on official business in Europe.

Sillers had told Coleman he would go along with some of the items Coleman wanted considered. The governor hesitated to call a session until he determined the feeling of the lawmakers.

The proclamation he mailed lawmakers was one he planned to issue before Sillers' attack.

He declined to discuss the items he planned to include in the official proclamation.

But he has told newsmen he wanted the Legislature to consider raising the 4 per cent ceiling on Balance Agriculture With Industry bonds, appropriating funds for a state coliseum, donating land for a boll weevil laboratory at Mississippi State University, re[illegible] the documentary stamp [illegible] and appropriating emergency funds for college buildings.

The special session was designed to tidy up his administration before Gov.-elect Ross Barnett takes office Jan. 19.

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

FOR EISENHOWER

Solon Endorses Good Will Tour

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. John J. Sparkman (D-Ala.) Friday endorsed President Eisenhower's forthcoming 11-nation good will tour as a move that should win friends abroad for the United States.

Sparkman, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the 1952 democratic vice-presidential nominee, said the principal value of Eisenhower's mission is its "public demonstration to the world that the United States is interested in peace."

Sparkman told newsmen the President personally "has a great capacity for building up an attitude of friendship for this country."

"I'm glad he's going," Sparkman added. "I believe there will be some good from the trip because he has a way about him that creates confidence and we certainly need such an attitude of friendship in the countries he is going to visit."

Sparkman's comments constituted one of the warmest endorsements of the President's trip yet made by a high-ranking Democrat.

In the field of foreign affairs, he said, "the biggest weight around our necks so far as the nations of the world are concerned is the image that Russia has been able to develop that we are a war-making people."

Sparkman said he believed the most significant result of Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's visit to the United States was his subsequent concession that he was convinced that the American people do not want war.

"During all these years, we have been preaching to the world just that," Sparkman said. "If the President can get that idea across, we'll be in a much better position."

The President intends to brief Democratic and Republican congressional leaders alike before leaving Dec. 3 for his unprecedented trip to Asia, Africa and Europe. The briefing was designed to increase bipartisan support for his mission.

But the President has rejected as impractical a suggestion by Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.) that he invite former President Harry S. Truman or some other leading Democrat to accompany him on the trip.

Sparkman also told newsmen he expected some progress to be made at the contemplated summit meeting between Khrushchev and the Western heads of government next year. The conference is expected to be held in Geneva in late April.

GOP Voting Is Scheduled On Dec. 5th

Ouachita's 278 registered Republicans will get a chance to go to the polls on December 5th despite the fact that it's chiefly a day for Democrats.

Republicans will hold a Republican primary in six parishes to elect state committeemen.

In Ouachita, Republicans will elect two committeemen from a field of four candidates — attorney Robert Easterly, newspaperman John Bluck, jeweler Kenneth Lee and retired engineer C. C. Boardman.

Republican primaries will be held in Orleans, Jefferson, Tangipahoa, Caddo and Iberia parishes, as well as Ouachita.

With a general election scheduled for sometime in April, the Republican party, struggling to become a party in Louisiana, has 8,733 registered voters.

CANDIDATE

The Democrats will choose their governor from a field of 11 candidates next Saturday, probably sending the campaign into a second primary, January 9.

Thus, Republicans are awaiting the outcome of the Democratic race. A strong Democratic winner may keep the Republicans quiet, satisfied enough just in making a bid for a two-party system in Louisiana.

Certificates Awarded To Recluse's Heirs

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Federal District Judge J. Skelly Wright today awarded $22,000 in gold certificates, found in a mattress last year, to the heirs of a Covington, La., recluse.

The gold certificates were found when the mattress was being renovated in Hammond. They had been stuffed inside in a diaper.

The mattress was sold for $2.50 on the death of Emily Baton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clelan, who purchased the mattress, and Miss Baron's heirs both registered claims to the certificates.

The Federal Reserve Bank said the certificates have full value.

Crackdown Seen For Servicemen

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Good news for those who cry that servicemen are soft:

The base that first trains all Air Force recruits announced Friday it is tossing out the frills and ordering more physical conditioning and drills.

This is Lackland Air Force Base which gained national notice because it permitted recruits to skip physical training in favor horseback riding and roller skating.

Such courses as military law, history and traditions will be slashed, many of them in half.

Physical training will be doubled, Maj. Gen. Robert Stillman, Lackland commander, said.

"The pendulum has swung the other way," he declared, referring to previous treatment of basic trainees.

Lackland processed 84,000 airmen last year. By slashing the frills, the base can handle about 22,000 more men annually, and get them into combat units faster.

For the first four weeks of training, they henceforth will receive eight hours' physical conditioning weekly, compared with the present four hours.

In the second cycle of training, after some men have been sent to specialist schools, those remaining will receive about an hour more of physical training each week than in times past.

And the recruites face much more drilling, the commander said And, as any muscle weary exserviceman can attest, drill is strenuous physical training itself.

Commented a colonel who wouldn't let his name be used: "They may not know what a Russian general looks like after this, but they'll be able to knock the dickens out of him."

Probe Starts Into Actions Of Corporation

NEW YORK (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission began an investigation Friday into "corporate actions" of the Curtiss-Wright Corp. to determine if they were taken deliberately during the last week to affect the stock market.

Paul Windels Jr., regional administrator for the Southern New York and Eastern New Jersey regions of the SEC, said he called in Curtiss-Wright's president, Roy Hurley, and other officers for questioning Friday.

"Last Monday, the corporation announced production of a new type engine with only two moving parts," Windels said. "Last Wednesday they announced a cut in their regular dividend and we are investigating to see if this sequence of corporation actions was done deliberately to have an effect on the market.

"Shortly after announcing the new engine details the market on Curtiss-Wright stock went up more than five points in one day," Windels said, adding: "Shortly after they announced the proposed cut in dividends there was a scramble to unload.

"This twin action has had marked effect on trading in stocks of the corporation and whenever we detect any unusual corporate activity we run a market quiz."

He said he spoke with Hurley and other officials of the firm regarding the matter but declined to comment other than to say, "the investigation will continue."

Jefferson Jury Is Postponing Probe Report

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Jefferson Parish grand jury today postponed until after the Dec. 5 election its report on the probe of alleged kickbacks to Sheriff William S. Coci's political campaign by Coci's employes.

Jury foreman Lionel Bernardi said the jury would be ready to report "a few days after" Dec. 7. The jury has been conducting an investigation into the alleged kickbacks for several weeks.

One of Coci's deputies said a regular scale had been set up for kickbacks to aid Coci's campaign for re-election.

Forced contributions, the deputy said, ranged up to $200 for employes who made $500 per month.

Coci answered the charges with a contention that those persons who didn't want to contribute should look for other jobs.

In scoring 77 victories during the 1959 harness meeting at New York's Yonkers Raceway, trainer-driver Billy Haughton's standardbreds earned $392,832.

Laydell White, 19, 509 Cedar St., West Monroe, and Jewel Honeycutt, 35, Negro, 601 Cypress St., were each charged yesterday with reckless driving and causing a wreck by West Monroe City Police Friday following an accident at Cypress and Stella streets. Police reported there were no injuries.

Pet Lioness Attacks Youth, Turns On Owner

RAWLINS, Wyo. (UPI) — Togey, a pet mountain lioness out on a rabbit hunt with her master, stalked and attacked a 13-year-old youth near here Friday.

But the boy, John Woodbury, escaped serious injury because Togey's claws and fangs had been removed. She had only her jaw teeth left.

Togey's owner, Lloyd Woodbury, a taxidermist, pulled the animal from John, his nephew, then shot and killed it with a .22 caliber rifle when it turned on him.

Woodbury said he was hunting with John and another nephew, Glenn Woodbury, 15, and he allowed Togey to tag along.

"Then Togey started stalking John. She knocked him down and the smell of blood must have set her off. She just reverted, I guess. You never know about wild animals."

Woodbury, who was given the 140-pound animal when it was a cub, kept Togey on a leash in his taxidermy shop but let her go free when he had her out in the country.

"She had never done anything like that before," he said.

A physician reported that John suffered cuts and bruises about his head and mild shock but was in good condition.

College Gets Grant From Foundation

The National Science Foundation has granted Northeast Louisiana State College the sum of $44,300 for a summer institute in biology and chemistry for high school science teachers.

The funds were granted for a nine-week program, scheduled to begin early in July, 1960.

Dr. Aaron Seamster, chairman of the biology department, will be director of the institute. Dr. William K. Easley, chairman of the chemistry department, will be in charge of the chemistry section.

EXPECTED

About 30 high school science teachers are expected to attend. Two courses will be offered: current trends and developments in biology and practical aspects and modern developments in chemistry. Participants will register for both courses.

Field trips are scheduled in each course, and guest lecturers from other colleges and universities are expected to address the classes.

Generous stipends are to be awarded participants in the institute, as well as their dependents.

Information on the program will be made available to high school principals in the near future. Seamster said that he would welcome inquiries from potential participants.

Crackdown Seen For Servicemen

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Good news for those who cry that servicemen are soft:

The base that first trains all Air Force recruits announced Friday it is tossing out the frills and ordering more physical conditioning and drills.

This is Lackland Air Force Base which gained national notice because it permitted recruits to skip physical training in favor horseback riding and roller skating.

Such courses as military law, history and traditions will be slashed, many of them in half.

Physical training will be doubled, Maj. Gen. Robert Stillman, Lackland commander, said.

"The pendulum has swung the other way," he declared, referring to previous treatment of basic trainees.

Lackland processed 84,000 airmen last year. By slashing the frills, the base can handle about 22,000 more men annually, and get them into combat units faster.

For the first four weeks of training, they henceforth will receive eight hours' physical conditioning weekly, compared with the present four hours.

In the second cycle of training, after some men have been sent to specialist schools, those remaining will receive about an hour more of physical training each week than in times past.

And the recruites face much more drilling, the commander said And, as any muscle weary exserviceman can attest, drill is strenuous physical training itself.

Commented a colonel who wouldn't let his name be used: "They may not know what a Russian general looks like after this, but they'll be able to knock the dickens out of him."

Pet Lioness Attacks Youth, Turns On Owner

RAWLINS, Wyo. (UPI) — Togey, a pet mountain lioness out on a rabbit hunt with her master, stalked and attacked a 13-year-old youth near here Friday.

But the boy, John Woodbury, escaped serious injury because Togey's claws and fangs had been removed. She had only her jaw teeth left.

Togey's owner, Lloyd Woodbury, a taxidermist, pulled the animal from John, his nephew, then shot and killed it with a .22 caliber rifle when it turned on him.

Woodbury said he was hunting with John and another nephew, Glenn Woodbury, 15, and he allowed Togey to tag along.

"Then Togey started stalking John. She knocked him down and the smell of blood must have set her off. She just reverted, I guess. You never know about wild animals."

Woodbury, who was given the 140-pound animal when it was a cub, kept Togey on a leash in his taxidermy shop but let her go free when he had her out in the country.

"She had never done anything like that before," he said.

A physician reported that John suffered cuts and bruises about his head and mild shock but was in good condition.

College Gets Grant From Foundation

The National Science Foundation has granted Northeast Louisiana State College the sum of $44,300 for a summer institute in biology and chemistry for high school science teachers.

The funds were granted for a nine-week program, scheduled to begin early in July, 1960.

Dr. Aaron Seamster, chairman of the biology department, will be director of the institute. Dr. William K. Easley, chairman of the chemistry department, will be in charge of the chemistry section.

EXPECTED

About 30 high school science teachers are expected to attend. Two courses will be offered: current trends and developments in biology and practical aspects and modern developments in chemistry. Participants will register for both courses.

Field trips are scheduled in each course, and guest lecturers from other colleges and universities are expected to address the classes.

Generous stipends are to be awarded participants in the institute, as well as their dependents.

Information on the program will be made available to high school principals in the near future. Seamster said that he would welcome inquiries from potential participants.

Probe Starts Into Actions Of Corporation

NEW YORK (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission began an investigation Friday into "corporate actions" of the Curtiss-Wright Corp. to determine if they were taken deliberately during the last week to affect the stock market.

Paul Windels Jr., regional administrator for the Southern New York and Eastern New Jersey regions of the SEC, said he called in Curtiss-Wright's president, Roy Hurley, and other officers for questioning Friday.

"Last Monday, the corporation announced production of a new type engine with only two moving parts," Windels said. "Last Wednesday they announced a cut in their regular dividend and we are investigating to see if this sequence of corporation actions was done deliberately to have an effect on the market.

"Shortly after announcing the new engine details the market on Curtiss-Wright stock went up more than five points in one day," Windels said, adding: "Shortly after they announced the proposed cut in dividends there was a scramble to unload.

"This twin action has had marked effect on trading in stocks of the corporation and whenever we detect any unusual corporate activity we run a market quiz."

He said he spoke with Hurley and other officials of the firm regarding the matter but declined to comment other than to say, "the investigation will continue."

Jefferson Jury Is Postponing Probe Report

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Jefferson Parish grand jury today postponed until after the Dec. 5 election its report on the probe of alleged kickbacks to Sheriff William S. Coci's political campaign by Coci's employes.

Jury foreman Lionel Bernardi said the jury would be ready to report "a few days after" Dec. 7. The jury has been conducting an investigation into the alleged kickbacks for several weeks.

One of Coci's deputies said a regular scale had been set up for kickbacks to aid Coci's campaign for re-election.

Forced contributions, the deputy said, ranged up to $200 for employes who made $500 per month.

Coci answered the charges with a contention that those persons who didn't want to contribute should look for other jobs.

In scoring 77 victories during the 1959 harness meeting at New York's Yonkers Raceway, trainer-driver Billy Haughton's standardbreds earned $392,832.

TENTH STRAIGHT WIN

Neville Trounces Minden, 28-6 In AA Playoff Opener

By BOB ANDERSON
World Sports Editor

RUSTON — Neville proved its superiority in the first three minutes and pounded home several more lessons on the way to a convincing 28 to 6 rout of Minden in a state Class AA bi-district playoff here Friday night.

Coach Bill Ruple's Tigers showed their class to Minden's Crimson Tide and approximately 4,000 shivering fans by marching 72 yards in seven plays to start off the first quarter, came back with another touchdown in the period, a third in the second quarter and a final in the fourth.

Neville's victory was over a team that had knocked over another unbeaten Tiger eleven in 1956. Neville, state AA runnerup last year, was in no danger last night.

Minden, a highly regarded team that had won nine straight since opening this season with a loss to Ruston, was never in the ball game until the closing moments. Coach Elton Kelly's tide went one yard into Neville's end of the playing field on the first play of the second quarter and didn't see Neville territory again until the fourth.

Halfback Neal Gunn, who started Neville off to its 35-0 runaway over Ouachita last week with a long touchdown jaunt in the first three minutes, dashed 47 yards here last night for Neville's first touchdown. The score came with only two minutes and twenty seconds gone in the quarter, and Neville followed it up with another with 47 seconds left to go in the period, when Devone Payne plunged one yard.

Joe Cage went one yard for the third Neville score with 50 seconds to go in the half, after quarterback Joe Turner had set it up with a 61-yard gallop to the four.

Neville started a 73-yard march in the third quarter, finished it in the fourth when Turner slid a half - yard for a touchdown. Early in the march, Turner had gone 42 yards for a touchdown that was called back on an illegal use of hands penalty.

Cage kicked all four of the extra points for Neville. Minden's District 1-A champions finally got moving in the final period on the passing of quarterback Lamar Greer and the running of fullback Bobby Ashley, going 87 yards in thirteen plays to score just before the game ended.

Ashley pulled a half - yard for the touchdown, but Charles Connell's conversion attempt was wide. Ashley gentrated about the only offense Minden was able to muster against Neville's hard - nosed line. The 175-pound fullback gained 71 yards, all but seven of Minden's rushing total. Greer hit on five of nine passes for 64 yards to round out Minden's offensive showing.

STATISTICS

	Minden	Neville

Neville will have a week off before it sees playoff action again. Eunice and DeRidder battle for the 4-AA title tonight with the winner slated to tangle with 3-AA champ Natchitoches next Friday.

That winner in turn will play Neville the following weekend.

Neville rolled up 310 yards rushing and none passing in rolling to their tenth straight victory of the season. Gunn was the top gainer with 105 yards in twelve trips. Cage got 74 yards in 17 carries, and Payne picked up 41 yards in twelve trips. Turner had the top average for Neville, gaining 71 yards in five carries for a 14-yard average.

Turner tried only one pass and missed, as Neville stuck almost strictly to the ground.

Neville's line, turning in one of its best performances in a great season, outcharged Minden's forwards throughout the game. All-State tackle candidate Mickey Cox turned in another tremendous performance on defense, along with center Lucian Branch, halfback R. F. Wilson, tackle Charlie Snapp and end Jimmy Love.

Neville won the toss to open the game, and immediately started winning everything else. The Tigers received the kickoff and moved quickly to the Minden 47 on a quick burst by Cage, Payne and Gunn, before halfback Gunn ran wide to the right, cut back quickly, passed into the clear at the 30, and sprinted into the end zone standing up.

After Minden took the kickoff and couldn't move, Neville ground out another touchdown march on 52 yards in ten plays, with Payne punching one yard off tackle for the touchdown.

Minden lost a scoring opportunity in the second period because of an extra man on the field. Henry McClure charged through to block a Cage punt deep in Neville territory and the Tide recovered on the Tiger 16 but the officials counted 12 Tidesmen on the play and Neville picked up a first down instead of losing the ball.

The penalty was one of many. Minden was penalized nine times for 72 yards, four of the penalties being for personal fouls. Minden lost several players because of injuries during the rough game.

Late in the second period, Neville started off on its own 35. Turner went wide on the first play and dashed down the right sidelines 61 yards to the Minden four before Taylor finally pushed him out of bounds. Payne went two yards and Cage ran it twice, going over from the 1 on his second try.

Cage kicked the extra point, and Neville had a 21-0 lead with 50 seconds to go.

Both teams were shut out in the third period, with Neville taking over on its own 27 late in the quarter, before starting its last touchdown push.

On the next-to-last play of the quarter, Turner went wide again and went 42 yards for a touchdown, aided by a tremendous block by Cox that took out three Minden defenders. But the play was called back and Neville was assessed 15 yards for illegal use of hands.

Runs by Cage, Bill Becton, and Devon Payne kept the drive moving, and Turner finally got his touchdown in the fourth period on a half-yard sneak. Cage added the extra point, and Neville had a 28-0 advantage with 8 minutes and 20 seconds left in the game.

Minden finally recovered sufficiently to drive for its touchdown in the closing minutes, going 87 yards in 13 play for a score. Ashley gained 47 of the yards in the push, and Greer picked up 36 on 3 pass completions.

Ashley went a half-yard for the touchdown with a minute and ten seconds to go. Connell's kick was wide, and the game ended three plays later.

The Giants said Friday the 77 home games next season will be played on 76 dates. The only double header is with the Chicago Cubs on Memorial Day.

PANTHERS BOW, 7-0

Dragons Triumph, Take 2-B Crown

LAKE PROVIDENCE, La. (Special) — Quarterback Noble Ellington sprinted 30 yards in the seecond period for the game's only touchdown as the Mangham Dragons downed Lake Providence, 7-0, to win the district 2-B title.

Guard Glen Stamper set up the winning touchdown, intercepting a Panther pass and returning it 50 yards to the 30. Jerry Smith added the extra point to make it 7-0.

Lake Prividence threatened once in the second quarter but a stout Dragon defense repulsed the drive. In the third stanza Mangham marched to the Panther five where they were held on downs.

The playoff game was necessary when both clubs finished in a tie for the district title. Lake Providence took a 12-0 decision over Mangham earlier in the season.

Numerous fumbled marred the contest, played before a fine crowd despite near-freezing weather. Mangham trailed in the first down department seven to three.

Mangham will meet Wisner next week in the first round of state playoff action.

AFL Owners Reject Offer To Join NFL

HOUSTON (AP)—K. S. (Bud) Adams, owner of the Houston franchise in the new American Football League, said Friday night he and league President Lamar Hunt of Dallas have turned down a new offer to join the rival National Football League.

"We're going full steam ahead and will battle them right down to the end," Adams said. "We're not looking at any more NFL propositions."

Adams said he and Hunt conferred here Thursday night and early Friday with an NFL club owner who flew in by plane. They also talked with two others by telephone, he said.

Adams declined to identify the rival loop owners with whom they met. He said he and Hunt were offered Houston and Dallas franchises in the NFL "with no strings attached" and at assessments considerably lower than the going rate.

The offer, he said, would not include the other cities of the AFL — New York, Boston, Buffalo, Minneapolis, Los Angeles and Denver.

"Lamar and I talked all day and came to the conclusion that the NFL is still trying to sabotage the AFL," Adams said. "We're not looking at any more NFL propositions.

"That was a last-ditch effort for us to go in with them and we're not going to do it. Both Lamar and I are getting sick of them blowing smoke rings and trying to get us on their own terms.

AFTERNOON GAME

Techmen Close Out Season Against Tough Southerners

RUSTON, La. (Special) — Shooting for an upset win, Louisiana Tech's gridders will close out the '59 slate here Saturday afternoon in an expected rugged battle with highly ranked Mississippi Southern.

Advance ticket sales have been good and a large crowd is expected to be on hand for the non-conference tussle at Tech Stadium. Kickoff time is set for 2 p.m.

Because of the large crowd expected. high school football squads of the area will not be admitted to the game as guests of Tech, it was announced by head coach Joe Aillet of Tech.

Two added attractions for the Saturday afternoon game will be an appearance by the Homer High School band and a performance by the Dixie Dolls of Shreveport.

Both Tech and Southern will take good season marks into the Saturday fray. Southern has more than held its own against some of the large schools this fall, winning six out of nine frays. Tech is riding the crest of eight straight wins after dropping the season opener to Lamar Tech. A win for the Bulldogs will give them a 9-1 record and Tech's best season mark since 1955.

In the Southerners the Techmen will face one of the biggest lines in small college ranks. Coach Thad Vann's Mississippi eleven has a line that tops 210 pounds per man and only one man is under the 200 mark. Big guns include 225-pound center Charley Ellzey and 220-pound end Hugh McInnis.

Tech will try to hold the Southerners with a light but rugged forward wall that averages 199 per man. Being outweighed up front is nothing new for the Tech team this season, however, as the team has been outweighed in most of the nine tilts so far this fall.

Tech will have a weight advantage in the backfield as the Bulldogs will tip the scales at 191 per man and the Southerners average 175 per back.

Tech's halfbacks J. W. Slack and Paul Hynes are still leading the Canine rushing yardage. Slack has ripped off a total of 585 yards in nine frays and sports a 5.0 average per carry. Hynes has 514 yards to his credit and a 5 - 4 average per tote. Halfback David Williamson picked up 69 yards last week against Northeast State to take over Third place in total yardage with 252 and a very good average of 6.4 per carry.

Southern's top ground gainer is fullback Buddy Supple who has 348 yards to his credit and a 4.0 average in 87 carries. In second place for the Mississippi eleven is halfback Arnold Spence with 197 yards in 61 tries.

Tech's Slack continues as one of the top scorers in the Gulf States Conference with his 39 points. Hynes has put across four TDs for a total of 24 markers. Topping the Southern scoring is Supple with a total of 32 points in nine games.

Tom Causey, fine Bulldog end from Monroe, took over Tech's pass receiving yardage last week and has now hauled down 13 aerials for a total of 145 yards and three touchdowns. In the Southern camp the top pass receiver is halfback Andin McLeon who has grabbed 10 aerials good for 141 yards and two TDs. End Jerry Hudson of Tech has 105 yards on nine catches this fall.

Mississippi Southern now holds nine straight victories over the Bulldogs. Tech's last win came back in 1949 when the Bulldogs took a 34-13 battle. Southern won last year's game at Hattiesburg, Miss., by a 14-0 count.

Miss. Southern

La. Tech

Mustangs May Draw Bid To Liberty Bowl

DALLAS (AP)—Southern Methodist heard Friday that it might get into the Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia against Penn State if it makes a good showing against Texas Christian in the Southwest Conference finale Saturday.

Kerrington said the Liberty Bowl opponent for Penn State would be selected Saturday night.

Steers To Start Bowl Practice

The 20-17 triumph Thursday gave the Longhorns a berth in the Cotton Bowl, where they meet Syracuse Jan. 1.

Practice for the Cotton Bowl will start the second week in December. Coach Darrell Royal plans to leave for Mexico on a hunting trip early next week. Later he will fly to New York.

AT AQUEDUCT

Pair Head Field For Display 'Cap

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Whodunit and Dotted Line, both winners in $100,000 races this season, head the field in the $50,000-added Display Handicap at Aqueduct Saturday as racing stages its final week end in New York for 1959. It's the top attraction on a rather skimpy national program.

Jan Burke's Whodunit, winner of Hollywood Park's $100,000 Sunset Handicap, is top weighed at 120 pounds for the 2-mile Display for 3-year-olds and up. If all 12 entries start the race will be worth $58,600 with the winner getting $37,490.

Conn McCreary will ride Whodunit while Bill Boland will be up on Dotted Line, the 6 - year - old King Ranch mare who won one division of the $100,000 Man O'War Handicap at Aqueduct.

Elsewhere a number of $10,000 feature races show on the card. Another, the Newport Handicap, was cancelled at Narragansett Park because of a lack of entries.

The two top weights, Mrs. H.H. Hect's Monte Carlo (122) and Up and Coming (120), the New Zealand representative at the Laurel International, dropped out of the Exterminator Handicap at Pimlico. That left Ashlar, with jockey Sammy Boulmetis, carrying the most weight at 118 for the 1¼ miles.

Tropical Park, which split its opening day feature Thursday, comes back after a day off with a two-division Alligator Handicap at 5½ furlongs for 2-year-olds. Eleven are entered in each division with the Midas Farm's Ira Eaker, top weight at 122, in the second division with Larry Gilligan aboard. The Hasty House Farm's Prince Charger (119) with jockey John Rotz, tops the first division, which includes the April Fool Farm's April Skies (117), only stakes winner in either division.

Battle Dance and Twentyoneguns shared the top weight at 120 in the 1 1-16-mile San Mateo Handicap at Bay Meadows. The Searcher (118) is next among the six expected to start. Jockey Don Pierce will ride Battle Dance, with George Taniguchi on Twentyoneguns and Gordon Lanoway on The Searcher.

Redbird Wish (118), a M. H. Van Berg entry with Sorex (110), was given the top impost in an expected field of eight for the Crescent City Handicap at the Fair Grounds. Jockey Wayne Chambers is up on Redbird Wish for the 1 1-16 miles for 3-year-olds and up.

AF-Colorado Game Looms As Air Battle

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Colorado and Air Force, a couple of teams who share a conviction the best way to play football is to throw it as often as possible, got some good news Friday.

Fair and warmer weather is predicted for their game in Folsom Stadium Saturday.

Gale Weidner, Colorado's sophomore All-Big Eight quarterback, and Rich Mayo, the split-T craftsman for Air Force, are the two best passers in the Rocky Mountains.

Colorado's sophomore-studded team, after a poor season's start, has won three of its last four for a 4-5 mark to date. Air Force has lost two of its three games since a 13-13 tie with Army and sports a 5-3-1 reading.

SMU Seeks To End TCU Title Hopes

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Southern Methodist will try to thwart Texas Christian's hopes for a Southwest Conference championship tie and at the same time further its bowl aspirations when the two old rivals clash here Saturday.

A crowd of 40,000 is expected for the season finale.

Texas Christian's future is already assured—it will play in the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston Dec. 19—but the Christians also would like to tie Texas and Arkansas for the conference championship and boast an 8-2 record for the season. It would give the Horned Frogs a good mark to carry into the bowl game.

Don Meredith, the passing star of Southern Methodist, faces the Frogs for the last time and if he can shoot them down he will finish ahead in his career. TCU whipped the Methodist quarterback when he was a sophomore but Meredith led SMU to a 20-13 upset of the Frogs last year. However, TCU already was conference champion.

Daniel Says AL To Take In Brooklyn

NEW YORK (AP)—The World-Telegram and Sun Friday said the American League will consider an expansion plan to include Brooklyn and Minneapolis-St. Paul at its annual meeting Dec. 17.

The story, by Dan Daniel, said the Brooklyn team would play in the 50,000-seat stadium proposed by the City of New York for Flushing Meadows. That stadium and site offer was turned down by Dodger owner Walter O'Malley before he shifted his National League franchise from Brooklyn to Los Angeles two seasons ago.

The plan was proposed by a high official in the American League, the story said, adding that the plan reportedly was discussed by co-owner Dan Topping and Del Webb of the New York Yankees and General Manager George Weiss. That American League club would have to approve the addition of another club in its territory.

Weiss, a member of the American League's Expansion Committee, was quoted as stating that the league decided expansion "to nine or 10 clubs for 1960 was not feasible. The jury now is out on expanding in 1961."

Weiss also was quoted as saying American League President Joe Cronin probably will call an early session of the expansion committee at next month's league meeting in Miami.

Yankee officials were reported en route to the minor league meetings opening next week in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Cronin said in Boston before leaving for Florida that his only comment was that the league's fact finding committee had been ordered to investigate every aspect of possible expansion."

Vanderbilt and Tennessee currently are tied for seventh place in the 12-team SEC with identical .500 percentages. Vandy has a 2-2-2 record in league play, while Tennessee has a 3-3-1 mark.

TENTH STRAIGHT WIN

Neville Trounces Minden, 28-6 In AA Playoff Opener

By BOB ANDERSON
World Sports Editor

RUSTON — Neville proved its superiority in the first three minutes and pounded home several more lessons on the way to a convincing 28 to 6 rout of Minden in a state Class AA bi-district playoff here Friday night.

Coach Bill Ruple's Tigers showed their class to Minden's Crimson Tide and approximately 4,000 shivering fans by marching 72 yards in seven plays to start off the first quarter, came back with another touchdown in the period, a third in the second quarter and a final in the fourth.

Neville's victory was over a team that had knocked over another unbeaten Tiger eleven in 1956. Neville, state AA runnerup last year, was in no danger last night.

Minden, a highly regarded team that had won nine straight since opening this season with a loss to Ruston, was never in the ball game until the closing moments. Coach Elton Kelly's tide went one yard into Neville's end of the playing field on the first play of the second quarter and didn't see Neville territory again until the fourth.

Halfback Neal Gunn, who started Neville off to its 35-0 runaway over Ouachita last week with a long touchdown jaunt in the first three minutes, dashed 47 yards here last night for Neville's first touchdown. The score came with only two minutes and twenty seconds gone in the quarter, and Neville followed it up with another with 47 seconds left to go in the period, when Devone Payne plunged one yard.

Joe Cage went one yard for the third Neville score with 50 seconds to go in the half, after quarterback Joe Turner had set it up with a 61-yard gallop to the four.

Neville started a 73-yard march in the third quarter, finished it in the fourth when Turner slid a half - yard for a touchdown. Early in the march, Turner had gone 42 yards for a touchdown that was called back on an illegal use of hands penalty.

Cage kicked all four of the extra points for Neville. Minden's District 1-A champions finally got moving in the final period on the passing of quarterback Lamar Greer and the running of fullback Bobby Ashley, going 87 yards in thirteen plays to score just before the game ended.

Ashley pulled a half - yard for the touchdown, but Charles Connell's conversion attempt was wide. Ashley gentrated about the only offense Minden was able to muster against Neville's hard - nosed line. The 175-pound fullback gained 71 yards, all but seven of Minden's rushing total. Greer hit on five of nine passes for 64 yards to round out Minden's offensive showing.

STATISTICS

	Minden	Neville
First Downs	9	15
Yards Rushing	78	310
Yard Passing	64	0
Passes	5-9	0-1
Passes Intercepted By	0	0
Penalties	9-72	7-73
Punting	5-42.0	2-38.5

Neville will have a week off before it sees playoff action again. Eunice and DeRidder battle for the 4-AA title tonight with the winner slated to tangle with 3-AA champ Natchitoches next Friday.

That winner in turn will play Neville the following weekend.

Neville rolled up 310 yards rushing and none passing in rolling to their tenth straight victory of the season. Gunn was the top gainer with 105 yards in twelve trips. Cage got 74 yards in 17 carries, and Payne picked up 41 yards in twelve trips. Turner had the top average for Neville, gaining 71 yards in five carries for a 14-yard average.

Turner tried only one pass and missed, as Neville stuck almost strictly to the ground.

Neville's line, turning in one of its best performances in a great season, outcharged Minden's forwards throughout the game. All-State tackle candidate Mickey Cox turned in another tremendous performance on defense, along with center Lucian Branch, halfback R. F. Wilson, tackle Charlie Snapp and end Jimmy Love.

Neville won the toss to open the game, and immediately started winning everything else. The Tigers received the kickoff and moved quickly to the Minden 47 on a quick burst by Cage, Payne and Gunn, before halfback Gunn ran wide to the right, cut back quickly, passed into the clear at the 30, and sprinted into the end zone standing up.

After Minden took the kickoff and couldn't move, Neville ground out another touchdown march on 52 yards in ten plays, with Payne punching one yard off tackle for the touchdown.

Minden lost a scoring opportunity in the second period because of an extra man on the field. Henry McClure charged through to block a Cage punt deep in Neville territory and the Tide recovered on the Tiger 16 but the officials counted 12 Tidesmen on the play and Neville picked up a first down instead of losing the ball.

The penalty was one of many. Minden was penalized nine times for 72 yards, four of the penalties being for personal fouls. Minden lost several players because of injuries during the rough game.

Late in the second period, Neville started off on its own 35. Turner went wide on the first play and dashed down the right sidelines 61 yards to the Minden four before Taylor finally pushed him out of bounds. Payne went two yards and Cage ran it twice, going over from the 1 on his second try.

Cage kicked the extra point, and Neville had a 21-0 lead with 50 seconds to go.

Both teams were shut out in the third period, with Neville taking over on its own 27 late in the quarter, before starting its last touchdown push.

On the next-to-last play of the quarter, Turner went wide again and went 42 yards for a touchdown, aided by a tremendous block by Cox that took out three Minden defenders. But the play was called back and Neville was assessed 15 yards for illegal use of hands.

Runs by Cage, Bill Becton, and Devon Payne kept the drive moving, and Turner finally got his touchdown in the fourth period on a half-yard sneak. Cage added the extra point, and Neville had a 28-0 advantage with 8 minutes and 20 seconds left in the game.

Minden finally recovered sufficiently to drive for its touchdown in the closing minutes, going 87 yards in 13 play for a score. Ashley gained 47 of the yards in the push, and Greer picked up 36 on 3 pass completions.

Ashley went a half-yard for the touchdown with a minute and ten seconds to go. Connell's kick was wide, and the game ended three plays later.

AFTERNOON GAME

Techmen Close Out Season Against Tough Southerners

RUSTON, La. (Special) — Shooting for an upset win, Louisiana Tech's gridders will close out the '59 slate here Saturday afternoon in an expected rugged battle with highly ranked Mississippi Southern.

Advance ticket sales have been good and a large crowd is expected to be on hand for the non-conference tussle at Tech Stadium. Kickoff time is set for 2 p.m.

Because of the large crowd expected. high school football squads of the area will not be admitted to the game as guests of Tech, it was announced by head coach Joe Aillet of Tech.

Two added attractions for the Saturday afternoon game will be an appearance by the Homer High School band and a performance by the Dixie Dolls of Shreveport.

Both Tech and Southern will take good season marks into the Saturday fray. Southern has more than held its own against some of the large schools this fall, winning six out of nine frays. Tech is riding the crest of eight straight wins after dropping the season opener to Lamar Tech. A win for the Bulldogs will give them a 9-1 record and Tech's best season mark since 1955.

In the Southerners the Techmen will face one of the biggest lines in small college ranks. Coach Thad Vann's Mississippi eleven has a line that tops 210 pounds per man and only one man is under the 200 mark. Big guns include 225-pound center Charley Ellzey and 220-pound end Hugh McInnis.

Tech will try to hold the Southerners with a light but rugged forward wall that averages 199 per man. Being outweighed up front is nothing new for the Tech team this season, however, as the team has been outweighed in most of the nine tilts so far this fall.

Tech will have a weight advantage in the backfield as the Bulldogs will tip the scales at 191 per man and the Southerners average 175 per back.

Tech's halfbacks J. W. Slack and Paul Hynes are still leading the Canine rushing yardage. Slack has ripped off a total of 585 yards in nine frays and sports a 5.0 average per carry. Hynes has 514 yards to his credit and a 5 - 4 average per tote. Halfback David Williamson picked up 69 yards last week against Northeast State to take over Third place in total yardage with 252 and a very good average of 6.4 per carry.

Southern's top ground gainer is fullback Buddy Supple who has 348 yards to his credit and a 4.0 average in 87 carries. In second place for the Mississippi eleven is halfback Arnold Spence with 197 yards in 61 tries.

Tech's Slack continues as one of the top scorers in the Gulf States Conference with his 39 points. Hynes has put across four TDs for a total of 24 markers. Topping the Southern scoring is Supple with a total of 32 points in nine games.

Tom Causey, fine Bulldog end from Monroe, took over Tech's pass receiving yardage last week and has now hauled down 13 aerials for a total of 145 yards and three touchdowns. In the Southern camp the top pass receiver is halfback Andin McLeon who has grabbed 10 aerials good for 141 yards and two TDs. End Jerry Hudson of Tech has 105 yards on nine catches this fall.

Mississippi Southern now holds nine straight victories over the Bulldogs. Tech's last win came back in 1949 when the Bulldogs took a 34-13 battle. Southern won last year's game at Hattiesburg, Miss., by a 14-0 count.

Miss. Southern

La. Tech

PANTHERS BOW, 7-0

Dragons Triumph, Take 2-B Crown

LAKE PROVIDENCE, La. (Special) — Quarterback Noble Ellington sprinted 30 yards in the seecond period for the game's only touchdown as the Mangham Dragons downed Lake Providence, 7-0, to win the district 2-B title.

Guard Glen Stamper set up the winning touchdown, intercepting a Panther pass and returning it 50 yards to the 30. Jerry Smith added the extra point to make it 7-0.

Lake Prividence threatened once in the second quarter but a stout Dragon defense repulsed the drive. In the third stanza Mangham marched to the Panther five where they were held on downs.

The playoff game was necessary when both clubs finished in a tie for the district title. Lake Providence took a 12-0 decision over Mangham earlier in the season.

Numerous fumbled marred the contest, played before a fine crowd despite near-freezing weather. Mangham trailed in the first down department seven to three.

Mangham will meet Wisner next week in the first round of state playoff action.

AFL Owners Reject Offer To Join NFL

HOUSTON (AP)—K. S. (Bud) Adams, owner of the Houston franchise in the new American Football League, said Friday night he and league President Lamar Hunt of Dallas have turned down a new offer to join the rival National Football League.

"We're going full steam ahead and will battle them right down to the end," Adams said. "We're not looking at any more NFL propositions."

Adams said he and Hunt conferred here Thursday night and early Friday with an NFL club owner who flew in by plane. They also talked with two others by telephone, he said.

Adams declined to identify the rival loop owners with whom they met. He said he and Hunt were offered Houston and Dallas franchises in the NFL "with no strings attached" and at assessments considerably lower than the going rate.

The offer, he said, would not include the other cities of the AFL — New York, Boston, Buffalo, Minneapolis, Los Angeles and Denver.

"Lamar and I talked all day and came to the conclusion that the NFL is still trying to sabotage the AFL," Adams said. "We're not looking at any more NFL propositions.

"That was a last-ditch effort for us to go in with them and we're not going to do it. Both Lamar and I are getting sick of them blowing smoke rings and trying to get us on their own terms.

Kerrington said the Liberty Bowl opponent for Penn State would be selected Saturday night.

The 20-17 triumph Thursday gave the Longhorns a berth in the Cotton Bowl, where they meet Syracuse Jan. 1.

Practice for the Cotton Bowl will start the second week in December. Coach Darrell Royal plans to leave for Mexico on a hunting trip early next week. Later he will fly to New York.

AT AQUEDUCT

Pair Head Field For Display 'Cap

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Whodunit and Dotted Line, both winners in $100,000 races this season, head the field in the $50,000-added Display Handicap at Aqueduct Saturday as racing stages its final week end in New York for 1959. It's the top attraction on a rather skimpy national program.

Jan Burke's Whodunit, winner of Hollywood Park's $100,000 Sunset Handicap, is top weighed at 120 pounds for the 2-mile Display for 3-year-olds and up. If all 12 entries start the race will be worth $58,600 with the winner getting $37,490.

Conn McCreary will ride Whodunit while Bill Boland will be up on Dotted Line, the 6 - year - old King Ranch mare who won one division of the $100,000 Man O'War Handicap at Aqueduct.

Elsewhere a number of $10,000 feature races show on the card. Another, the Newport Handicap, was cancelled at Narragansett Park because of a lack of entries.

The two top weights, Mrs. H.H. Hect's Monte Carlo (122) and Up and Coming (120), the New Zealand representative at the Laurel International, dropped out of the Exterminator Handicap at Pimlico. That left Ashlar, with jockey Sammy Boulmetis, carrying the most weight at 118 for the 1¼ miles.

Tropical Park, which split its opening day feature Thursday, comes back after a day off with a two-division Alligator Handicap at 5½ furlongs for 2-year-olds. Eleven are entered in each division with the Midas Farm's Ira Eaker, top weight at 122, in the second division with Larry Gilligan aboard. The Hasty House Farm's Prince Charger (119) with jockey John Rotz, tops the first division, which includes the April Fool Farm's April Skies (117), only stakes winner in either division.

Battle Dance and Twentyoneguns shared the top weight at 120 in the 1 1-16-mile San Mateo Handicap at Bay Meadows. The Searcher (118) is next among the six expected to start. Jockey Don Pierce will ride Battle Dance, with George Taniguchi on Twentyoneguns and Gordon Lanoway on The Searcher.

Redbird Wish (118), a M. H. Van Berg entry with Sorex (110), was given the top impost in an expected field of eight for the Crescent City Handicap at the Fair Grounds. Jockey Wayne Chambers is up on Redbird Wish for the 1 1-16 miles for 3-year-olds and up.

AF-Colorado Game Looms As Air Battle

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Colorado and Air Force, a couple of teams who share a conviction the best way to play football is to throw it as often as possible, got some good news Friday.

Fair and warmer weather is predicted for their game in Folsom Stadium Saturday.

Gale Weidner, Colorado's sophomore All-Big Eight quarterback, and Rich Mayo, the split-T craftsman for Air Force, are the two best passers in the Rocky Mountains.

Colorado's sophomore-studded team, after a poor season's start, has won three of its last four for a 4-5 mark to date. Air Force has lost two of its three games since a 13-13 tie with Army and sports a 5-3-1 reading.

SMU Seeks To End TCU Title Hopes

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Southern Methodist will try to thwart Texas Christian's hopes for a Southwest Conference championship tie and at the same time further its bowl aspirations when the two old rivals clash here Saturday.

A crowd of 40,000 is expected for the season finale.

Texas Christian's future is already assured—it will play in the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston Dec. 19—but the Christians also would like to tie Texas and Arkansas for the conference championship and boast an 8-2 record for the season. It would give the Horned Frogs a good mark to carry into the bowl game.

Don Meredith, the passing star of Southern Methodist, faces the Frogs for the last time and if he can shoot them down he will finish ahead in his career. TCU whipped the Methodist quarterback when he was a sophomore but Meredith led SMU to a 20-13 upset of the Frogs last year. However, TCU already was conference champion.

Daniel Says AL To Take In Brooklyn

NEW YORK (AP)—The World-Telegram and Sun Friday said the American League will consider an expansion plan to include Brooklyn and Minneapolis-St. Paul at its annual meeting Dec. 17.

The story, by Dan Daniel, said the Brooklyn team would play in the 50,000-seat stadium proposed by the City of New York for Flushing Meadows. That stadium and site offer was turned down by Dodger owner Walter O'Malley before he shifted his National League franchise from Brooklyn to Los Angeles two seasons ago.

The plan was proposed by a high official in the American League, the story said, adding that the plan reportedly was discussed by co-owner Dan Topping and Del Webb of the New York Yankees and General Manager George Weiss. That American League club would have to approve the addition of another club in its territory.

Weiss, a member of the American League's Expansion Committee, was quoted as stating that the league decided expansion "to nine or 10 clubs for 1960 was not feasible. The jury now is out on expanding in 1961."

Weiss also was quoted as saying American League President Joe Cronin probably will call an early session of the expansion committee at next month's league meeting in Miami.

Yankee officials were reported en route to the minor league meetings opening next week in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Cronin said in Boston before leaving for Florida that his only comment was that the league's fact finding committee had been ordered to investigate every aspect of possible expansion.

Vols Attempt To Rebound In Vandy Tilt

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Vanderbilt and Tennessee meet Saturday with the Commodores seeking their first football victory over the Volunteers in Knoxville since 1937.

Tennessee will be trying to bounce back after successive setbacks by Mississippi (37-7) and Kentucky (20-0). The Vols have been unable to develop any punch in their single wing attack since their 14-3 upset of Louisiana State. State.

Vandy will present in halfback Tom Moore one of the finest running backs in its history. The 211-pound Moore has accounted for 992 yards this fall—569 rushing, 170 on passes, 62 on pass interceptions and 191 on kickoff returns. He is third in Southeastern Conference scoring with 54 points.

Vanderbilt and Tennessee currently are tied for seventh place in the 12-team SEC with identical .500 percentages. Vandy has a 2-2-2 record in league play, while Tennessee has a 3-3-1 mark.

SYRACUSE NAVY PICK

Hall Says Okla. Best Army Foe

By STEVE SNIDER

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Sports of all sorts:

Army coach Dale Hall says Oklahoma is the best team the Cadets have played against so far this year, picking the Sooners over Penn State and Illinois . . . those three all beat Army . . . "of course." Hall added. "Illinois must have come a long way since we played out there."

Not much doubt about Navy coach Wayne Hardin's best opponent pick . . . the Midshipmen tangled with top-ranked Syracuse and lost 32-6 . . . "Syracuse and Maryland are the only teams that outgained us this year, but we beat Maryland," said Hardin.

Ed Lopat, new pitching coach of the New York Yankees, is a firm believer in spotting flaws in a pitcher via movies . . ." Sometimes you can talk your head off and still fail to make your man understand," said Lopat. "But show him a movie of himself and he usually can see his trouble right away. That's what we did with Whitey Ford when he came out of the Army and he got back in the groove quickly."

The trick, though, is to get movies of a guy when he's going good . . . not many Yankees were fit movie subjects last year.

Buff Donelli, whose Columbia football team wound up last in the Ivy League, says his trouble was too many quarterbacks . . . "Any coach who fools with four quarterbacks in one year ought to have his head examined," Buff conceded . . . However, Buff's trouble apparently was trying to decide which three were the worst.

Pete Reiser, former Brooklyn Dodger star who moves up to the Los Angeles Dodgers as a coach next year, wasn't even unlucky. He made a habit of banging himself up against outfield walls chasing fly balls . . . Branch Rickey finally decided to put foam rubber padding on the walls in Brooklyn but Pete had "had it" by then.

Monty Stickles, a great end and field goal kicker, is one of 17 Notre Dame seniors winding it up against Southern California at South Bend, Ind., Saturday . . . In his three seasons, Stickles booted field goals for victory margins over Army, Duke and Navy . . . last week his conversion kicks downed Iowa, 20-19 . . . He is third on the squad in yardage on passes caught, fourth in number of tackles made and is one of three Irish players who blocked a kick this year.

Syracuse coach Ben Schwartzwalder wired New York football writers this week, "we have a good chance of maintaining our perfect football record this Saturday" . . . It's an open date.

Dick McCann, general manager of the Washington Redskins, says the club has suffered so many injuries this year it never has been able to start its 11 best offensive and 11 best defensive players in any game . . . "We've had everything but snow blindness," he says.

PLAY WEST MONROE TONIGHT

Irish Divide Pair With Ram Cagers

BASTROP, La. (Special) — Three players connected in double figures here Friday night to lead St. Matthew's to a 61-47 victory over Bastrop and hand the Rams their third loss without a win.

Wes Kendall put in 15 points to spark the Rams. Teammate Charles Burks tallied 11 and Ned Head scored 9.

Bastrop jumped into a 12-10 lead after one quarter, but Coach Jim Mahoney's Irish came back to lead 31-26 at intermission and were never headed.

Miami Meets Florida With Bid At Stake

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A Miami football team that came back from disaster in one season is angling for an Orange Bowl bid when it meets state rival Florida Saturday.

Coach Andy Gustafson shook up his staff of assistants, meshed a good crop of sophomores with 14 lettermen off last year's 2-8 team and has turned out a winner.

The Hurricanes have won six and lost three. They are working on a string of three impressive victories and are favored to make it four against a Florida team that has been having its troubles.

If Miami wins, it is expected to move into the Orange Bowl Jan. 1 against Missouri of the Big Eight Conference.

The Gators have four victories, four losses and one tie.

Florida will have to stop Fran Curci if it is to win. The 152-pound Miami quarterback, at the peak of a fine career, is accurate with both long and short passes. He is adept at the run-pass option play which has given Florida trouble before.

Usually a strong defensive team, Florida this year is 10th among the 12 Southeastern Conference teams on defense. Pass defense statistics are respectable but they may be misleading since Vanderbilt and Georgia found weaknesses there and other opponents were able to gain well enough on the ground and didn't need to pass.

Miami's line is bigger than Florida's. And it prove its mettle the past two weeks against South Carolina and Michigan State, which Miami Whipped 26-6 and 18-13 respectively.

At halfback, Miami's Bob Rosbaugh and Jim Vollenweider appear better than anything Florida has except possibly Jack West-Brook. Miami's Frank Bouffard and Florida's Jon MacBeth are both fine fullbacks.

LAST BIG SATURDAY

Army-Navy Tops Schedule Of Traditional Contests

By JACK CLARY

Army vs. Navy, the kingpin of all rivalries for color, pageantry and hard-nosed college football, tops a traditional week end schedule Saturday that also features a host of interesting neighborhood battles.

But don't shut the door on the season, even though this is the last big week end. For the best may be yet to come next Saturday, Dec. 5, when Syracuse, top-ranked in The Associated Press poll for the past three weeks, must whip an upset-minded UCLA team if it wants the mythical national championship.

The fact that Syracuse hisn't playing this week end won't detract from the firework that are expected from coast-to-coast. Five bowl spots are due to be filled and there is a share in the Southwest Conference title at stake.

The great interest, however, still is in the 60th inter-service classing in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium. More than 100,000 spectators and a national television audience are expected to watch subpar Army and Navy teams perform at their season's peak. Game time is 1:30 p.m. with TV handled by NBC.

Army, a one touchdown favorite, will rely on its lonely end offense powered by quarterback Joe Caldwell and ends Bill Carpenter and Don Usry. Navy's Joe Tranchini and Jim Maxfield, a pair of agile quarterbacks, will fire Navy's big salvos. Army's Bob Anderson and Navy's Joe Bellino are top running threats.

Army, 4-3-1 this year, leads the series 30-34-5. Navy has a 4-4-1 log.

Five of the nation's top ranked teams—Louisiana State (No. 3), Texas (No. 4), Wisconsin (No. 5), Washington (No. 9) and Arkansas (No. 10) have finished their seasons and are waiting to play in bowl games.

But only three have opponents. Wisconsin and Washington are set for the Rose Bowl and Texas faces Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl. The others are going to get partners over the week end, in addition to some non-rankers who have accepted bids.

Mississippi (No. 2) probably goes into the Sugar Bowl against LSU if it beats intrastate rival Mississippi State (2-6). The bowl game would be a replay of Ole Miss' only loss (7-3) in nine games to date.

Georgia, Southeastern Conference king at 6-0, ends its regular season against conference and backyard foe Georgia Tech (6-3). The Bulldoge (No. 6) can't announce bowl plans until after the game but indications are that it will pair with Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Texas Christian, looking for a victory to tie Arkansas and Texas for the SWC lead, meets Southern Methodist. The eighth - ranked Horned Frogs form the known half of the Bluebonnet pairings while SMU is one of the teams being considered for Philadelphia's Liberty Bowl against Penn State. Georgia Tech is another.

Miami (Fla.), 12th ranked with a 6-3 record, is looking for the host spot in the Orange Bowl if it beats Florida 4-4-1. Big Eight runner-up Missouri is already in the classic.

The Midwest's big game has Notre Dame (4-5) at home to seventh-ranked Southern California, unbeaten until it lost to UCLA last week. The Irish will be striving to finish at .500 in Coach Joe Kuharich's first season.

UCLA warms up for its game with Syracuse against Utah.

EAST: Boston College at Holy Cross.

SOUTHWEST—Baylor at Rice.

FAR WEST—Arizona at Arizona State.

Sooners 3-TD Favorites To Topple State

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma State's Cowboys ride onto Owen Field Saturday seeking to unseat the Oklahoma Sooners for the first time in 14 years in their traditional football battle.

It will be the 54th game in the long rivalry which has seen Oklahoma win 39 times. Oklahoma State has won eight contests and 6 have ended in ties.

The last time the Cowboys claimed victory was in 1945 when All-America Bob Fenimore and his friends ran rampant for a 47-0 decision. But the ensuing years brought nothing but despair for the Cowpokes as Oklahoma marched triumphantly under the guidance of Coach Bud Wilkinson.

Ragan Smashes Par, Takes Lead

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Dave Ragan of Orlando fired a 7-under-par 65 for a 36 hole total of 135 to seize a three-stroke lead Friday at the halfway point of the $15,000 West Palm Beach Invitational Open Golf Tournament.

Ragan vaulted from sixth to first with his rounds of 32 and 33 over the 6,745-yard West Palm Beach Country Club where par is 72.

Ragan's brillant play left him three strokes ahead of Jay Brewer of Crystal River, who shot an eagle on the 18th hole for a 66 and 138 total.

Three players tied at 139. Defending champion Pete Cooper of Lakeland had a 69. Garner Dickinson Jr., of Palm Beach shot a 68 and Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., had a 67.

Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta was another stroke back at 140 with a 69.

Ragan started with four straight birdies, chipping up eight inches from the hole on No. 1 and missing an eagle by a scant inch on No. 2. A 10-footer on No. 3 and a 15-footer on No. 4 completed the string.

Ragan, winner of the Eastern Open this year and runner-up in several other tournaments, sank his longest successful putt on No. 11, a 30-footer.

His only bogey came on the 17th hole when he hooked into the trees on the left, came back too strong over the green, pitched up and missed a 3-foot putt.

Jordan's Fight Is Postponed

Jordan, of Los Angeles, has been suffering from the flu. His manager, Jackie McCoy, requested the delay to give Jordan more time to get in shap for the Brazilian champion.

"We asked for the postponement because we have been told this guy Barreto is pretty rough and we are not taking any chances," said McCoy. "I know it's not a title fight but Don has a lot at stake and could lose a lot of his reputation if he fought badly here."

Because of the delay in the welterweight fight, the Dec. 5 bout between Danny Kid, Filippino bantamweight, and Eder Jofre has been set back to Dec. 12.

Bueno, Turman Win Matches In Melbourne Meet

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Wimbledon champion Maria Bueno of Brazil and England's Christine Turman, seeded 1-2 for the Victorian Tennis Championships, easily won their second round matches Friday.

Miss Bueno toyed with Val Roberts of Australia 6-2, 6-1 while Miss Truman needed only 25 minutes to defeat Jan Shearer, former South Australian junior champion, 6-1, 6-1. Both had first round byes.

The only American in the tournament, Mimi Arnold of Redwood City, Calif., advanced to the third round with a 6-4, 6-2 victory over Madonna Schacht of Australia.

Neale Fraser, Australia's Davis Cup hero, opened the tournament with a 6-4, 6-0 6-2 romp over Pat Okane. Bob Mark, another ranking Aussie, defeated Brian Kearney 6-2, 6-2, 6-4.

52-Yard Field Goal Longest

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—The Fort Worth Star-Telegram says the 52 - yard field goal Texas A&M's Randy Sims kicked against the University of Texas at College Station Thursday was the longest in Southwest Conference history.

Pasqua's boot in the last seconds of the game was from placement on the 36-yard line and won the game for the Mustangs 10-7.

Then as now the goal posts were 10 yards back on the goal line.

Sims' kick was from placement between the 41 and 42-yard lines, but nearer the 42.

SERVICE CLASSIC

By JACK HAND

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Army rules a slight favorite over Navy in their 60th battle Saturday before 100,000 fans at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium. All hands are primed for a passing duel between the Cadets' Joe Caldwell and the Middies' Joe Tranchini.

The weatherman predicted a cool afternoon with variable cloudiness for this annual blend of colorful pageantry and hard-nosed football. The thermometer was expected to dip into the low 40s. Gusts of wind were due to reach between 15 and 25 miles an hour. The game, scheduled for 1:30 p.m. EST, will be carried on NBC television.

For the first time since 1926, new coaches will be on both benches in this game. Dale Hall, whose main job was scouting Navy as an assistant to Red Blaik, has succeeded the colonel at West Point. Wayne Hardin, a member of the Navy staff for four years, has taken over Eddie Erdelatz' old role.

This has been a year of frustration for both teams. Army, No. 3 in the nation last year when it was unbeaten, comes into the big game with a 4-3-1 record. The Cadets lost to Illinois, Penn State and Oklahoma and were held to a 13-13 tie by the Air Force. Navy's record is 4-4-1. The Middies fell before Southern Methodist, Syracuse, Miami and Notre Dame and were tied by Pennsylvania. Neither team regained the peak of its opening victory over Boston Collete.

Injuries to key personnel practically ruined Army's season. No less than 28 men have been sidelined at various times, including Steve Waldrop, the starting right halfback, and Don Bonko, the No. 1 fullback, both lost for the season.

Navy also sputtered and missed fire when Joe Bellino, its ace halfback, was either out of action or crippled. Jim Maxfield, who seemed to have beaten out Tranchini for the starting quarterback job, suffered a severe knee injury in the Maryland game. Although the knee was in a cast for some time, Maxfield has been working out fornabout a week and is expected to see spot duty.

Caldwell and Anderson are the big men for Army. The quarterback, a wiry 6-footer with an accurate arm, has completed 99 of 165 passes or 60 per cent. Anderson, who scored 18 points in Army's 22-6 victory over Navy last year, has gained 270 yards in 62 carries although he has been bothered all year by an injury to his right leg. Anderson also passes occasionally.

It will be the last game for both Caldwell and Anderson as well as Bill Carpenter, the "lonely end." Other Army seniors in the starting line-up are end Don Usry, guard Mike Jezior and center Bob Oswandel. Carpenter, of course, is Caldwell's best catcher, although he has been hampered by shoulder trouble. He has nabbed 39 passes for 498 yards this season.

Tranchini's completion percentage of 54 per cent is inferior to Caldwell's. Maxfield has completed only 46.2 per cent but he hits with the long gainers.

Navy's ground attack centers around Bellino, a racehorse halfback who is very dangerous on punt and kickoff returns. Fullback Joe Matalavage is more consistent at fullback than Army's sophomore Al Rushatz. Among the seniors in the probable Navy starting line-up are Tranchini, Bellino, end George Bezek, tackle Larry Boyer and guard Bill Thomas.

The Army still uses Blaik's "lonely end" offense with the right end split wide. He does not join the huddle getting the plans by hand signals. Army attacks from an unbalanced line.

Hardin's style of play also is basically the same as that used by Erdelatz. The new coach was forced to discard plans of using a two-platoon system because of injuries and lack of depth in the line.

Army holds a 30-24 edge in the series with five tie games among the 59 already played.

Tech Ranks Seventh On NAIA List

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Lenoir Rhyne College of Hickory, N.C., is the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics' No. 1 football team of the year, the NAIA announced Friday.

Lenoir Rhyne, which will host Southern Connecticut State Dec. 5 in the Eastern NAIA championship playoff semifinal, wound up the season with a 9-0 record.

The Bears polled 326 points, most ever given any team in the NAIA ratings.

Western Illinois, also undefeated and untied in 9 games, came in second. Hillsdale, Mich., College, to play Texas A&I at Kingsville, Tex., in the other end of the playoff semifinals Dec. 5, is third.

The winners of the semifinals will meet in St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 19 for the NAIA football championship.

East Texas State was fourth in the final ratings, Texas A&I fifth, Presbyterian of South Carolina sixth, Louisiana Tech seventh then Southern Connecticut, McMurry of Texas and West Chester, Pa., State round out the top ten teams.

Putnam Not Bitter After Suspension

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Co-Capt. Duane Putnam, for eight years a star lineman for the Los Angeles Rams, indicated no bitterness Friday over his suspension for breaking training regulations.

The former College of the Pacific athlete, rated among the best offensive guards in the National Football League, said in his suburban Granada Hills home Friday:

"I played eight years with the Rams and I enjoyed every minute of it.

"The people in the Los Angeles organization are tops and treated me great.

"Presently, all I want to do is get my ankle and shoulder ready so I can play football next fall."

Putnam was flown home from the Rams' temporary training site in New York Thursday by orders of General Manager Pete Rozelle. He had alrady been declared out of the Baltimore game Sunday because of his bad ankle.

Putnam said he is due to have his injuries examined further and predicted an operation might be necessary on his ankle.

Wes Kendall put in 15 points to spark the Rams. Teammate Charles Burks tallied 11 and Ned Head scored 9.

Bastrop jumped into a 12-10 lead after one quarter, but Coach Jim Mahoney's Irish came back to lead 31-26 at intermission and were never headed.

Miami Meets Florida With Bid At Stake

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A Miami football team that came back from disaster in one season is angling for an Orange Bowl bid when it meets state rival Florida Saturday.

Coach Andy Gustafson shook up his staff of assistants, meshed a good crop of sophomores with 14 lettermen off last year's 2-8 team and has turned out a winner.

The Hurricanes have won six and lost three. They are working on a string of three impressive victories and are favored to make it four against a Florida team that has been having its troubles.

If Miami wins, it is expected to move into the Orange Bowl Jan. 1 against Missouri of the Big Eight Conference.

The Gators have four victories, four losses and one tie.

Florida will have to stop Fran Curci if it is to win. The 152-pound Miami quarterback, at the peak of a fine career, is accurate with both long and short passes. He is adept at the run-pass option play which has given Florida trouble before.

Usually a strong defensive team, Florida this year is 10th among the 12 Southeastern Conference teams on defense. Pass defense statistics are respectable but they may be misleading since Vanderbilt and Georgia found weaknesses there and other opponents were able to gain well enough on the ground and didn't need to pass.

Miami's line is bigger than Florida's. And it prove its mettle the past two weeks against South Carolina and Michigan State, which Miami Whipped 26-6 and 18-13 respectively.

At halfback, Miami's Bob Rosbaugh and Jim Vollenweider appear better than anything Florida has except possibly Jack WestBrook. Miami's Frank Bouffard and Florida's Jon MacBeth are both fine fullbacks.

LAST BIG SATURDAY

Army-Navy Tops Schedule Of Traditional Contests

By JACK CLARY

Army vs. Navy, the kingpin of all rivalries for color, pageantry and hard-nosed college football, tops a traditional week end schedule Saturday that also features a host of interesting neighborhood battles.

But don't shut the door on the season, even though this is the last big week end. For the best may be yet to come next Saturday, Dec. 5, when Syracuse, top-ranked in The Associated Press poll for the past three weeks, must whip an upset-minded UCLA team if it wants the mythical national championship.

The fact that Syracuse hisn't playing this week end won't detract from the firework that are expected from coast-to-coast. Five bowl spots are due to be filled and there is a share in the Southwest Conference title at stake.

The great interest, however, still is in the 60th inter-service classing in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium. More than 100,000 spectators and a national television audience are expected to watch subpar Army and Navy teams perform at their season's peak. Game time is 1:30 p.m. with TV handled by NBC.

Army, a one touchdown favorite, will rely on its lonely end offense powered by quarterback Joe Caldwell and ends Bill Carpenter and Don Usry. Navy's Joe Tranchini and Jim Maxfield, a pair of agile quarterbacks, will fire Navy's big salvos. Army's Bob Anderson and Navy's Joe Bellino are top running threats.

Army, 4-3-1 this year, leads the series 30-34-5. Navy has a 4-4-1 log.

Five of the nation's top ranked teams—Louisiana State (No. 3), Texas (No. 4), Wisconsin (No. 5), Washington (No. 9) and Arkansas (No. 10) have finished their seasons and are waiting to play in bowl games.

But only three have opponents. Wisconsin and Washington are set for the Rose Bowl and Texas faces Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl. The others are going to get partners over the week end, in addition to some non-rankers who have accepted bids.

Mississippi (No. 2) probably goes into the Sugar Bowl against LSU if it beats intrastate rival Mississippi State (2-6). The bowl game would be a replay of Ole Miss' only loss (7-3) in nine games to date.

Georgia, Southeastern Conference king at 6-0, ends its regular season against conference and backyard foe Georgia Tech (6-3). The Bulldoge (No. 6) can't announce bowl plans until after the game but indications are that it will pair with Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Texas Christian, looking for a victory to tie Arkansas and Texas for the SWC lead, meets Southern Methodist. The eighth-ranked Horned Frogs form the known half of the Bluebonnet pairings while SMU is one of the teams being considered for Philadelphia's Liberty Bowl against Penn State. Georgia Tech is another.

Miami (Fla.), 12th ranked with a 6-3 record, is looking for the host spot in the Orange Bowl if it beats Florida 4-4-1. Big Eight runner-up Missouri is already in the classic.

The Midwest's big game has Notre Dame (4-5) at home to seventh-ranked Southern California, unbeaten until it lost to UCLA last week. The Irish will be striving to finish at .500 in Coach Joe Kuharich's first season.

UCLA warms up for its game with Syracuse against Utah.

EAST: Boston College at Holy Cross.

SOUTHWEST—Baylor at Rice.

FAR WEST—Arizona at Arizona State.

Sooners 3-TD Favorites To Topple State

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma State's Cowboys ride onto Owen Field Saturday seeking to unseat the Oklahoma Sooners for the first time in 14 years in their traditional football battle.

It will be the 54th game in the long rivalry which has seen Oklahoma win 39 times. Oklahoma State has won eight contests and 6 have ended in ties.

The last time the Cowboys claimed victory was in 1945 when All-America Bob Fenimore and his friends ran rampant for a 47-0 decision. But the ensuing years brought nothing but despair for the Cowpokes as Oklahoma marched triumphantly under the guidance of Coach Bud Wilkinson.

AT WEST PALM BEACH

Ragan Smashes Par, Takes Lead

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Dave Ragan of Orlando fired a 7-under-par 65 for a 36 hole total of 135 to seize a three-stroke lead Friday at the halfway point of the $15,000 West Palm Beach Invitational Open Golf Tournament.

Ragan vaulted from sixth to first with his rounds of 32 and 33 over the 6,745-yard West Palm Beach Country Club where par is 72.

Ragan's brillant play left him three strokes ahead of Jay Brewer of Crystal River, who shot an eagle on the 18th hole for a 66 and 138 total.

Three players tied at 139. Defending champion Pete Cooper of Lakeland had a 69. Garner Dickinson Jr., of Palm Beach shot a 68 and Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., had a 67.

Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta was another stroke back at 140 with a 69.

Ragan started with four straight birdies, chipping up eight inches from the hole on No. 1 and missing an eagle by a scant inch on No. 2. A 10-footer on No. 3 and a 15-footer on No. 4 completed the string.

Ragan, winner of the Eastern Open this year and runner-up in several other tournaments, sank his longest successful putt on No. 11, a 30-footer.

His only bogey came on the 17th hole when he hooked into the trees on the left, came back too strong over the green, pitched up and missed a 3-foot putt.

The leaders:

Dave Ragan	70-65—135
Jay Brewer	72-66—138
Arnold Palmer	72-67—139
Gardner Dickinson Jr.	71-68—139
Pete Cooper	70-69—139

Jordan's Fight Is Postponed

Jordan, of Los Angeles, has been suffering from the flu. His manager, Jackie McCoy, requested the delay to give Jordan more time to get in shap for the Brazilian champion.

"We asked for the postponement because we have been told this guy Barreto is pretty rough and we are not taking any chances," said McCoy. "I know it's not a title fight but Don has a lot at stake and could lose a lot of his reputation if he fought badly here."

Because of the delay in the welterweight fight, the Dec. 5 bout between Danny Kid, Filippino bantamweight, and Eder Jofre has been set back to Dec. 12.

Bueno, Turman Win Matches In Melbourne Meet

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Wimbledon champion Maria Bueno of Brazil and England's Christine Turman, seeded 1-2 for the Victorian Tennis Championships, easily won their second round matches Friday.

Miss Bueno toyed with Val Roberts of Australia 6-2, 6-1 while Miss Truman needed only 25 minutes to defeat Jan Shearer, former South Australian junior champion, 6-1, 6-1. Both had first round byes.

The only American in the tournament, Mimi Arnold of Redwood City, Calif., advanced to the third round with a 6-4, 6-2 victory over Madonna Schacht of Australia.

Neale Fraser, Australia's Davis Cup hero, opened the tournament with a 6-4, 6-0 6-2 romp over Pat Okane. Bob Mark, another ranking Aussie, defeated Brian Kearney 6-2, 6-2, 6-4.

52-Yard Field Goal Longest

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—The Fort Worth Star-Telegram says the 52-yard field goal Texas A&M's Randy Sims kicked against the University of Texas at College Station Thursday was the longest in Southwest Conference history.

Pasqua's boot in the last seconds of the game was from placement on the 36-yard line and won the game for the Mustangs 10-7.

Then as now the goal posts were 10 yards back on the goal line.

Sims' kick was from placement between the 41 and 42-yard lines, but nearer the 42.

SERVICE CLASSIC

By JACK HAND

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Army rules a slight favorite over Navy in their 60th battle Saturday before 100,000 fans at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium. All hands are primed for a passing duel between the Cadets' Joe Caldwell and the Middies' Joe Tranchini.

The weatherman predicted a cool afternoon with variable cloudiness for this annual blend of colorful pageantry and hard-nosed football. The thermometer was expected to dip into the low 40s. Gusts of wind were due to reach between 15 and 25 miles an hour. The game, scheduled for 1:30 p.m. EST, will be carried on NBC television.

For the first time since 1926, new coaches will be on both benches in this game. Dale Hall, whose main job was scouting Navy as an assistant to Red Blaik, has succeeded the colonel at West Point. Wayne Hardin, a member of the Navy staff for four years, has taken over Eddie Erdelatz' old role.

This has been a year of frustration for both teams. Army, No. 3 in the nation last year when it was unbeaten, comes into the big game with a 4-3-1 record. The Cadets lost to Illinois, Penn State and Oklahoma and were held to a 13-13 tie by the Air Force. Navy's record is 4-4-1. The Middies fell before Southern Methodist, Syracuse, Miami and Notre Dame and were tied by Pennsylvania. Neither team regained the peak of its opening victory over Boston Collete.

Injuries to key personnel practically ruined Army's season. No less than 28 men have been sidelined at various times, including Steve Waldrop, the starting right halfback, and Don Bonko, the No. 1 fullback, both lost for the season.

Navy also sputtered and missed fire when Joe Bellino, its ace halfback, was either out of action or crippled. Jim Maxfield, who seemed to have beaten out Tranchini for the starting quarterback job, suffered a severe knee injury in the Maryland game. Although the knee was in a cast for some time, Maxfield has been working out fornabout a week and is expected to see spot duty.

Caldwell and Anderson are the big men for Army. The quarterback, a wiry 6-footer with an accurate arm, has completed 99 of 165 passes or 60 per cent. Anderson, who scored 18 points in Army's 22-6 victory over Navy last year, has gained 270 yards in 62 carries although he has been bothered all year by an injury to his right leg. Anderson also passes occasionally.

It will be the last game for both Caldwell and Anderson as well as Bill Carpenter, the "lonely end." Other Army seniors in the starting line-up are end Don Usry, guard Mike Jezior and center Bob Oswandel. Carpenter, of course, is Caldwell's best catcher, although he has been hampered by shoulder trouble. He has nabbed 39 passes for 498 yards this season.

Tranchini's completion percentage of 54 per cent is inferior to Caldwell's. Maxfield has completed only 46.2 per cent but he hits with the long gainers.

Navy's ground attack centers around Bellino, a racehorse halfback who is very dangerous on punt and kickoff returns. Fullback Joe Matalavage is more consistent at fullback than Army's sophomore Al Rushatz. Among the seniors in the probable Navy starting line-up are Tranchini, Bellino, end George Bezek, tackle Larry Boyer and guard Bill Thomas.

The Army still uses Blaik's "lonely end" offense with the right end split wide. He does not join the huddle getting the plans by hand signals. Army attacks from an unbalanced line.

Hardin's style of play also is basically the same as that used by Erdelatz. The new coach was forced to discard plans of using a two-platoon system because of injuries and lack of depth in the line.

Army holds a 30-24 edge in the series with five tie games among the 59 already played.

Tech Ranks Seventh On NAIA List

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Lenoir Rhyne College of Hickory, N.C., is the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics' No. 1 football team of the year, the NAIA announced Friday.

Lenoir Rhyne, which will host Southern Connecticut State Dec. 5 in the Eastern NAIA championship playoff semifinal, wound up the season with a 9-0 record.

The Bears polled 326 points, most ever given any team in the NAIA ratings.

Western Illinois, also undefeated and untied in 9 games, came in second. Hillsdale, Mich., College, to play Texas A&I at Kingsville, Tex., in the other end of the playoff semifinals Dec. 5, is third.

The winners of the semifinals will meet in St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 19 for the NAIA football championship.

East Texas State was fourth in the final ratings, Texas A&I fifth, Presbyterian of South Carolina sixth, Louisiana Tech seventh then Southern Connecticut, McMurry of Texas and West Chester, Pa., State round out the top ten teams.

Putnam Not Bitter After Suspension

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Co-Capt. Duane Putnam, for eight years a star lineman for the Los Angeles Rams, indicated no bitterness Friday over his suspension for breaking training regulations.

The former College of the Pacific athlete, rated among the best offensive guards in the National Football League, said in his suburban Granada Hills home Friday:

"I played eight years with the Rams and I enjoyed every minute of it.

"The people in the Los Angeles organization are tops and treated me great.

"Presently, all I want to do is get my ankle and shoulder ready so I can play football next fall."

Putnam was flown home from the Rams' temporary training site in New York Thursday by orders of General Manager Pete Rozelle. He had alrady been declared out of the Baltimore game Sunday because of his bad ankle.

Putnam said he is due to have his injuries examined further and predicted an operation might be necessary on his ankle.

KEEN RIVALS

Bowl Scouts To See Atlanta Tilt

By MERCER BAILEY

ATLANTA (AP) — Representatives of four bowls have reserved seats for Saturday's big football game between Southeastern Conference champion Georgia and Georgia Tech.

Officials of the Orange, Gator, Bluebonnet and Liberty bowls are among the 44,000-plus ticket holders for the annual regular season windup between these two keen rivals.

Georgia, ranked sixth nationally, carries an 8-1 won-lost record into the contest. Tech, which dropped out of the national rankings after losing to Alabama, has won six and lost three.

The game, to be played on Tech's home field, is rated a tossup. There is talk in informed circles that both teams are likely to receive bowl bids if the game is as close as the oddsmakers figure it, regardless of which team wins.

An 8-2 record should qualify Georgia since the Bulldogs are the SEC champs. Tech's past bowl record—eight victories without a loss under Coach Bubby Dodd—is in its favor, along with the closeness of Tech's three losses. Auburn beat Tech by 1 point, 'Bama by 2 and Duke by 3.

Both Dodd and Georgia Coach Wally Butts agree it probably will be a tight game.

"I look for a close score with no more than a touchdown and probably only points separating the two teams," said Dodd, whose teams have lost to Georgia the last two years.

Tech's stock improved slightly late in the week when quarterback Fred Braselton began passing with more ease and accuracy. Braselton, the Yellow Jackets' top offensive operator, missed the Alabama and Notre Dame games with an injured shoulder and arm. Lingering soreness in the joints has prevented him from returning to peak form but Dodd said he looked much better in a Thanksgiving morning drill.

Georgia, a big surprise this season, is in top shape. Quarterback Francis Tarkenton, the SEC's leading passer, is expected to try to capitalize on Tech's spotty aerial defense. The Bulldog ground attack features halfbacks Bobby Walden and Fred Brown and fullbacks Bill Godfrey and Don Soberdash.

Tech has more dangerous runners available than at any time since the second game of the season. Halfbacks Floyd Faucette and Billy Williamshon, who have carried most of the load, will be backed up by speedster Chick Graning, Frank Nix and little Kenny Thompson, plus fullbacks Taz Anderson and Ben Smith.

49ers Taper Off For Scrap With Browns

WASHINGTON (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers ran through a final light workout Friday before taking off for Cleveland and their National Football League game with the Browns on Sunday.

It will be the first meeting of the two old playmates from the All-America Conference since 1955 when Cleveland won 38-3.

The 49ers are banking on slim John Brodie to break their two-game losing streak and keep them at least tied for the lead in the Western Conference.

The former Stanford passing star, filling in for the injured Y. A. Tittle, has been running the team during the week's workouts at Georgetown University. His coaches say they're not worried about his ability to do the job.

Cleveland is the solid pick, however. The 49ers came East with a 6-1 record and sole ownership of the conference lead. But successive setbacks to the Chicago Bears and Baltimore Colts have dropped them into a tie with the Colts.

The 49er squad will fly to Cleveland Saturday afternoon, and will head for San Francisco right after Sunday's game.

Va. Tech's Pugh Heads All-Southern

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Alger Pugh of Virginia Tech, the slippery halfback who led the Southern Conference in rushing and scoring, Friday was named captain of the 1959 all-conference team.

The captaincy annually goes to the player who leads the voting in balloting for the honor team conducted by The Associated Press.

Pugh's popularity with coaches, newsmen and radio-TV sportscasters who helped The AP select its team was understandable. The 5-11, 179-pound Tech senior from Fredericksburg, Va., ran for 615 yards and passed for 244 yards, stacking up a total offense of 859 yards.

In addition, he scored 11 touchdowns for a conference-leading 66 points.

Even so, Pugh was a narrow victor in the voting over two other players—ends Carroll Dale of Virginia Tech and Paul Maguire of The Citadel. Dale had been the captain of the 1959 honor squad.

The complete All-Southern.

Ends—Dale and Maguire.

Tackles—Mike Lashley, William and Mary, and Pat Lamberti, Richmond.

Guards—Bill Lopasky, West Virginia, and Mike Zeno, Virginia Tech.

Center—Ron De Melfi, George Washington.

'MUST' GAME

Browns, Frisco In NFL Feature

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The San Francisco 49ers, who hit the road and found it a road to ruin, limp into Cleveland's Municipal Stadium Sunday to face the Browns. It figures to be a bust-up game for the loser's title hopes in the National Football League.

San Francisco was the surprise club of the season just three weeks ago, riding a four-game streak for a 6-1 record as the 49ers rolled east. But they now have lost two straight—14-3 at Chicago against the Bears and 45-14 at Baltimore, a loss that cost them quarterback Y. A. Tittle and left them tied with the Colts for the Western Conference lead.

The 49ers and Colts, defending NFL champs, have 6-3 records with three to play. That means Baltimore could cinch the Western title at San Francisco next week if the Colts can couple a victory over Los Angeles with a San Francisco defeat Sunday. The Colts are 9½-point favorites over the tailend Rams (2-7) at Baltimore.

Cleveland, tied with Philadelphia for second place in the Eastern race after last weekend's 21-20 upset by Pittsburgh, is a 10-point favorite over San Francisco. The Browns and Eagles have 6-3 records and trail the New York Giants (7-2) by a game.

Philadelphia plays at Pittsburgh, with the Steelers (4-4-1) favored by 4. The Giants are at home against Washington (3-6) and are 110-point favorites over the Redskins.

The Bears (5-4) and Chicago Cardinals (2-7) stage another meeting in their anything-can-happen city series in the only other game scheduled. The Bears are favored by 7.

Green Bay (5-5) and the Detroit Lions (2-7-1) are idle after the Packers won their Thanksgiving Day game 24-17.

With Tittle out of action because of a knee injury, the 49ers have to go with seldom-used John Brodie at quarter against Cleveland's bruising Jimmy Brown, fleet Bobby Mitchell and passer Milt Plum. Brown, the NFL's leading rushing for each of his three seasons as a pro, has powered for 1.013 yards—a 112-plus average.

Dickie Moegle, whose pro experience has been picked up with the 49ers' defensive unit, will back up Brodie as San Francisco's No. 2 quarterback.

The Colts will be shooting for their third in a row since losing at Cleveland and Washington on consecutive weeks, while the Rams have dropped five straight. Quarterback Johnny Unitas has extended his consecutive game record for touchdown passes to 34. His 24 TD tosses are just five shy of cracking the record set by Sid Luckman for the Bears in 1943.

Quarterback Chuck Conerly, who pitched the Giants free of a Cardinal rally last week, is healed and healthy for Conerly Day and the Skins in New York. The Giants who have a showdown with Cleveland next week, voted to hold a Thanksgiving Day workout, passing up a day off in their shot for a second straight Eastern crown and third in four years.

OLE MISS HEAVY FAVORITE

Sugar Bowl-Bound Rebels Take On State In Finale

STARKVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Mississippi's mighty Rebels wind up their football season Saturday against oft-beaten old rival Mississippi State. And with a Rebel victory goes a certain invitation to the Sugar Bowl game in New Orleans on New Year's Day.

Anything short of a Rebel landslide would be surprising. Oddsmakers have the Rebels favored by a strong four-touchdown margin. Mississippi has tasted defeat only once in nine games while a 5.4 yard average.

Mississippi State's best offensive weapons are its quarterbacks, Billy Hill and Billy Tohill. Neither rank among the conference leaders, but the Mississippi State offense is seriously hampered by a lack of experience. State's sophomore - laden club, however, figures to be a conference threat in a year or two.

The Rebel-Maroon rivalry dates back to 1901. Ole Miss leads with 27 victories to State's 24. Four games have ended in ties. State shows only two victories — both over minor league opponents —in nine outings.

The bid to the Sugar Bowl game is a mere formality. Louisiana State, the only team to whip Mississippi in the regular season, accepted an invitation earlier this week and reports are that Mississippi was approached by the Sugar Bowl — unofficially — some time ago.

LSU edged the Rebels 7-3 in one of the season's great games last month. All-America halfback touchdown run on a punt return Billy Cannon's incredible 89-yard touchdown run on a punt return proved the difference. But the game was so close that pressure has been great for weeks for the rematch.

Logically, such a game would be the best the Sugar Bowl could obtain. Mississippi ranked second in this week's Associated Press Poll while LSU held the No. 3 spot.

But back to the task the Rebels face tomorrow.

Mississippi's offense is built around the talents of quarterback Jake Gibbs and fullback Charlie Flowers. Gibbs leads the Southeastern Conference in total offense with 595 yards gained passing and 166 rushing. And he ranks only behind Georgia's Francis Tarkenton in the passing department.

Flowers, the Rebels' best bet for all-America honors, is the leading ground gainer in the SEC with 675 yards on 125 attempts for four touchdowns a game.

'Frisco Cage Coach Takes Year's Leave

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Phil Woolpert, who coached the University of San Francisco to two NCAA basketball championships, Friday took a year's leave of absence for health reasons.

Friends doubted he ever would return to coaching. A clue was that he also took leave from his post as athletic director.

Ross Giudice was named head coach for one year. He has been USF freshman coach and Woolpert's assistant with the varsity nine years.

Woolpert said he requested leave because of a recent back injury and "the effects and rigors of coaching upon my health." He said he has no idea what he may do. "My plans are indefinite," he added.

Friends said he also found the strains of coaching too severe.

In nine years, Woolpert's Dons won 154 games and lost 74; won the NCAA in 1955 and 1956; won 60 straight in 1954-55-56, still an NCAA record; won 104 and lost only 10 in 1954-58.

Woolpert's statement said, in effect, that he has no other coaching job in sight. Both his statement and USF's sounded like a farewell.

"I've turned down offers of other institutions in the past because I always was completely satisfied with my relations with USF," said the coach.

Joseph T. Keane, S. J., moderator of athletics at USF, said:

"We always considered Phil a most outstanding man for our coaching situation. We always will think that."

Rice Favored To Tumble Baylor

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A crowd of about 35,000 is expected Saturday as Rice and Baylor meet in a football battle that will settle fifth and sixth places in final Southwest Conference standings.

Rice will be a touchdown favorite and it will be only the second time this season for the Owls to find themselves in such a role.

The Owls place most of their hopes on Billy Bucek, a senior who zoomed to runner-up spot among total offense leaders in the conference after switching from halfback to quarterback at mid-season.

Rice holds a 1-6-2 season record and a 1-3-1 conference record. Baylor is 3-6 and 1-4.

The lone conference victories for both Rice and Baylor were over Texas A&M.

BI-DISTRICT PLAYOFF

Delhi Crushes Winnfield, 31-0

WINNFIELD, La. (Special) — Ken Newton came out of his halfback slot to score 19 points in leading the Delhi Bears to a 31-0 victory over Winnfield in a bi-district Class A playoff here last night.

It was Newton & Co. all the way and the Tigers could never find running room, picking up only three first downs. All of them came in the final minutes of play.

For the first 11 minutes it looked like a real nerve-stretcher but quarterback Jess Newcomer shot a 39-yard scoring pass to halfback Leo Coleman. Newton failed on the point after to end the first quarter.

Newcomer opened the second stanza with a 16-yard toss to Newton who went over standing but a Newcomer-to-Kent Fuller PAT attempt was no good.

In the third frame Newton pounced on a Tiger fumble at the Winnfield 47 and on second down gathered in a 46-yard aerial from Newcomer for the third touchdown. Newton's run for the point failed.

In the fourth quarter Tiger fullback Jimmy Bolton fumbled on his 30. Newton grabbed the loose ball and it was Newcomer to Fuller for the score. Newton ran the only point of the night.

Then the Tigers coughed up the ball on downs at the Delhi 49 and Newton wiggled over right guard for a 51-yard touchdown scamper. His run for the point was stopped short.

Winnfield made its best scoring stab when end Jerry Burch intercepted a Newcomer pass on the Winnfield 10 and galloped to the Delhi 30. They gave up the ball on downs.

With a minute left to play and Winnfield rolling with three first downs on four plays, Delhi halfback Bob McKay hauled in a Tiger pass and romped 45 yards to score but a roughing penalty nullified the play.

Newton brought his total scoring for the year to 134 points on 24 touchdowns and 10 extra points.

It was the only time the Tigers have been unable to score all season long.

Delhi picked up nine first downs in the rout.

Mineral Water Bowl Features Emporia, Austin

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo. (AP)—A pair of fine quarterbacks match their passing powers Saturday night when College of Emporia of Emporia, Kan., and Austin College of Sherman, Tex., meet in the 10th annual Mineral Water Bowl football game.

Austin's Bo Miller, 5-10, 178-pound quarterback, has gained 1,205 yards for the high scoring Kangaroos. Miller has completed 79 of 138 passes for 997 yards and added another 208 rushing.

Both teams, boasting 8-1 records, have averaged more than four touchdowns a game.

Area Hunters Go Into Full Swing

By SAM HANNA
Staff Writer

Northeast Louisiana hunters got into full swing yesterday as a cold front moved in to improve conditions.

But there was no room for improvement as far as filling the game bag on the Jackson - Bienville Game Management Area near Jonesboro.

Hunters killed 325 deer there in two days, enough to close the area for the year.

Biologist John Haygood said late yesterday wildlife officials decided to close the game area when the kill rose to 325. A maximum of 350 deer — any deer — was set before the season opened.

Original plans called for opening the area to "any deer" hunting on Thanksgiving Day through Monday, or a limit of 350 deer.

Meanwhile, biologist Joe Herring's aides made plans for a three - day buck-only season on the Union Game Management Area near Farmerville starting today.

The season will be operated on a permit basis today, Sunday and Monday. Still hunting only will be allowed.

Check stations will be operated at:

1. West side of the area at the main entrance on the Truxno-Concord highway approximately three - fourths of a mile from the Tennessee Cemetery.

2. East side of the area at the bridge on Big Cane Creek on the Concord- Truxno highway.

While deer hunters were mopping up, duck hunters got spotty shooting on Black Bayou and Wham Brake near Monroe. The season opened at noon on Thanksgiving Day.

But the cold front was expected to improve hunting over the weekend. With the season opening in Arkansas Monday, the hunting should get better when the gun pressure drives the flights south.

Bird hunters had bad conditions on opening day, Thanksgiving Day. Warm temperatures, too much grass and dry weather kept the dogs from working too well.

However, this sport too should be better this weekend, thanks to the chilly temperatures.

Nats Offer To Lease Park In Chattanooga

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—Calvin Griffith, president of the Washington Senators, has offered to lease the Chattanooga Lookouts ball park to local interests for $1 a year and permit them to operate the Southern Assn. club. Chances of such a deal materializing, however, were called doubtful Friday.

The News-Free Press, in an article by baseball writer Allan Morris, said the offer may be too late.

League directors have given Lookout President Joe Engel until the annual minor league meetings, starting Sunday at St. Petersburg, Fla., to say whether the club can be operated next year.

Griffith Friday—in a letter to Engel—reiterated his stand that Washington will not operate the Class AA Lookouts next year.

The Lookouts, the ball park and the franchise were put up for sale by Griffith at the end of the past season. Dwindling attendance was blamed for the move.

Southern Cal Meets Irish At South Bend

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Southern California, ranked seventh nationally seeks its first victory at Notre Dame since 1939 Saturday as both teams end their 1959 football season.

The Trojans, licked six straight times at South Bend, will try to bounce back from a 10-3 upset by UCLA last week. It was their first loss of the season, ending a string of victories over Oregon State, Pittsburgh, Ohio State, Washington, Stanford, California, West Virginia and Baylor.

The Irish will be striving to break even for the campaign, Coach Joe Kuharich's first season at his alma mater. His team has beaten North Calolina, California, Navy and Iowa and lost to Purdue, Michigan State, Northwestern, Georgia Tech and Pittsburgh.

Notre Dame had one of its finest games last week with a 20-19 upset of Iowa. It was the first time since before the start of the season that quarterback George Izo recovered sufficiently enough from an ankle injury to play all the way. He pitched three touchdown passes, hitting on 14 out of 25 attempts for 295 yards.

The Trojans, powered by a line that includes Marlin McKeever at end, his brother, Mike, at guard, and Dan Ficca at tackle, are rated the best USC team in many years and are favored to bet the Irish.

Indians Take 59-36 Verdict Over A&M

MONTICELLO, Ark. (Special) — Northeast, behind the sharpshooting of Fred Bradley and Lannie Johnson, erased a three-point deficit and rebounded to whip Arkansas A&M, 59-36, in a pre-season practice contest here last night.

It was the second straight scrimmage win for Coach Lenny Fant's Redskins over the Arkansas quint. The Tribe took a 66-45 decision earlier in the week.

Bradley, a returning letterman, paced the winning attack with 15 points on seven field goals and a charity toss. Johnson, a Monroyan, followed with 11. John Ferrister was tops for the losers with 15 points.

KEEN RIVALS

Bowl Scouts To See Atlanta Tilt

By MERCER BAILEY

ATLANTA (AP) — Representatives of four bowls have reserved seats for Saturday's big football game between Southeastern Conference champion Georgia and Georgia Tech.

Officials of the Orange, Gator, Bluebonnet and Liberty bowls are among the 44,000-plus ticket holders for the annual regular season windup between these two keen rivals.

Georgia, ranked sixth nationally, carries an 8-1 won-lost record into the contest. Tech, which dropped out of the national rankings after losing to Alabama, has won six and lost three.

The game, to be played on Tech's home field, is rated a toss-up. There is talk in informed circles that both teams are likely to receive bowl bids if the game is as close as the oddsmakers figure it, regardless of which team wins.

An 8-2 record should qualify Georgia since the Bulldogs are the SEC champs. Tech's past bowl record—eight victories without a loss under Coach Bubby Dodd—is in its favor, along with the closeness of Tech's three losses. Auburn beat Tech by 1 point, 'Bama by 2 and Duke by 3.

Both Dodd and Georgia Coach Wally Butts agree it probably will be a tight game.

"I look for a close score with no more than a touchdown and probably only points separating the two teams," said Dodd, whose teams have lost to Georgia the last two years.

Tech's stock improved slightly late in the week when quarterback Fred Braselton began passing with more ease and accuracy. Braselton, the Yellow Jackets' top offensive operator, missed the Alabama and Notre Dame games with an injured shoulder and arm. Lingering soreness in the joints has prevented him from returning to peak form but Dodd said he looked much better in a Thanksgiving morning drill.

Georgia, a big surprise this season, is in top shape. Quarterback Francis Tarkenton, the SEC's leading passer, is expected to try to capitalize on Tech's spotty aerial defense. The Bulldog ground attack features halfbacks Bobby Walden and Fred Brown and fullbacks Bill Godfrey and Don Soberdash.

Tech has more dangerous runners available than at any time since the second game of the season. Halfbacks Floyd Faucette and Billy Williamshon, who have carried most of the load, will be backed up by speedster Chick Graning, Frank Nix and little Kenny Thompson, plus fullbacks Taz Anderson and Ben Smith.

Va. Tech's Pugh Heads All-Southern

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Alger Pugh of Virginia Tech, the slippery halfback who led the Southern Conference in rushing and scoring, Friday was named captain of the 1959 all-conference team.

The captaincy annually goes to the player who leads the voting in balloting for the honor team conducted by The Associated Press.

Pugh's popularity with coaches, newsmen and radio-TV sportscasters who helped The AP select its team was understandable. The 5-11, 179-pound Tech senior from Fredericksburg, Va., ran for 615 yards and passed for 244 yards, stacking up a total offense of 859 yards.

In addition, he scored 11 touchdowns for a conference-leading 66 points.

Even so, Pugh was a narrow victor in the voting over two other players—ends Carroll Dale of Virginia Tech and Paul Maguire of The Citadel. Dale had been the captain of the 1959 honor squad.

The complete All-Southern.

Ends—Dale and Maguire.

Tackles—Mike Lashley, William and Mary, and Pat Lamberti, Richmond.

Guards—Bill Lopasky, West Virginia, and Mike Zeno, Virginia Tech.

Center—Ron De Melfi, George Washington.

Backs — Howard Dyer, VMI; David Ames, Richmond; Sam Horner, VMI, and Pugh.

49ers Taper Off For Scrap With Browns

WASHINGTON (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers ran through a final light workout Friday before taking off for Cleveland and their National Football League game with the Browns on Sunday.

It will be the first meeting of the two old playmates from the All-America Conference since 1955 when Cleveland won 38-3.

The 49ers are banking on slim John Brodie to break their two-game losing streak and keep them at least tied for the lead in the Western Conference.

The former Stanford passing star, filling in for the injured Y. A. Tittle, has been running the team during the week's workouts at Georgetown University. His coaches say they're not worried about his ability to do the job.

Cleveland is the solid pick, however. The 49ers came East with a 6-1 record and sole ownership of the conference lead. But successive setbacks to the Chicago Bears and Baltimore Colts have dropped them into a tie with the Colts.

The 49er squad will fly to Cleveland Saturday afternoon, and will head for San Francisco right after Sunday's game.

'MUST' GAME

Browns, Frisco In NFL Feature

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The San Francisco 49ers, who hit the road and found it a road to ruin, limp into Cleveland's Municipal Stadium Sunday to face the Browns. It figures to be a bust-up game for the loser's title hopes in the National Football League.

San Francisco was the surprise club of the season just three weeks ago, riding a four-game streak for a 6-1 record as the 49ers rolled east. But they now have lost two straight—14-3 at Chicago against the Bears and 45-14 at Baltimore, a loss that cost them quarterback Y. A. Tittle and left them tied with the Colts for the Western Conference lead.

The 49ers and Colts, defending NFL champs, have 6-3 records with three to play. That means Baltimore could cinch the Western title at San Francisco next week if the Colts can couple a victory over Los Angeles with a San Francisco defeat Sunday. The Colts are 9½-point favorites over the tailend Rams (2-7) at Baltimore.

Cleveland, tied with Philadelphia for second place in the Eastern race after last weekend's 21-20 upset by Pittsburgh, is a 10-point favorite over San Francisco. The Browns and Eagles have 6-3 records and trail the New York Giants (7-2) by a game.

Philadelphia plays at Pittsburgh, with the Steelers (4-4-1) favored by 4. The Giants are at home against Washington (3-6) and are 110-point favorites over the Redskins.

The Bears (5-4) and Chicago Cardinals (2-7) stage another meeting in their anything-can-happen city series in the only other game scheduled. The Bears are favored by 7.

Green Bay (5-5) and the Detroit Lions (2-7-1) are idle after the Packers won their Thanksgiving Day game 24-17.

With Tittle out of action because of a knee injury, the 49ers have to go with seldom-used John Brodie at quarter against Cleveland's bruising Jimmy Brown, fleet Bobby Mitchell and passer Milt Plum. Brown, the NFL's leading rushing for each of his three seasons as a pro, has powered for 1.013 yards—a 112-plus average.

Dickie Moegle, whose pro experience has been picked up with the 49ers' defensive unit, will back up Brodie as San Francisco's No. 2 quarterback.

The Colts will be shooting for their third in a row since losing at Cleveland and Washington on consecutive weeks, while the Rams have dropped five straight. Quarterback Johnny Unitas has extended his consecutive game record for touchdown passes to 34. His 24 TD tosses are just five shy of cracking the record set by Sid Luckman for the Bears in 1943.

Quarterback Chuck Conerly, who pitched the Giants free of a Cardinal rally last week, is healed and healthy for Conerly Day and the Skins in New York. The Giants who have a showdown with Cleveland next week, voted to hold a Thanksgiving Day workout, passing up a day off in their shot for a second straight Eastern crown and third in four years.

OLE MISS HEAVY FAVORITE

Sugar Bowl-Bound Rebels Take On State In Finale

STARKVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Mississippi's mighty Rebels wind up their football season Saturday against oft-beaten old rival Mississippi State. And with a Rebel victory goes a certain invitation to the Sugar Bowl game in New Orleans on New Year's Day.

Anything short of a Rebel landslide would be surprising. Oddsmakers have the Rebels favored by a strong four-touchdown margin. Mississippi has tasted defeat only once in nine games while a 5.4 yard average.

Mississippi State's best offensive weapons are its quarterbacks, Billy Hill and Billy Tohill. Neither rank among the conference leaders, but the Mississippi State offense is seriously hampered by a lack of experience. State's sophomore - laden club, however, figures to be a conference threat in a year or two.

The Rebel-Maroon rivalry dates back to 1901. Ole Miss leads with 27 victories to State's 24. Four games have ended in ties.

State shows only two victories — both over minor league opponents —in nine outings.

The bid to the Sugar Bowl game is a mere formality. Louisiana State, the only team to whip Mississippi in the regular season, accepted an invitation earlier this week and reports are that Mississippi was approached by the Sugar Bowl — unofficially — some time ago.

LSU edged the Rebels 7-3 in one of the season's great games last month. All-America halfback touchdown run on a punt return Billy Cannon's incredible 89-yard touchdown run on a punt return proved the difference. But the game was so close that pressure has been great for weeks for the rematch.

Logically, such a game would be the best the Sugar Bowl could obtain. Mississippi ranked second in this week's Associated Press Poll while LSU held the No. 3 spot.

But back to the task the Rebels face tomorrow.

Mississippi's offense is built around the talents of quarterback Jake Gibbs and fullback Charlie Flowers. Gibbs leads the Southeastern Conference in total offense with 595 yards gained passing and 166 rushing. And he ranks only behind Georgia's Francis Tarkenton in the passing department.

Flowers, the Rebels' best bet for all-America honors, is the leading ground gainer in the SEC with 675 yards on 125 attempts for

'Frisco Cage Coach Takes Year's Leave

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Phil Woolpert, who coached the University of San Francisco to two NCAA basketball championships, Friday took a year's leave of absence for health reasons.

Friends doubted he ever would return to coaching. A clue was that he also took leave from his post as athletic director.

Ross Giudice was named head coach for one year. He has been USF freshman coach and Woolpert's assistant with the varsity nine years.

Woolpert said he requested leave because of a recent back injury and "the effects and rigors of coaching upon my health." He said he has no idea what he may do. "My plans are indefinite," he added.

Make-Up Master Warns Against Masking Face

By MARGUERITE DAVIS
United Press International

CHICAGO (UPI) — Make-up should "interpret" a woman's face, not mask it, says one expert.

Syd Simon, who teaches the gentle sex how to apply cosmetics for the best results, said make-up should "bring the features of the face into balance."

His pupils are taught to highlight and shadow the face, to make the most of good points and minimize the un-attractive ones.

Simon offers two courses in make-up. One instructs the woman in how to pretty-up for daytime or informal occasions. The second includes coaching on how to achieve a more exotic appearance for evenings.

The beauty needs which Simon said should be found in every woman's dresser are:

—Cleansing tissue and cotton-tipped sticks.

—Cleansing cream or lotion, moisture cream, lubricating cream for very dry skin, and freshener for oily skin only.

—Foundation cream or lotion, powder, cream rouge, "two or three eyeshadows because this should match the lady's dress," three lipsticks in blue, clear and yellow reds, blue and black mascara, and a soft lead pencil in lieu of an eyebrown pencil.

Simon can work almost any magic with make-up. He has camouflaged black eyes and birthmarks.

He turned down one prospective customer, however, a young man who asked to be made up to look like someone else, "just anyone else." Suspicious, Simon pressed the caller on why he wanted to shed his identity, and finally drew the confession that he planned to stage a hold-up.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

The Mother Of Twins Gives Good Advice

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

I am sure this letter will be welcomed by mothers of small children who are hard put to entertain them. Mrs. R.K. writes, "Dear Mrs. Eldred: On behalf of mothers of pre-school children I want to tell you how I have managed 3 year-old twins satisfactorily.

"All tots like water. My boys are allowed to do their breakfast dishes while still dressed in their pajamas. They are changed to dry clothes immediately afterwards.

"When they are dressed and bundled up I send them out to empty the wastebaskets. They spend as much time playing outdoors as the weather permits.

"They sleep in trundle beds. This makes it possible for their sleeping room to double as a playroom. Also they get climbing experience as the bed had a ladder, and by pulling the lower one part way out, it makes a step. The spreads are denim which withstand hard usage. They get it.

"Toys"

"A plastic clothes basket substitutes for a toy chest and is much cheaper. They have tubes made of heavy cardboard that curtain rods come in, to use as whips for their rocking horse. They have a xylophone toy to be struck with wooden mallets.

"For quite play they have scrap books and boxes of crayons. Each box is identified and I do not allow one child to accept a torn book or broken box if the other child is responsible Crayons go out of reach when not in use.

"Painting with water on newspaper holds these twins' attention for long periods. They wear aprons and sit at the kitchen table. The demands for more paper are endless and they get dirty but it all washes off.

One's Permissive

"May I say that in any set of twins one is apt to be permissive, letting the other talk, think and act for him. The first step in helping such a child is to encourage him to talk and make the other be quiet.

"The second step is to insist that he make decisions which he might prefer to leave to his brother. I am happy to say my submissive twin is now becoming as noisy and hard to get along with as his brother. I must admit I miss the little boy who never made any trouble."

How nice this is and I hope mothers with two or three small children will make use of some of your wise suggestions.

Our 10-cent booklet "Introducing the Arts to your Child" has something to say about scrap books and crayons. Send 10 cents and a stamped, self-adressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS . . . Children carry the Christmas message this year on many greeting cards of the American Artists Group, Designers and Illustrators and Tasha Tudor collections. Pictured are representative cards from all three groups, as each artist interprets in his own way the importance of children in the Christmas traditions: children at home on Christmas Eve, children of all nations dancing around the Christmas tree, small carol singers on a city street, the procession of choir boys, farm children with a special tree for their pets, and children in church.

YOUR PROBLEMS

Take Friends Along To To Meet Pen Pal

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: Do you believe in fate? Well I do—now. That letter in your column on whether or not a young man should be forced to marry a girl appeared just in time to decide a crushing problem for us. Now, we feel we're doing exactly the right thing.

Your words "an unwilling groom makes a poor husband" made a lot of sense. When we showed it to our daughter she said "Ann's right. I know in my heart Nick doesn't want to marry me. That settles it."

You'll never know what a favor you did us, Ann Landers. For the first time in months there is peace and contentment in our home. The baby will be put up for adoption through an agency and our daughter will start life over in another city. God Bless You. — GRATEFUL FOLKS

Dear Ann Landers: Are you teched in the head or what? How can you advise a young girl to have a baby out of wedlock?

Whether or not the parents are madly in love is of little importance when a baby is on the way. Your advice in this case stank.

—ALABAMA READER

Dear Ann: Good for you. I had a shotgun wedding and I've wished a million times since that the gun had been pointed at me, not him, and that someone had pulled the trigger.

I knew Jack didn't want to marry me but my parents insisted. My mother kept harping "Every child is entitled to a name. Nothing else counts now."

I was only 17, a nervous little girl, ignorant and scared. I thought mama knew best. Besides I had brought so much shame on the family I couldn't hold up my head —much less give them an argument.

I've been miserable for 10 long years. I know now I would have been much better off to face the situation alone. Jack has never been a husband or a father and I'm going it alone anyway.

—ANNA

Dear Ann Landers: You ought to be tarred and feathered. The idea, advising an expectant mother not to marry! After I read the advice I got my bifocals out to make sure my eyes hadn't played tricks on me.

Romantic love is just a lot of nonsense anyway. No matter what people get married for, the romance doesn't last beyond a few months at best. As one wit put it "Marriage is the Keeley cure for the intoxication known as love." So, they might as well get married to give a child a legal name. It's a better reason than most. — X-PERT SAL

Dear Ann: I was one of those foolish girls who let my folks push me into marriage because I was in a family way at 17. My boy friend told me if he was forced to marry he'd make me sorry. He's kept his word.

He has told our son who is now 9 that he had to marry me and has warned the boy against getting mixed up with women like his mother. The poor child is too young to know what he's talking about but he'll know someday. I've had to work since the boy was 5 weeks old because my husband says "his money belongs to him." Divorce is against our religion. My life is ruined and I'm only 25.

Your advice is excellent but it came too late for me. — MISERABLE

Confidential to all who wrote on this subject: The mail has been running 35 to 1 in favor of NOT forcing a marriage. Every one who wrote has had first-hand experience. Thank you all for letting me know how it looks from inside the lodge. Your letters are deeply appreciated. — ANN LANDERS

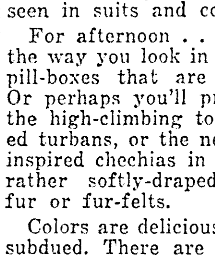
Hat Chat

BY HATTIE MOORE

This is the year when you'll really go wild over hats. Thanks to those understanding milliners, hats, hair and ready-to-wear have entered a triple alliance that will make you more hat-minded than you've been in years.

Rosalind Russell, voted the "best hatted woman in America," says, "The new hats will truly go to your head and turn the heads of the men in your direction. You'll want a whole wardrobe of them.

If you once thought of one or two little hats to go with almost everything, you'll get over this outmoded idea fast once you see the variety of styles, fabrics and colors."



Rosalind Russell
"I love hats"

We are in complete accord with Miss Russell. When you see how much the new hats do for you . . . what a different personality you are in each, you'll want to buy every new type you try. Begin with your suit hat since that's the first new outfit you'll wear in the Fall. You have a choice of pixie types, or derbies, homburgs and fedoras — but with such a feminine look you'll forget they were borrowed from the men. Very femme fatale are the ones with eye shadowing brims.

These, along with the Garbo-type slouches and high-crown cloches, are the perfect complement with the new tie-belted wrap and coachmen coats . . . and the longer belted jackets seen in suits and costumes.

For afternoon . . . you'll love the way you look in the new tall pill-boxes that are so elegant. Or perhaps you'll prefer one of the high-climbing toques, spiraled turbans, or the new, Russian-inspired chechias in tall, stiff or rather softly-draped types; in fur or fur-felts.

Colors are delicious, even when subdued. There are two schools of thought . . . one to blend your hat with your costume, such as gold, moss green, coffee, cocoa beiges and grays with clothes of matching tonality.

The other idea is to liven black, gray and all those subtle, smoky tones with white, beige or vibrant reds, purples, royal blues and turquoise. This is certainly the season to be hat-happy with every costume, on every occasion.

College Policy Change Leaves Will In Uproar

MONTPELIER, Vt. (UPI) — Boys will be boys, but it's costing some of them in this state a college education.

On Sept. 4, 1950, Mrs. Blanche E. Brockway left $30,000 in trust to "help some worthy Vermont-born boy unable to attend Vermont Junior College because of insufficient funds."

In 1951, the college accepted its last male student and became the Vermont College for Girls.

Now the college has petitioned the state attorney general to have the will modified so it can get the money.

But Attorney General Frederick Reed said the intent of the will should be maintained and the money should be used for Vermont boys to study at another college.

The case has gone to a chancery court for decision.

The Mother Of Twins Gives Good Advice

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

I am sure this letter will be welcomed by mothers of small children who are hard put to entertain them. Mrs. R.K. writes, "Dear Mrs. Eldred: On behalf of mothers of pre-school children I want to tell you how I have managed 3 year-old twins satisfactorily.

"All tots like water. My boys are allowed to do their breakfast dishes while still dressed in their pajamas. They are changed to dry clothes immediately afterwards.

"When they are dressed and bundled up I send them out to empty the wastebaskets. They spend as much time playing outdoors as the weather permits.

"They sleep in trundle beds. This makes it possible for their sleeping room to double as a playroom. Also they get climbing experience as the bed had a ladder, and by pulling the lower one part way out, it makes a step. The spreads are denim which withstand hard usage. They get it.

"Toys"

"A plastic clothes basket substitutes for a toy chest and is much cheaper. They have tubes made of heavy cardboard that curtain rods come in, to use as whips for their rocking horse. They have a xylophone toy to be struck with wooden mallets.

"For quite play they have scrap books and boxes of crayons. Each box is identified and I do not allow one child to accept a torn book or broken box if the other child is responsible Crayons go out of reach when not in use.

"Painting with water on newspaper holds these twins' attention for long periods. They wear aprons and sit at the kitchen table. The demands for more paper are endless and they get dirty but it all washes off.

One's Permissive

"May I say that in any set of twins one is apt to be permissive, letting the other talk, think and act for him. The first step in helping such a child is to encourage him to talk and make the other be quiet.

"The second step is to insist that he make decisions which he might prefer to leave to his brother. I am happy to say my submissive twin is now becoming as noisy and hard to get along with as his brother. I must admit I miss the little boy who never made any trouble."

How nice this is and I hope mothers with two or three small children will make use of some of your wise suggestions.

Our 10-cent booklet "Introducing the Arts to your Child" has something to say about scrap books and crayons. Send 10 cents and a stamped, self-adressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Mother and Daughter Are Champion Jewelers

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Your engagement ring should be just as modern in design as your refrigerator or your electric range, says Mary Schimpff, of Bloomington, Ill., a four - time winner of Diamonds - U. S. A. and the Diamonds - International Awards.

Mary is the junior partner in a mother - daughter jewelry firm which has attained international renown. This year she was one of 24 jewelers from seven countries honored by the awards given annually for excellence of design in diamonds. She has won previous honors in 1955, 1956 and 1958. Says she:

"I got interested in jewelry design while I was studying art in St. Louis. During one summer vacation my mother and I made some jewelry on a work bench in our greenhouse, and didn't realize we were starting a business. Every piece we made that first summer was sold, and after that we started jewelry design in earnest."

Mary and her mother, Mrs. Frances Schimpff, started their business after the death of her father. Mrs. Schimpff had studied art and had worked in the fashion business in and around St. Louis for a number of years. Mother and daughter decided to go into the jewelry business in their home town about 10 years ago. Since that time Mary has won a number of "Young Americans" craftsmen awards in addition to the Diamond Awards, and has had her jewelry designs included in exhibits shown in museums around the world as a part of the U. S. state department's cultural program. Says she:

"We concentrate in contemporary designs in precious jewelry. We feel that jewelry should be as modern as current fashions in clothing and home decoration. Everything else is modern — cars, appliances, houses — why not jewelry?"

Mary finds the jewelry business fun.

"We always know all about engagements and special anniversaries 'way ahead of time," says she. "It's a good way to keep up with the news."

Mary and her mother work together on most of their orders. Sometimes one works out the original design, sometimes the other. They start by drawing all designs in color, then make paper patterns, much like dress patterns, which they use to cut the metal used in the jewelry. Sometimes they make models in wax and then cast the designs in gold or platinum. The equipment required is simple, says Mary—drawing boards, a jigsaw and a blowtorch.

The Schimpffs have become known for original designs combining diamonds with various other colored stones, such as rubies, sapphires and emeralds. Many of their pieces are moderately priced, such as their winning entry in this year's international competition — a pair of seahorse earrings combining small diamonds and a cultured pearl with red enamel and platinum, priced at less than $500.

Miss Taylor Reported Doing Well

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Elizabeth Taylor, stricken with double virus pneumonia, was reported doing well Friday.

But hospital authorities said they could not predict how long it would take the disease to run its course.

Double pneumonia means both lungs are infected, while virus pneumonia is a primary type, caused by bacteria invading an otherwise healthy person.

"It could last three days, or three weeks, depending on how it develops," said a spokesman for Columbia - Presbyterian Medical Center.

This is in contrast to secondary pneumonia, which develops through complications from some other ailment, and always involves extended bed care.

Miss Taylor entered the center's Harkness Pavilion Thursday, after suffering from a persistent cough for two weeks.

"She was and is regarded by her doctor as being in good condition," a hospital spokesman said.

He skipped one show Thursday night to be at her side, and took a room at the hospital near hers. However, a spokesman said he would continue his engagement, and give his scheduled two shows Friday night.

Another entertainer, singer Judy Garland, recovering from a liver ailment, was reported "coming along well" at Doctor's Hospital.

How To Keep Well

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Telephone inquirics not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

HERNIA REPAIR IN TOTS

Children recover rapidly from operations and it is advisable to have certain defects corrected early in life. The 6 month old infant with a hernia in the right groin is a good example. Surgery was done on Tuesday morning and the parents were surprised on Wednesday when told they could take the child home. I dropped in on the family on Friday and the tot was crawling about the floor, having a gay time.

This quick recovery after surgery for hernia is unheard of among adults and demonstrates the ease with which children withstand surgical repair of this defect. The youngster is too young to know what happened and will not become emotionally upset.

Surgery for hernia is safe in infancy and offers a minimum of risk. The surgeon must be skilled, however, in handling the tissues of children, as the parts are small and underdeveloped. On the other hand, their tissues are in good condition, which offers the best chance for permanent cure.

When a hernia was detected in a child 40 years ago, the parents were advised to buy a truss and await future developments, as physicians realized that spontaneous healing occurred now and then. Operation was suggested when the hernia persisted.

Inguinal hernia is the most common defect of this nature. Before birth it is the normal sequence of events for the male glands to descend from the lower abdomen to the outside. The blood vessels and spermatic cord remain attached and descend along with the testes.

The abdominal wall in the groin is weakened by this process unless the opening thru which the testes descended is blocked off completely. The body does a poor job, considering the number of men with hernia. Swelling is noted in the infant where the wall is weakest; it is noted later in life following strain or after a period of inactivity that weakens the abdominal wall.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

HEART STOPS BEATING

P. W. E. writes: A relative in another state died and I wrote to the coroner asking the cause of death. The answer came back: Cardiac arrest. I don't mean to be flippant but isn't this what always occurs at death? It doesn't seem to me to be an adequate answer.

REPLY

You are correct, altho the term is used occasionally when the heart stops for no apparent reason, such as during an operation or after an electric shock. Most death certificates include additional information. Many coroners are not physicians and someone in the office may have sent you the first diagnosis noted on the certificate.

AFRAID TO GO OUT

J. F. writes: I have a horrible fear of going outside. I phoned a few psychiatrists but they won't make house calls. Is there any way I can cure myself?

REPLY

Yes, but it will take strong faith in God who said "Fear not, for I am with thee."

HAMMER-TOE

W. F. writes: What causes hammer-toe?

REPLY

Some individuals are born with a foot in which one toe is clawed like the head of a hammer. In others, the second, third, or fourth toe of one or both feet is bent at right angles thru prolonged wearing of short shoes.

HIATAL HERNIA

Mrs. L. writes: Is surgery necessary for hiatal hernia?

REPLY

Not if symptoms are present which can be relieved with conservative measures. Send a stamped, self-adressed envelope for our leaflet on hernia.

Test Program For Cranberries Slowing Down

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Government inspectors have stopped testing cranberries on an emergency, round-the - clock schedule now that Thanksgiving is past, an official said Friday.

J. K. Kirk, assistant to the commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), said the testing program still has "high priority," but that FDA inspectors have been put back on normal work shifts. He said they were "wearing out" under the emergency schedule.

The FDA has not yet reached a final decision on what to do with the 250,000 pounds of cranberries it has impounded so far. But in all likelihood the berries, found to be contaminated with a chemical weed killer which causes cancer in rats, will be buried.

CLOTHES Make Your Man

By Harry Juster

DEAR MR. JUSTER: Why does a man in his sixties try to dress like a college boy? My husband insists on wearing tweeds, button down shirts, bow ties and pork-pie hats. He laughs and won't pay any attention when I tell him I think that a man of his age should have a little more dignity.

Mrs. G.R.F.

Can't a man be debonair and dignified at the same time? I'm not recommending that an older man should blossom forth in bizarre colors and styles. However, I can't agree on setting an age limit on wearing clothes that have a little zest, providing they're properly coordinated. As long as he acts his age, he doesn't have to look it.

DEAR MR. JUSTER: What's happened to the full cut suits? All I see and hear about is the trim look. I notice that you're constantly referring to Ivy and Continental models. I like wide shoulder, full-chested coats and roomy pants. As far as I'm concerned nothing's as comfortable.

Comfort's a matter of design. Your suit needn't resemble a sack to give you ease. Coats with thick padded shoulders, extra inches of cloth under the arms and balloon size trousers are superfluous. Proper fullness across the back and chest is the key to comfort. This feature is incorporated into the current trim styling that makes most of us look taller and slimmer. Try it. See if you don't agree.

DEAR MR. JUSTER: After spending hours carefully ironing my husband's shirts, it kills me to see the way he manhandles them. No amount of fussing and fuming will change the way he puts on his tie. He buttons the collar and turns it up. Next, he ties his tie and then turns the collar back . . . all wrinkled. What's the secret to avoid messing a perfectly ironed collar?

Mrs. K.

The secret is three little words —button collar last. Tell him to slip the tie under the turned down collar and knot it. Then button up and tighten knot in place. This simple method will prevent any further wrangling and wrinkling.

DEAR MR. JUSTER: My wife of four months maintains that washing sweaters ruins them. As a college student on the G.I. Bill who wears a lot of sweaters, I find the cleaning costs pretty steep. Isn't there some safe way to wash them?

G.I.

What are you wearing, delicate cashmeres? Today the selection of washable sweaters is practically unlimited. There are handsome knits of every description and style made of man-made fibers or of specially processed wools that take to washing like a duck to water. There's no need for your cleaning bill to exceed the cost of soap flakes.

TIP FOR THE DAY

No coffee breaks, no time out for lunch for your clothes. They put in eight hours—and more—a day. Just as you, they need care and rest. Caress them with periodic brushings, put them to bed gently and give frequent days off. You'll be repaid by their working longer for you and not showing their age.

Questions and Answers Guide For Homemakers

By BETTY PEPIS

Q. — We plan to move into our new home very soon and I would like some advice as to wall covering, draperies and a dining room rug. Living room couch is dark brown and club chairs are tan. Living room rug is aqua. Dining room is right off the living room in an ell and I would like walls of the two rooms the same color since there is no divider.

A. — Paint walls aqua, paler than the living room rug. Get an aqua background print for the draperies, preferably with some brown in it. A brown rug for your dining room could be the shape of your dining room table and would look purposeful rather than accidental. Repeat print on dining chairs if possible.

Q. — We just bought an old house that has oak trim in the living and dining rooms. We plan to paint the walls white or champagne and get wall-to-wall carpeting of sandlewood or beige. Have you any suggestionsz

A. — If you would like to make your old house look more modern, I would paint the walls to match the oak which I assume is in the natural gray-beige shade, rather than in an unrelated neutral like champagne. The rug, then, might be in a bright contrasting color like emerald green, cherry red or orange.

Q. — I am planning on redecorating my home. I would like to get maple furniture for the living room. My daughter bought my husband a desk in maple and now I would like to buy end tables and a coffee table. Both my girls say that the two end tables have to match, while I feel that they do not have to match. There are so many useful and attractive tables in maple that I feel the two end tables can be quite different.

A. — You are right. Your daughters are wrong. Unmatched tables are much more acceptable as good decorating today. In some well - decorated rooms I have seen lately even the wood has been different. In a French style bedroom, for example, a decorator used a walnut end table at one side of the oversized bed and a small painted desk in place of a bedside table on the other side. Mixing rather than matching is the best rule in decorating today.

Q. — I have a nice sized bathroom. The tile is white with a black border on top and bottom. The floor tiles are black and white and the fixtures all white. What colors would I use for walls, windows and shower curtainsz I prefer paint to wallpaper.

A. — Your all - white scheme with touches of black leaves you free to either select your favorite color or be guided by the color scheme of the adjoining room. At any rate avoid pallid pastels and go for some bright color like a hot pink or true lemon yellow, using the bright color on your walls and for shower curtain. Paint ceiling white and have pure white curtains.

Mother and Daughter Are Champion Jewelers

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Your engagement ring should be just as modern in design as your refrigerator or your electric range, says Mary Schimpff, of Bloomington, Ill., a four - time winner of Diamonds - U. S. A. and the Diamonds - International Awards.

Mary is the junior partner in a mother - daughter jewelry firm which has attained international renown. This year she was one of 24 jewelers from seven countries honored by the awards given annually for excellence of design in diamonds. She has won previous honors in 1955, 1956 and 1958. Says she:

"I got interested in jewelry design while I was studying art in St. Louis. During one summer vacation my mother and I made some jewelry on a work bench in our greenhouse, and didn't realize we were starting a business. Every piece we made that first summer was sold, and after that we started jewelry design in earnest."

Mary and her mother, Mrs. Frances Schimpff, started their business after the death of her father. Mrs. Schimpff had studied art and had worked in the fashion business in and around St. Louis for a number of years. Mother and daughter decided to go into the jewelry business in their home town about 10 years ago. Since that time Mary has won a number of "Young Americans" craftsmen awards in addition to the Diamond Awards, and has had her jewelry designs included in exhibits shown in museums around the world as a part of the U. S. state department's cultural program. Says she:

"We concentrate in contemporary designs in precious jewelry. We feel that jewelry should be as modern as current fashions in clothing and home decoration. Everything else is modern — cars, appliances, houses — why not jewelry?"

Mary finds the jewelry business fun.

"We always know all about engagements and special anniversaries 'way ahead of time," says she.. "It's a good way to keep up with the news."

Mary and her mother work together on most of their orders. Sometimes one works out the original design, sometimes the other. They start by drawing all designs in color, then make paper patterns, much like dress patterns, which they use to cut the metal used in the jewelry. Sometimes they make models in wax and then cast the designs in gold or platinum. The equipment required is simple, says Mary—drawing boards, a jigsaw and a blowtorch.

The Schimpffs have become known for original designs combining diamonds with various other colored stones, such as rubies, sapphires and emeralds. Many of their pieces are moderately priced, such as their winning entry in this year's international competition — a pair of seahorse earrings combining small diamonds and a cultured pearl with red enamel and platinum, priced at less than $500.

Miss Taylor Reported Doing Well

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Elizabeth Taylor, stricken with double virus pneumonia, was reported doing well Friday.

But hospital authorities said they could not predict how long it would take the disease to run its course.

Double pneumonia means both lungs are infected, while virus pneumonia is a primary type, caused by bacteria invading an otherwise healthy person.

"It could last three days, or three weeks, depending on how it develops," said a spokesman for Columbia - Presbyterian Medical Center.

This is in contrast to secondary pneumonia, which develops through complications from some other ailment, and always involves extended bed care.

Miss Taylor entered the center's Harkness Pavilion Thursday, after suffering from a persistent cough for two weeks.

"She was and is regarded by her doctor as being in good condition," a hospital spokesman said.

He skipped one show Thursday night to be at her side, and took a room at the hospital near hers. However, a spokesman said he would continue his engagement, and give his scheduled two shows Friday night.

Another entertainer, singer Judy Garland, recovering from a liver ailment, was reported "coming along well" at Doctor's Hospital.

Returns Home

WASHINGTON (UPI) — David Hearne, 21-year-old playboy son of Irish Ambassador John J. Hearne, has returned to Ireland, a spokesman for the Irish Embassy said Friday.

The spokesman said that young Hearne, who has been involved in frequent scrapes with police, left for Dublin by plane Wednesday. Newsmen were informed earlier this week that David would be present at a family Thanksgiving dinner.

Questions and Answers Guide For Homemakers

By BETTY PEPIS

Q. — We plan to move into our new home very soon and I would like some advice as to wall covering, draperies and a dining room rug. Living room couch is dark brown and club chairs are tan. Living room rug is aqua. Dining room is right off the living room in an ell and I would like walls of the two rooms the same color since there is no divider.

A. — Paint walls aqua, paler than the living room rug. Get an aqua background print for the draperies, preferably with some brown in it. A brown rug for your dining room could be the shape of your dining room table and would look purposeful rather than accidental. Repeat print on dining chairs if possible.

Q. — We just bought an old house that has oak trim in the living and dining rooms. We plan to paint the walls white or champagne and get wall-to-wall carpeting of sandlewood or beige. Have you any suggestionsz

A. — If you would like to make your old house look more modern, I would paint the walls to match the oak which I assume is in the natural gray-beige shade, rather than in an unrelated neutral like champagne. The rug, then, might be in a bright contrasting color like emerald green, cherry red or orange.

Q. — I am planning on redecorating my home. I would like to get maple furniture for the living room. My daughter bought my husband a desk in maple and now I would like to buy end tables and a coffee table. Both my girls say that the two end tables have to match, while I feel that they do not have to match. There are so many useful and attractive tables in maple that I feel the two end tables can be quite different.

A. — You are right. Your daughters are wrong. Unmatched tables are much more acceptable as good decorating today. In some well - decorated rooms I have seen lately even the wood has been different. In a French style bedroom, for example, a decorator used a walnut end table at one side of the oversized bed and a small painted desk in place of a bedside table on the other side. Mixing rather than matching is the best rule in decorating today.

Q. — I have a nice sized bathroom. The tile is white with a black border on top and bottom. The floor tiles are black and white and the fixtures all white. What colors would I use for walls, windows and shower curtainsz I prefer paint to wallpaper.

A. — Your all - white scheme with touches of black leaves you free to either select your favorite color or be guided by the color scheme of the adjoining room. At any rate avoid pallid pastels and go for some bright color like a hot pink or true lemon yellow, using the bright color on your walls and for shower curtain. Paint ceiling white and have pure white curtains.

Steel Union Suggestion Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Commerce Department Friday rejected a suggestion by the United Steelworkers Union that steel be stockpiled for defense use if the industry strike is resumed after a Taft-Hartley law injunction expires Jan. 26.

The action came as representatives of the industry and union agreed to resume peace talks in the long dispute here next Tuesday.

Philip A. Ray, acting secretary of commerce, indirectly accused the union of trying to shift to the government the responsibility for any defense lags which might result if the walkout is resumed.

In a letter to Arthur J. Goldberg, the union's general counsel, Ray said stockpiling would not assure steel for defense requirements.

"Only continued production of steel in all its phases can supply the real needs of defense," Ray said.

Goldberg wrote Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller a week ago suggesting that the government should stockpile steel.

"While I have not abandoned hope that a settlement in steel will be reached before the 80-day injunction expires. . . . I must advise you in all candor that at the present writing no settlement is in prospect," he said.

Ray, in reply, said, "I am sure you do not intend to leave the impression that you and the parties who you represent are not making every conceivable effort to bring about a settlement at the bargaining table which will truly reflect the public interest."

Grain Futures Weakened By Steady Selling

CHICAGO (AP) — Light, steady selling weakened grain futures prices Friday and the market closed with only one small plus sign in the entire list. Most of the losses, though, were small.

The selling, as often happens, appeared to reflect an absence of any significant bullish factors to develop over the Thanksgiving holiday rather than any particularly bearish influences.

Flour millers and other domestic grain processors apparently were out of the market for the holiday week and none of the expected export business showed up.

The general steadiness of the market for the most part has been sustained for several days by the meager movement of grains from farms and elevators into commercial channels.

Wheat closed unchanged to ¾ cent a bushel lower, December $1.98⅜-½; corn ⅛-½ lower, December $1.10 - 10⅛; oats unchanged to ¼ lower.

Demand Hike Strengthens Hog Market

CHICAGO (AP) — An improved shipper demand strengthened the butcher hog market Friday and prices were steady to 25 cents higher.

One small lot of sorted No. 1 grade scaling 200 lbs brought $13.60, the highest price of the week and up 10 cents from Wednesday's top. The supply of 8,000 head was off 2,000 from expectations and brought the week's total to 40,000 compared with 54,500 last week.

Mixed No. 1 and 2 and strictly No. 2 grades sold at $13.00-13.50 and the 190 - 220 lb mixed 1 - 3 grades at $12.75 - 13.25. Heavier weights sold down to $12.25 and sows at $9.00-11.00.

The few sales of slaughter steers included some rejected entries from the International Livestock Exposition and these brought $26.00-29.00 with the market mostly steady. A few good and mixed good to choice moved at $24.25 - 25.50. Some offerings carried over from earlier in the week still were unsold.

Vealers and bulls were steady. No heifer sales were reported. Vealers cleared at $23.00-28.00 for standard to good grades and bulls at $17.50-20.00 for utility and commercial.

Wooled good and choice slaughter lambs were strong to 25 cents higher, selling up to $19.50. Ewes moved at $3.00-5.00.

BUSINESS HIGHLIGHTS

United Press International

TO RENEW EFFORTS

As federal mediators prepared to renew their efforts next Tuesday to wrap up a Christmas steel-contract package the industry Friday faced the imminent stoppage of vital ore boats on the Great Lakes.

Cold weather has virtually shut down Great Lakes shipping and the St. Lawrence Seaway locks will not operate after Monday because of possible ice jams.

REDUCE CAR OUTPUT

The holiday and steel shortages combined to reduce car output this week to an estimated 45,554 units compared with 123,088 cars a year ago, according to Ward's reports. However, the statistical agency noted that the industry will have assembled 5,530,500 autos by the end of the year or 30 per cent more than the 1958 production.

TO RECALL 25,000

The Chevrolet Division of General Motors announced it will recall 25,000 workers at 13 plants next Monday and Tuesday. Chevrolet already has recalled more than 5,000 of its workers idled by steel shortages.

PURCHASES CLIMB

The Federal National Mortgage Association reported its purchases of home mortgages continued to climb and sales dropped in the third quarter of this year because of tight-money. FNMA said it acquired 18,590 government-backed mortgages valued at $219,330,000 from lending institutions and mortgage houses in the July-September period.

URGES TAX CUT

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce urged an immediate tax cut for all individuals and corporations to help stabilize the dollar and promote economic growth. The business organization said the revenue loss could be offset by a temporary across-the-board sales tax.

Steel Union Suggestion Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Commerce Department Friday rejected a suggestion by the United Steelworkers Union that steel be stockpiled for defense use if the industry strike is resumed after a Taft-Hartley law injunction expires Jan. 26.

The action came as representatives of the industry and union agreed to resume peace talks in the long dispute here next Tuesday.

Philip A. Ray, acting secretary of commerce, indirectly accused the union of trying to shift to the government the responsibility for any defense lags which might result if the walkout is resumed.

In a letter to Arthur J. Goldberg, the union's general counsel, Ray said stockpiling would not assure steel for defense requirements.

"Only continued production of steel in all its phases can supply the real needs of defense," Ray said.

Goldberg wrote Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller a week ago suggesting that the government should stockpile steel.

"While I have not abandoned hope that a settlement in steel will be reached before the 80-day injunction expires. . . . I must advise you in all candor that at the present writing no settlement is in prospect," he said.

Ray, in reply, said, "I am sure you do not intend to leave the impression that you and the parties who you represent are not making every conceivable effort to bring about a settlement at the bargaining table which will truly reflect the public interest."

Grain Futures Weakened By Steady Selling

CHICAGO (AP) — Light, steady selling weakened grain futures prices Friday and the market closed with only one small plus sign in the entire list. Most of the losses, though, were small.

The selling, as often happens, appeared to reflect an absence of any significant bullish factors to develop over the Thanksgiving holiday rather than any particularly bearish influences.

Flour millers and other domestic grain processors apparently were out of the market for the holiday week and none of the expected export business showed up.

The general steadiness of the market for the most part has been sustained for several days by the meager movement of grains from farms and elevators into commercial channels.

Wheat closed unchanged to ¾ cent a bushel lower, December $1.98⅜-½; corn ⅛-½ lower, December $1.10 - 10⅛; oats unchanged to ¼ lower.

Demand Hike Strengthens Hog Market

CHICAGO (AP) — An improved shipper demand strengthened the butcher hog market Friday and prices were steady to 25 cents higher.

One small lot of sorted No. 1 grade scaling 200 lbs brought $13.60, the highest price of the week and up 10 cents from Wednesday's top. The supply of 8,000 head was off 2,000 from expectations and brought the week's total to 40,000 compared with 54,500 last week.

Mixed No. 1 and 2 and strictly No. 2 grades sold at $13.00-13.50 and the 190 - 220 lb mixed 1 - 3 grades at $12.75 - 13.25. Heavier weights sold down to $12.25 and sows at $9.00-11.00.

The few sales of slaughter steers included some rejected entries from the International Livestock Exposition and these brought $26.00-29.00 with the market mostly steady. A few good and mixed good to choice moved at $24.25 - 25.50. Some offerings carried over from earlier in the week still were unsold.

Vealers and bulls were steady. No heifer sales were reported. Vealers cleared at $23.00-28.00 for standard to good grades and bulls at $17.50-20.00 for utility and commercial.

Wooled good and choice slaughter lambs were strong to 25 cents higher, selling up to $19.50. Ewes moved at $3.00-5.00.

BUSINESS HIGHLIGHTS

United Press International

TO RENEW EFFORTS

As federal mediators prepared to renew their efforts next Tuesday to wrap up a Christmas steel-contract package the industry Friday faced the imminent stoppage of vital ore boats on the Great Lakes.

Cold weather has virtually shut down Great Lakes shipping and the St. Lawrence Seaway locks will not operate after Monday because of possible ice jams.

REDUCE CAR OUTPUT

The holiday and steel shortages combined to reduce car output this week to an estimated 45,554 units compared with 123,088 cars a year ago, according to Ward's reports. However, the statistical agency noted that the industry will have assembled 5,530,500 autos by the end of the year or 30 per cent more than the 1958 production.

TO RECALL 25,000

The Chevrolet Division of General Motors announced it will recall 25,000 workers at 13 plants next Monday and Tuesday. Chevrolet already has recalled more than 5,000 of its workers idled by steel shortages.

PURCHASES CLIMB

The Federal National Mortgage Association reported its purchases of home mortgages continued to climb and sales dropped in the third quarter of this year because of tight-money. FNMA said it acquired 18,590 government-backed mortgages valued at $219,330,000 from lending institutions and mortgage houses in the July-September period.

URGES TAX CUT

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce urged an immediate tax cut for all individuals and corporations to help stabilize the dollar and promote economic growth. The business organization said the revenue loss could be offset by a temporary across-the-board sales tax.

TEAMSTERS CHARGE

Industrialists Giving Help To Insurgent Move

NEW YORK (AP) — International Brotherhood of Teamsters charged Friday that members of the industry have given financial aid to 12 insurgent Teamsters trying to oust union President James R. Hoffa.

The union filed a suit in federal court seeking to nullify an anti-Hoffa court action filed on behalf of the 12 members by attorney Godfrey P. Schmidt.

Schmidt filed a motion in U. S. District Court in Washington nine days ago asking for Hoffa's removal pending trial before a board of special examiners or referees.

The motion accused Hoffa of denying Teamsters members their legal rights and of refusing to cooperate with a court - appointed board of monitors to supervise Teamsters's affairs.

CLAIM

In its counteraction, the union claimed that Schmidt and his 12 clients were working together in a "common scheme and plan" and "aided and abetted by members of industry."

"The now-apparent aim of this scheme was to do disrupt and disorganize the lawful and legitimate operations of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and its subordinate bodies as a labor organization that its internal efficiency as a labor representative for its more than 1,600,000 members would be impeded and obstructed and rendered ineffective," it added.

The union's suit said that money paid to Schmidt and his 12 clients by representatives of industry were paid in New York City.

The union also asked that the court direct Schmidt and his clients to reimburse the union for any money it has had to pay as a result of the suit brought against it.

The suit, charging Schmidt and his clients with "perfidy in joining with, but concealng the aid and financial assistance they received from members of industry," claimed that such payments constitued an unfair labor practice.

Named in the suit as among those giving financial aid were the Brass Rail Restaurants, Howard

Nehru Wins Approval On Border Issue

Says Policy Is To Reach Calm Finale

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru won over-whelming approval Friday of his handling of the border dispute with Red China afted demanding that Parliament back him up or get a new prime minister.

Only one or two noes were heard in the thundering voice vote.

Closing a three-day debate in the lower house on the dispute in which the Red Chinese killed 12 Indian border patrolmen in two incidents Aug. 26 and Oct. 21, Nehru upbraided the Chinese but said his policy is to settle the issue peacefully if possible.

The affair, he said, "could shake the world" but India's plan is to take a calm approach without giving in. For him, he added, this is "one of those peak events of history when the plunge has to be taken in some direction."

DISTINCTION

Drawing a sharp distinction between the Soviet Union and Red China, Nehru declared: "I don't think there is any country in the world today which is more anxious for peace than the Soviet Union. I don't think there is any country in the world today which cares less for peace than China."

He then made this dramatic assertion: "If this house thinks my manner of carrying on in this situation is not adequate then the honorable members are free to choose another prime minister."

"If on balance, this house feels this government and this prime minister have got to face a challenge, then help him, stand by him. Don't criticize him," he said.

Many speakers had demanded stronger action than Nehru's notes to Peiping. Several urged that India send the army to throw out the Chinese.

"I am surprised at the casual

Dying Teacher Merciful

TOKYO (UPI)—Dr. Charles E. Perry, an American missionary, could only return good for evil with his dying breath.

In the brief hour Thursday night between the moment two drunken Japanese college students attacked him with vicious rabbit punches and the moment he died at the home of a Japanse professor, the 51-year-old teacher from Canton, N.Y., gasped to police a Christian testament.

Forgive them, he said: It is enough if only they repent.

Both the police and some of Perry's colleagues at St. Paul's University told his last words for the record. But the law must be served.

HELD

Authorities held Setsuji Morita, 20, and Teruo Yokoyama, 19, for his death, under charges similar to manslaughter in the United States.

Morita was named as the actual assailant. He is an expert in karate, an ancient form of hand fighting in Japan and Okinawa.

Perry, who had served his calling in China, had ben in Japan since 1950, teaching history at St. Paul's. Neither Morita nor Ykoyama were students at the Christian school. They attended Tokyo's Bunka University.

Perry loved Japan, his friends said. He was popular with his students. A "very fine person," his colleagues agreed.

Thursday night, he emerged from his home on the St. Paul campus to investigate a window apparently broken by drunken revellers.

SEN. JOHN McCLELLAN

Senator Sees Industry Gain For District

By DALLAS ROPER
State Editor

RUSTON — U. S. Senator John L. McClellan predicted here last night that Ruston and the entire area would grow in a coming "industrial boom that will sweep the country". Sen. McClellan addressed the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet.

The Arkansas solon predicted that the South — Arkansas and Louisiana in particular — lie in the "direct line of march of the world's greatest economic advance." He urged that the proper political, social and educational climate be prepared to make the area acceptable to industry.

LAUDS RUSTON

And he complimented Ruston for having taken "great strides" in this direction. He said that in the two hours that he had been in the city, he had observed that just such a climate exists here. He also complimented Louisiana Tech.

Sen. McClellan also had things to say in his particular Congressional field — labor and labor racketeering. He has served as chairman of the Senate Rackets Committee which has conducted extensive investigations into labor racketeering.

'ALARMING'

He said that the past session of Congress wrote history when it passed the Landrum-Griffin, labor reform bill. He referred to the legislation as a "victory for laboring people and all citizens," but warned against "becoming complacent over this victory." The senator claimed that labor "bosses" are "exerting every pressure" to repeal or amend the law. He accused union leadership of using false slogans against the bill. He cited the expressions "killer bill" and "union busting" and said that these labels are improper and untrue. He said that the bill is "gang-

Death Toll On Highways Slackening

Many People Returning To Normal Routine

By Associated Press

Highway traffic deaths slackened yesterday as many Americans went back to a workaday routine after the Thanksgiving feast.

Late last night the toll showed 187 killed in traffic; 19 by fire, and 40 in miscellaneous mishaps for a total of 246.

With some pickup expected during normal weekend hours, especially Saturday night and early Sunday when tipplers are most numerous, it still appeared the four-day highway toll might be modest.

SURVEY

The current holiday survey covers the period from 6 p.m. local time Wednesday to midnight Sunday — 102 hours. The accident death toll in a survey made by The Associated Press for a weekend of similar length from 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 11 to midnight Sunday, Nov. 15, was 433 traffic fatalities.

During the test period 49 were killed in fires and 100 in miscellaneous other accidents, an overall toll of 582.

The National Safety Council estimated that 470 persons would be killed during a weekend period of four days at this time of year.

Last year, the Associated Press counted 454 traffic deaths during the Thanksgiving holiday weekend, 54 in fires and 118 from miscellaneous accidents — 626 in all.

The record four-day holiday traffic toll, for Christmas 1956, was 707. Fires and miscellaneous other accidents brought the fatality toll to 884.

Goodfellows Need Money To Give Aid

Christmas shopping is just a dream for a Ouachita parish couple whose income barely supports their 10 children. Goodfellows can make Christmas day a real holiday for the youngsters.

The mother writes that it takes all her husband's salary for the family to live from day to day. Contributions sent to the Goodfellows Drive, care of the News-Star—World will give that family and many other unfortunate people a joyful Christmas.

Letters requesting a little help for Christmas are pouring in to the Goodfellows. What's needed now is a flood of checks so money will be available for the necessary assistance.

Thousands of dollars will be required to help needy families in the parish. The drive is being sent in" basis only. There is no house to house drive.

A letter like the next one makes you want to help the people right away — Christmas seems too far off. A mother of two children, and expecting the third in January, is desperate for help.

Her husband is now in a veterans hospital. Her children, aged 10 and eight, "don't have shoes or clothes to attend school in and we hardly have food to eat." She earns $6 per week, for two days work.

Police Chief Is Witness In Ark. Bomb Case

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Police Chief Gene Smith testified today police had made periodic checks on E. A. Lauderdale's activities prior to Labor Day dynamitings here.

"We had reports that Lauderdale was a Ku Klux Klan member and that there might be violence," Smith said.

Smith was a witness as Lauderdale's trial on charges of dynamiting Little Rock School Board headquarters on Sept. 7 went into its third day.

The state has sought to show the 48 - year - old segregationist leader was the mastermind of a plot which resulted in three blasts Labor Day evening.

RECORD

Already in the trial record is testimony to that effect by Jesse Raymond Perry, 24, and Samuel Graydon Beavers, 49. Perry, convicted in the school board bombing, told the jury Lauderdale approached him at a Ku Klux Klan meeting and advanced the bomb plot to "shake up Little Rock"

Another Train Takes Off On Solitary Ride

WEEHAWKEN, N.J. AP—A small New York Central Railroad locomotive caught the fever Friday and went off alone on a two-mile ride with no one in its cab.

The little diesel engine was parked outside the office of the railroad's Weehawken yards while its engineer and fireman went inside to get further orders.

A Central spokesman said the locomotive then drifted off at a slow speed over about two miles of yard tracks. It stopped when it nudged into a pile of ties and dirt at the stub end of a track.

According to the spokesman, its brakes were found to be improperly set and its reverser handle had not been removed as operating rules require when engines are left untended.

AT U.S. CONSULATE IN BOMBAY

Marine Guard Reported Kidnaped

BOMBAY, India (AP) — A Marine guard at the U. S. consulate in Bombay, India, was reported kidnaped and held for six hours Friday by the staff of the Chinese Communist consulate there.

The State Department said the guard had stayed overnight at a beach house with a would-be defector from Red China, identified as the Bombay representative of the Chinese Import - Export Corp.

Sgt. Robert Amstrong, a native of Martinez, Calif., was released after intervention by the Bombay police.

A news dispatch from Bombay said he had been bound and beaten by the Chinese Reds. The dispatch attributed his discovery to an Indian postman. The State Department said only that he had been seen by an Indian citizen as he was being taken, bound, into the Chinese Communist consulate.

State department press officer Joseph Reap called it kidnaping and added: "A high - handed, outrageous thing."

The reported kidnaping was connected, in both the department account and an account provided by a U. S. spokesman in Bombay, with efforts by the consulate to protect the would-be defector, Chang Chien-Huh.

The State Department said Chang called at the consulate, inquired about obtaining entry into the United States, and "showed extreme anxiety for his safety."

There were some discrepancies in the two accounts although the report from the State Department admittedly was incomplete.

Chang, the department said, told consulate officials "he had been brooding over the implications of the extremist trend in Chinese Communist policies and was fed up with the increased regimentation of his life."

He wrote out a statement in Chinese and English, requesting asylum in the United States, the department said.

An officer of the consulate, who was not named by the department, was said to have taken Chang and Armstrong to a beach house where they could talk quietly. The cottage was at Jehu, a resort 15 miles outside Bombay, the Bombay dispatch said.

"Since he feared for his safety," the State Department said, "arrangements were made for Chang Chien-Huh to stay at the beach house overnight with Sgt. Armstrong."

That was Thursday night Bombay time. About 7:30 Friday morning, Bombay time, the State Department said, "Armstrong was seen by an Indian private citizen being taken, bound, by Chinese into the Chinese Communist consulate general.

"The Indian national reported this to the local police and to the American consulate general. Our latest information indicates that it was

Lincoln Demo Official, Wife Are Fatalities

WINNFIELD (Special)—The chairman of the Lincoln Parish Democratic Executive Committee and his wife were killed in a head-on collision of two cars that also claimed the lives of two youthful Winnfield brothers here Friday. The four fatalities brought the area Thanksgiving holiday weekend traffic death toll to six.

Two other persons were injured in the accident which occurred three miles north of here on U.S. Highway 167 at 3:15 p.m.

Dead are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Phillips of Simsboro, 67 and 66 respectively, Tommy Massey, 20 and his brother, Wayne Massey, 19. Injured are the Phillips' daughter, Mrs. Loyd Tabor, 23, Shreveport, a bride of six weeks, and Mrs. Joe Bryan, 50, of Ruston.

RETIRED

Phillips, in addition to being chairman of the Lincoln Parish Democratic Executive Committee, was a retired farmer and real estate holder. He was noted for his work in the federal farm program.

It was the second traffic accident in this area involving fatalities in two days. Two Goodpine Negroes died in an auto crash Thursday near Summerville between Olla and Jena. They were Lee Odis Washington, 19 and Howard Jackson, 22.

Witnesses told state police the Winnfield crash Friday happened this way:

THROWN OUT

The Massey brothers were headed south and attempted to pass another car in front of which was a slow - moving truck. Attempting to wedge in behind the truck, the Massey auto swerved to the left, swerved sidewise down the highway and met the oncoming vehicle driven by Mrs. Tabor.

Gremillion Tells Views About NAACP Lists

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Louisiana attorney general Jack Gremillion told a three-judge federal court Friday that a state law requiring organizations to submit membership lists was enacted to aid the NAACP, not hinder it.

Gremillion's statement came as the NAACP opened its bid for a federal ruling on the constitutionality of the Louisiana law.

The act, he said, was passed 24 to 30 years ago, "to help groups discriminated against."

The NAACP asked for removal of the suit from the Caddo Parish district court, where Gremillion brought the issue Oct. 9, to the federal court.

HALTED

The suit halted an NAACP convention in Shreveport on grounds that it had not filed a membership in 1958, as required by state law.

Gremillion told the court that the NAACP had been offended by the Ku Klux Klan and other groups and the suit was passed in the NAACP's behalf.

Recently, he said, the KKK attempted to reorganize, but he told them they would have to comply with the law. The reorganization failed because of the law's requirements.

"Since I have been in office," Gremillion said, "I have not in one instance discriminated against the NAACP. I ask them only to obey the law. Then I took the action I felt was my duty and I still feel it is my duty."

Khrushchev May Remove Troops

ACTION

(Such an action could help clear the air for the projected East-West summit meeting. It would be in keeping with Khrushchev's announced desire for normalization of relations. So far the Soviets have ignored U.N. Assembly resolutions calling for removal of the troops.)

The announcement of Khrushchev's visit came as Sir Leslie Munro of New Zealand, U. N. special representative on Hungary placed his report before the General Assembly in New York.

Munro said withdrawal of the troops "would undoubtedly be regarded by all members of the United Nations as a contribution to the normalization of the situation."

Hungary's official view has been that the Soviets are here under arrangements of the Soviet-led Warsaw Pact and any withdrawal would be a Warsaw Pact decision.

But the Western sources feel that Janos Kadar, chief of the Communist party, would gain in popularity if they went.

There is a new feeling of vitality in Hungary. The situation of the people has changed considerably since 1956.

Under Kadar's leadership, the party is now firmly in the saddle.

The standard of living of the 10 million Hungarians is rising. Shops are filled with consumer goods, though they are sometimes of poor quality and often cost more than in the West.

The main item on the program of the Communist congress is a new five-year-plan aimed at rising industrial production 65 or 70 per cent by 1965.

Sir Leslie Munro of New Zealand made the statement in a 15-page report to the 82-atio Ge-i page report to the 82-nation General Assembly, which will hold full-scale debate on Hungary next week.

The Assembly named Munro, its former president, as special representative last year. He was told to explore what could be done to implement previous Assembly resolutions stemming from the suppression of the 1956 Hungarian revolt with the aid of Soviet armed forces.

Release of his report coincided with word from Moscow that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will attend the Hungarian Communist party congress in Budapest opening on Monday—the first since the 1956 uprising.

The report was made public also amid a flurry of excitement over the apparent suicide of Povl Bang-Jensen, a former U. N. political officer who was fired for refusal to turn over to U. N. officials a list of Hungarian witnesses who testified in secret before a U. N. fact-finding committee on Hungary.

"In the course of the past year," Munro said, "no evidence has been forthcoming on any basic change in the Hungarian situation which would warrant relaxation by the United Nations of its continued attention to the problem."

He said there had been a long blackout of news from Budapest on trials of anti-Communist rebels, but that in recent weeks new information on both trials and executions had come to light.

He noted statements given to reporters in Budapest last month on death sentences carried out in connection with the 1956 uprising, and also to reports of "another major trial."

"It is against this background that consideration needs to be given to recent reports of a disturbing character which have aroused widespread concern regarding the imminent possibility of further executions," he said.

Munro reported that Soviet troops still remain in Hungary despite U. N. Assembly resolutions calling for their removal.

Withdrawal of these forces, he said, "would undoubtedly be regarded by all members of the United Nations as a contribution to the normalization of the situation."

He cited charges in a Hungarian Communist newspaper that "American monopoly capitalists" were behind the 1956 revolt. He said this was part of the "fanciful version" of the revolt being told by Hungarian authorities to justify their defiance of the United Nations.

He said what happened in Hungary was that Soviet tanks shot at Hungarian workers who were trying to set up a government controlled by the people.

"Does it make sense to claim that, when the people of a country are targets for military operations conducted by the armed forces of a foreign power, such actions are a matter of domestic jurisdiction?" he asked.

"To assert this view is to destroy the very foundations of the United Nations."

a number of hours later and after repeated interventions by the Bombay police that Sgt. Armstrong was released by the Chinese Communists."

Reap said the department had no information on what happened to Chang, but "presumably he's in the hands of the Chinese Communists."

Reap also said he had no information that Armstrong had been harmed.

The State Department had no information, officials said, about how Armstrong and Chang got from the beach cottage to the Red Chinese consulate, or where the alleged attack on Armstrong occurred.

The Bombay account said the two men spent the night at the beach cottage and that while Chang was still there Friday morning the sergeant discovered that a tape recording of statements made earlier by Chang had disappeared.

According to this account, Chang told Armstrong he wanted to go back to Bombay and the two took a taxi into the city. Chang got out at the Red Chinese consulate and Armstrong followed him, the dispatch said, in an effort to recover the tape recording which he assumed Chang had.

Armstrong was seized by a group of Chinese near the consulate gate, the dispatch said.

sterbusting" and "that is what it was intended to do."

McClellan said that his committee heard 1,525 witnesses in its investigations and that almost one-fourth of them stood on their constitutional grounds under the fifth amendment and refused to testify. He called this condition "alarming."

He said that in 1958 the major crime in the nation increased by 11 per cent and said that this is five times greater than the population increase.

The senator pointed out that his remarks, nor the labor bill, were indictments of labor and workers. He said he and his Congressional colleagues "realize that a majority of union members are honest, sincere citizens. It is this majority that we are trying to protect."

He claimed that $20-billion have been invested in industry abroad since 1945 and that, had this money been used for industrial expansion in the U.S., it would have created one million more jobs. He said that the reason it was being used abroad was because of the high cost of production in the U.S. which he tied to "inflationary wage demands" by unions.

INTERVIEW

In an interview after the address, Sen. McClellan said that he felt that if the steel strike is resumed after the Taft - Hartley injunction expires, that Congress will take positive action to end the strike. He said that at the expiration of the 80-day period, Congress will be in session.

He also said that he was sure a strong effort will be made to pass more civil rights legislation. He expressed a hope that the Southerners in Congress would be able to block it.

He said he had no knowledge of Jimmy Hoffa's future — that it was a court matter now. Hoffa is the Teamster Union boss who has been one of the main characters in the Rackets probes.

Sen. McClellan revealed that the Senate Rackets Committee will expire on Jan. 30, 1960, and that he did not intend to ask continuance of it.

Johnson, the New York Restaurant Assn., Schrafft food chain, the General Electric Co., The Dairymen's League, members of the National Assn. of Manufacturers and the Bickford food chain.

The suit also seeks to enjoin the three members of the board of monitors from continuing in their capacity.

Schmidt, a bitter foe of Hoffa since the insurgent Teamsters movement began forming several years ago, was one of the original monitors appointed last year.

He resigned last June, however, over a possible conflict of interests. Besides representing the 12 rank-and-file Teamsters insurgents he also represents employers who deal with the union.

fell under a rain of the slashing blows that can snap bones. He suffered a cerebral hemorrhage.

A Japanese professor heard the commotion and rushed to the scene. He carried Perry into his home and called the police.

Shortly after they arrived, Perry was able to tell them what happened and urge mercy.

His attackers may get it, although not for his reasons.

Japan is sometimes known as a drunkard's paradise. Drunkenness is a legally mitigating factor. In some similar cases in the past, it has been sufficient to absolve persons of blame.

Nehru Wins Approval On Border Issue

way this is talked over," Nehru said.

Military action would make India a nation in arms, he declared.

Toward the end of his 80-minute speech, Nehru defended Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon, who was charged with being soft on communism. Nehru said Menon was sometimes wrong but he is "a man of the deepest patriotism and national feeling."

For the first time in the present dispute, Nehru declared an attack on independent Nepal or on Bhutan would be regarded as an attack on India.

There have been reports of Red Chinese troop concentrations in Tibet on the border of Nepal which has been trying to stay neutral in the Indian-Chinese dispute. India already handles the foreign affairs of Bhutan and a protectorate over the neighboring Himalayan border state of Sikkim.

Nehru also sought to quell criticisms of India's settlement of the eastern border dispute with Pakistan. One member complained that 370 Indian families were handed over to Pakistan.

Strike Paving Way To Caution

NEW YORK (AP) — Corporate dividends are expected to reach an all-time high this year despite effects of the steel strike.

A survey by Business Week indicated Friday that the total probably won't reach the 14 billion dollars expected earlier this year, but should go to at least $13,300,000,000 and perhaps to 13½ billion.

In the previous record year of 1957, corporations paid out 12½ billion to their stockholders.

The strike has made some companies cautious about raising dividends but many others say it won't change their plans for payments, according to the survey.

The balance of this year doesn't appear as promising as before the strike. Some companies won't pay extras which had been planned and others have put off proposed increases.

Railroad stock hold the key to the stock market activity, says E. F. Hutton & Co. "The current rise in the industrials would appear to be technically secure if it were not for the divergence in the rails," Hutton observes. "If the carrier group turns around and rises now it would do more to insure a broad and sustained rally in the market than any other single technical occurrence."

"By early 1960 good recoveries are expected in stocks now heavily depressed by tax selling," says Goodbody & Co. "However, a highly selective market performance will probably continue with stocks or strong and popular growing companies probably doing better over the next half year than issues merely offering 'bargain' characteristics.

"Many stocks today are lower than they were two months ago, when the average reached a low for the decline some 35 points below the present level. Other stocks are far higher than they were when the averages reached an all-time high last summer nearly 30 points above the present level.

"In connection with these diverse trends, every investor would do well to study holdings and, where possible, switch his uninteresting, lusterless or doubtful stocks to issues apparently offering well-secured prospects and that have not fully discounted in market price at patently favorable future."

Many oil stocks appear to be statistical bargains as the result of year-end tax selling, comments Oil Statistics Co., Inc., adding that indications are renewed buying will come from many of today's sellers after the required 30-day waiting period.

Education Study Experimenting With Recruits

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UPI)—A Yale-Fairfield education study financed by the Fund for the Advancement of Education has successfully carried out an experiment to show that young mothers can be recruited for public school teaching.

The Yale education experts, working under professor emeritus Clyde M. Hill, reported Friday that three years of special training prepared housewives possessing college degrees to be better teachers than those who normally begin immediately following graduation.

Of eight young mothers who did part - time supervised practice teaching in the Fairfield Public schools and attended special teaching classes, five are still on the job and the remaining three definitely plan an educational career.

The Yale study reported that the program's cost was $750 per woman. Another conclusion was that the maturity of mother-teachers gives them greater ability to cope with classroom problems.

70-Year-Old Killed, Four Hurt In Ala.

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—A 70-year-old Mississippi man was killed and four servicemen injured Friday in a headon collision on U.S. 98 about 20 miles west of downtown Mobile.

Mac Kellum, Lucedale, Miss., alone in one car, was killed.

Highway patrolman W. O. Peak said Kellum's car veered off the right side of the road, traveled about 280 feet along the shoulder and swerved across the road and into the path of the second car.

The driver of that car, 21-year-old Glen A. Walley of Richton, Miss., a serviceman on leave, was slightly injured.

Three servicemen who had hitched a ride with him also were hurt and two were listed in serious condition.

The three were Airman Tommy Rials, 21, of (McDowell Rd.) Jackson, Miss., and Clyde Finch, 29, of (219 Winfield St.) Jackson, both assigned to Eglin Air Force Base, Fla.; and Navy enlisted man Wayne R. Williams, 19, of Emogee, Ala., stationed at the Pensacola (Fla.) Naval Air Station.

Rials and Williams were in serious condition. Finch suffered minor injuries.

Boy Gambles With Russian Roulette, Loses

Police said Ralph Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ford Sr., critically wounded himself when he put a bullet in a .38 caliber pistol, spun the chamber, pressed the muzzle against his temple and pulled the trigger.

The bullet crashed into Ralph's right temple.

The boy had gone to the home of a neighbor, James Sturgeon, to watch television with Sturgeon's sons, James, 17, Jerry, 15, and Terry, 12.

Young James Sturgeon said Ralph was sitting on the top bunk in the bedroom when he suddenly drew the pistol and asked if anyone wanted to play Russian roulette.

"Are you crazy?" James said.

Without answering, Ralph fired the bullet into his head and was rushed to St. Francis Hospital in critical condition.

Police said the boy's parents could not identify the pistol and did not know where their son got it.

Christmas Decorations

With everything entirely new, the Christmas decorations in Monroe this year far surpass anything to be found in a town of comparable size anywhere in the gulf south.

Based on dollar cost alone, the new and amazingly beautiful decorations are on a level with those which may be found in cities twice the size of Monroe.

Purchase price of the completely new decorations was reported to have exceeded any single such sale in the gulf south this year, including those for larger cities.

Elaborately lighted foil trees.

Matching ornaments crossing the streets in tier eschelon patterns.

This outstandingly beautiful system of Christmas decorations was made possible by members of the Retail Merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce, Monroe city officials and the Monroe utilities comission.

Money for the purchase was supplied by members of the Retail Merchants division. The splendid job of erecting the display was performed through the cooperation of Mayor W. L. (Jack) Howard, other members of the city council, members of the utilities commission and city employes.

Friday night at 6 o'clock the lights were turned on for the first time and the magnificent display burst forth in all its glory, amazing and delighting the many spectators who were present for the occasion. There were numerous expressions of admiration and commendation for those who made it possible for Monroe to turn on a spectacle of magnificence rarely seen in a city of this size.

Decorations here were erected not only for the benefit of the people of the Twin Cities but for those of the entire Monroe trade area, including the 14 parishes of the fifth congressional district and a few parishes beyond, as well as for all others who might visit in this area or pass through. Those who visit Monroe will find that this city has something really worth seeing and beautiful to behold.

Congratulations of the Monroe Morning World and Monroe News-Star are extended not only to those who made the display possible but to all those having the pleasure of viewing such a wonderful display.

Jury Trial Guarantee

Although the American constitution gives ample guarantees of the right to trial by jury, there appears to be constant pressure, somtimes by court personnel themselves, for eliminating jury trials insofar as possible.

It can be said, without fear of contradiction, that most misdemeanor and felony cases reach the point of sentencing by a judge without benefit of jury trial, both in federal and state courts. This, of course, includes the cases in which pleas of guilty are entered and in which jury trials are waived.

In many of the lesser criminal cases, however, the defendant is not offered a jury trial. This is true in federal and in some state and city courts, although the provisions of the constitution make it difficult to find out a jury trial can be avoided legally if the defendant wishes it.

It must be noted here that some states still guarantee the right of trial by jury, even in traffic cases and other minor offenses, if the defense requests it. Among these states are California and Texas, the former of which provides in article one, section seven, of the California constitution that the right of a jury trial shall remain inviolate.

Provision is made in California and in other states in which the right to a jury trial is guarantee that such right may be waived "in open court by the defendant, his counsel and the people." This merely means that if the defendant does not desire a jury trial he may waive it and be tried by the judge if his counsel and the prosecutor (who represents the people) are also willing

Article 3, section 2, of the fed- constitution provides that "the trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury."

The sixth amendment to the federal constitution provides, "in all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the trial shall have been committed."

Neither of these provisions says that such guarantees shall apply only in state courts or only in federal courts, nor that they shall apply only in major crimes and not minor crimes, nor that they shall apply only to adults and not to juveniles. They simply say flatly that every defendant is entitled to trial by jury. Anyone who says these guarantees were meant to apply only in such and such a set of circumstances is merely using his own interpretation.

Every person accused of a crime, whether minor or major and whether he is an adult or a juvenile, is entitled both to a jury trial and to representation by counsel if he desires it or if his nearest relative or guardian desires it in the case of a juvenile.

This is not intended to mean that juvenile cases ordinarily should be handled in open court or tried by a jury. In most cases, if not all, the better method probably is that now generally in use. Yet it is hard to find a way in which representation and jury trial can be legally avoided if desired by those most concerned.

There must have been good historical reasons for preserving so carefully the right to a trial by jury for defendants in criminal cases. Whatever those reasons may have been, we should be willing to examine the importance of such right in its present-day application.

Such statements as, "it is outmoded," "it makes for extra expense and unreasonable delay," "jurors are not qualified," are "judges are better trained" are frequently made.

There has also been the argument that a jury verdict must always be a compromise verdict, since no 12 men can agree exactly on anything, whereas a judge returns a verdict on the basis of his considered judgment. A compromise judgement for a person who is subject to conviction for a crime may be better than the judgment of one man, since it is a cross - section of the average man's belie, whereas the judge's decision is that of a single mind. None of us can be completely without prejudice.

Whatever arguments may be presented in favor of non-jury trials, on the basis of expediency or even on the presumed basis of justice, none can change the right guaranteed under the constitution.

That right can be changed or abridged only through amendments to the constitution.

There is not much likelihood that such an amendment could be enacted, since the right of trial by jury has always been regarded as a major part of our American democracy.

Brains Principal Waste

'Conflict Of Interest' Rule Means That Some Of Best Intellects Of Country Not Available For U. S.

The principal waste in this country is of brains. The "conflict of interest" rule means that some of the best intellects of the country are not available for service to the American people. Another waste of intellect is the system of retirement. When a man reaches 62 in some firms or 65 in others and similar ages in government positions, out he goes no matter how alert, how wise, how experienced, how capable he may be.

This is utter waste. Some of the most capable men in this country are in their 80's. Bernard Baruch will be 90 on his next birthday and he is thinking more clearly than most of our politicians in Washington. General J. H. Doolittle, in an address nearly a decade ago, said:

"Two thousand years ago, the average individual could expect to live 25 years. The actual and projected average life span for white males in the U.S. was 48 years in 1900, 58 years in 1925, and is 66 for 1950 and 71 for 1975.

"This trend is splendid, but it presents several problems. Along with greater longevity, there has been a continuing increase in educational level and a consequent increase in the age at which individuals enter the labor force. There has also been a decline in the relative number of very old people engaged in productive work. In general, the tendency, after a liberal pension plan is assured, is to decrease retirement age . . ."

The waste is not so much that the middle-aged group have to support the oldsters as it is that we lose the advantage of the experience and wisdom of older men and women. We are depriving ourselves of the advantages of their knowledge and skill. We are casting aside years of training and losing billions of dollars of costly education. This is particularly true of engineers and scholars of various kinds.

It has been suggested by Frederick E. Moskovics, himself an oldster still at work, that it would be sound for the government to take on retired men of great experience in an advisory capacity. Many such men are financially independent or are living on pensions from their former companies and are capable of 10 or 15 years more of top-notch work. This is what General Doolittle had to say about Moskovics:

* * *

". . . Fred had practically retired before the war and was absolutely lost. When the war crisis came up, he went back to work as a full time consultant with the U.S.A.F. and not only found happiness, but health and renewed youth. Having had that experience, he now doesn't want to return to inactivity — Fred is 71 years young (80 in 1959) . . . Age and obsolescence should not be measured chronologically, but by competence and productive capacity. This is sometimes difficult to do in business, where an arbitrary 'par for the retirement age course' is often established. It is particularly those people who are at their mental peak and in good physical condition, but who are forced to retire as a result of company ruling, whom we should attempt to retrieve."

Moskovics tells this:

". . . Some years ago when I was vice president of the American Standards Association I was closely associated with Bancroft Gherardi, who was vice president and general manager of the A.T.&T. He was at that time president of the American Standards Association and that particular year received the Edison medal for electrical achievements. At 65 years of age he was retired arbitrarily. Physically he was in splendid shape . . ."

To pull a strong, active man away from his work and to tell him to do nothing is to kill him. Even if he does not die, even if he devotes himself to golf and bridge or some other hobbies, he is no longer constructive; he feels death at his heels. In a country such as ours, where brain-power needs to be mobilized in the public interest, such men should not be wasted.

The reasons why the older and wiser men are pushed aside are that pension funds, insurance policies, the demands of younger men force companies and government offices to adopt rigid rules. Age is no longer a barrier to hard work, particularly in fields which involve mental effort rather than physical activity. We need only look at what Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has done for West Germany to realize the great advantage of orderly thinking at whatever age.

DR. PETER J. STEINCROHN

'Chronic Appendix'

Don't Go Around Worrying About It Unless Case Is Acute

"Dear Dr. Steincrohn: What is borderline appendicitis? A friend of mine said he almost had to go to the hospital because he had a borderline case. Mr. T. L."

ANSWER: I really don't know; unless his doctor meant that it was a "suspicious" case that deserved close observation and study.

I have always gone along on this practical basis: either you have acute appendicitis or you haven't. If you don't have it, better forget about it. In other words, don't go worrying about having a "chronic appendix." If you have an acute attack, then operation within hours is a must.

There can be no procrastinating with an inflamed appendix. No experimenting with ice bags, antibiotics or other measures to "try to prevent operation."

I think you should know, Mr. T. L., that all attacks of appendicitis are not "text book cases." In the typical case — in which any junior in medical school can make the correct diagnosis — these are the following symptoms and signs:

The patient begins to have diffuse pain all over his abdomen. After a few hours the discomfort localizes over his lower right side. He has nausea and vomiting. His pulse becomes rapid and he has fever.

But never try to make the diagnosis yourself. That is the doctor's job. For, you can have acute appendicitis without vomiting, nausea, rapid pulse and fever. Sometimes the pain isn't too bad, either.

I recall one patient years ago who might have been the proverbial "dead duck" if the surgeon hadn't been willing to operate. All he had was a little discomfort which was exaggerated slightly (rebound tenderness) when the examiner's fingers pressed over a spot in the lower right abdomen called "McBurney's point."

Yet, when operated (in spite of no other symptoms or signs), he had the most inflamed appendix I had ever seen. You see, early diagnosis is imperative. Acute appendicitis is not borderline. Either it is or isn't acute.

DIAGNOSIS OF OVERACTIVE THYROID

From Mrs. K. K. of Calgary, Canada comes the queston: "Just what is the best laboratory test to use in diagnosing thyroid trouble, especially when you suspect that the gland is too active?"

COMMENT: Your doctor probably will not rely upon laboratory examination alone. Often I have persisted in the diagnosis of overactive thyroid when the laboratory examinations were quite questionable. Correct diagnosis depends upon clinical observation, too.

I recall equivocal laboratory reports in one woman. Nothing was definite. Yet she had an unusually warm and moist skin, a moderately rapid pulse and a persistent, though slight, finger tremor. Subsequent treatment confirmed the diagnosis of hyperthyroidism.

I am not saying that laboratory determinations are unimportant. They are. But we mustn't forget clinical judgment.

As for the best test, I don't believe one is much better than another. Sometimes more than one must be tried. Often, a carefully taken metabolism test plus clinical evaluation is all that is necessary for the diagnosis.

If the results are indefinite, there are two other valuable tests for thyroid function. 1. Protein-bound iodine determination (PBI test). 2. Radioiodine uptake.

However, these, too, can be deceptive if the patient has been taking such things as iodine, antithyroid drugs, thyroid, mercurial diuretics. Sometimes accurate results are thrown off in the presence of hepatitis or pregnancy.

ADVICE TO CORRESPONDENT

Aside to Mr. J. B. V. of Michigan: A little patience and understanding will keep your marriage from blowing apart. Remember there is such a disturbing condition known as premenstrual tension.

EARLY DIAGNOSIS IMPORTANT IN ARTHRITIS

For Mrs. L. P. of Oregon: You are right. In arthritis, the most important consideration is correct and early diagnosis. Many's the case of undiagnosed gout I have seen in long suffering patients.

Early diagnosis would have brought an effective barrage of such drugs as colchicine, benecid, steroids, etc.

Without the shortest coffee-break . . . Or any kind of rest . . . I could go right on working and . . . Accomplish so much more . . . To build up quite a large reserve . . . That I could keep in store . . . But sleep is a necessity . . . As there are changing skies . . . And every now and then I am . . . Compelled to close my eyes.

Same Thing Again

Putting Cranberry Crop In Warehouses Hurts Thanksgiving

"You'll do the same thing over again, Over and over and over again." Thus ran a tuneful song of a bygone day. It could be the present day theme song of either or both major political parties.

Perhaps the subject is a little offkey today when the nation at Thanksgiving rejoices over bountiful crops from Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Canadian border to the Gulf — cranberries, and all. But there would be greater rejoicing if less of that bumper crop had gone into warehouses on expensive loans. Or, if the end of the college football season did not signal the on-season for making the nation's farmers the football of politics.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson lopes out with the 1960 version of a farm bill, so little changed from the 1957, 1958, 1959 ad infinitum model as to again insure no sale in congress.

From the opposite camp Senators Symington of Missouri, Kennedy of Massachusetts and Humphrey of Minnesota, all running as hard as ever they can for the Democratic presidential nomination, assail the administration proposal and unveil some very vague plans of their own, which are deciperable enough for an assured judgment that none of them could withstand a presidential veto.

So they'll do the same thing over again beginning in January —first in congress and then in the presidential campaign. The presidential campaign is where the grand old game of passing the buck will really get the play. Farmers have been leaving the farms in all makes of cars and entering other walks of life at an increasingly accelerated rate. Just how many have moved from farm to town and city in the last decade will be told in the farm census just about ready to get underway. But there are sufficient numbers who still abide on farms to swing an election in some states, and that's not hay.

Nearly everybody here is looking forward to a copious yield of epithets and invective at the gathering time although the young shoots are sprouting feebly as of now. They will be nurtured carefully and become increasingly robust.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson sneaked up on the unsuspecting Democrats by his memorandum laying down "essential aspects of a sound farm program" on November 10, two days more than a full fortnight before Thanksgiving. Farmers received Benson's five point program with subdued cheering as it contained nothin new. But the peripatetic presidential candidates of the opposition party and their surprised script writers stopped in their dizzy whirl through the hustings to reply. No politician could sustain presidential availability claims unless he could create an image of himself as the farmers' friend.

Senator Symington, a cityman-born, but who knows a grass root when he sees it, was in Long Beach, California. He called Benson's new plans as well as all Benson - sponsored programs "an obvious waste of both food and money." To put the 5-point Benson plan in the shade he imparted a six-point Symington plan.

Senator Kennedy comes from Boston, the happy habitat of both Brahmans and lace curtain Irish, though seldom thought of as a seat of agriculture. But Boston is the capital of the land of the bean and the cod. The soft-finned cod is, of course, a sea crop. But the bean is agricultural, although largely an import crop for Massachusetts. But Kennedy was close to the rich soil of the Wisconsin Dairyland at the time and he issued a horny - handed five-point farm program of his own, exactly tying Benson on points by falling one short of Symington.

Senator Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, a pharmacist by trade, is no rookie in any sphere. He contented himself with a short, (for Humphrey) statement, the gist of which was that the Benson program would "result in even greater surpluses and bring ruin to thousands of wheat producers." As Humphrey made ready to hasten to the quondam unfriendly state of Texas, and points south the word was that he would release his 1960 farm plan piecemeal.

Humphrey backers were entirely satisfied with this strategy for Humphrey emits farm solutions, as he does on all other problems with effortless grace, and the political bookmakers were offering odds of 7 to 5 that when the complete Humphrey farm program bursts forth in its full resplendency it will have more points than those of Benson, Symington, Kennedy and all other comers combined.

There the lines stood at Thanksgiving. The agricultural caldron will really get up a head of steam in January. That session of congress will be Benson's last stand. He will be out of office after that. He has been very durable. Picked as the cabinet member most likely not to remain, he is one of the remaining two of the original Eisenhower cabinet. Benson knows his farm plan has no chance. The itinerate electioneering presidential candidates know the prospects for their plans are nil.

Doubtless anything that would spoil the politician's heyday, such as mention in the taxpayer, should be frowned upon. But next year's budget is being readied for presentation to congress and the taxpayer will again be asked to pick up a whopping tab for agriculture, perhaps $4,000,000,000 or at any rate close to it. That would make net agricultural expenditures in twenty - eight years $62,200,000,000, divided $25,200,000,000 in the twenty Roosevelt-Truman years, $37,000,000,000 in the eight Eisenhower years. And the warehouses bulge with $100,000,000,000 storage of surpluses on which government loans have been made.

Land Buying Decision Still Pending Here

A decision on whether the Utilities Commission will buy 5½ lots on Park Avenue is still pending, but the purchase will have to be approved by the City Council for a second time.

Mayor W. L. (Jack) Howard said yesterday afternoon the council had not received a request for approval from the Utilities Commission.

Commission chairman Travis Oliver Jr. said, "Members of the commission have favored the purchase individually, but I'll have to talk to the mayor."

Under the law, the purchase would have to be approved by the City Council.

CHANGED

The $59,850 proposal originally received the council's approval, but the commission later changed its position and decided against buying the land.

"That action by the commission rescinded our resolution," Howard explained. "So if the commission decides again to buy it, they'll have to bring the request before the council again and we in turn will have to pass another resolution."

At a meeting several days ago members of the commission voiced approval of buying the land, but failed to take action because of Oliver's absence.

He said yesterday, "If the members of the commission are in favor of buying the land, I am too."

The land is being offered to the commission for $59,850 by owners Mrs. Berta Petagna, Mrs. Susie R. Griffith, Mrs. W. A. Bickham and Ivy Rayner.

Located across the street from the power plant, the land would be used for plant expansion purposes. Water mains would be run from the Ouachita River to the power plant.

One Child Killed, One Injured In Freak Mishap

KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. (AP) —Ben F. Sessoms, 58, was driving a trash truck to the city dump today when a large cardboard box blew off.

He retrieved the box and went on to the dump. Unknown to him, the box fell off again.

On the return trip, he told patrolmen, he saw the box on the roadside and decided to drive over it to mash it so it wouldn't blow away again.

He drove over the box and killed Rosa Oliva Black, 9, and seriously injured Edgar Moore, 11, who were playing inside.

Daily Devotional

Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel. — Ezk. 8:17

It is interesting to note how the President of the United States and other high government officials are surrounded by security agents when we see them on television and in the news pictures of movie houses. These men are in the background, but their eyes are ever roving over the crowds like searchlights that probe into the darkness of the night. You feel confident that any move to harm the men they are protecting would be immediately discovered. In like manner, we are watchmen for the Lord, to see that His children are kept safe.

Heavenly Father, help us to take seriously our obligation to watch over the helpless and the erring. In Christ's name we plead. Amen.

FOR INDUSTRY

Delta Council Broadens Work

WINNSBORO (Special) — Officers and directors of the Louisiana Delta council and a member of interested visitors took preliminary steps at an informal supper meeting in Winnsboro night, to broaden the activities of the Delta council to include industrial developement as well as agriculture.

George S. Shepherd of Lake Providence, Delta Council president said, "The plans will be presented to the entire board of directors and if they are approved a complete survey of the assets of Northeast Louisiana will be made and put in brochure form. Committee Asks AF For Explanation

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House subcommittee wants the Air Force to explain whether the decision to continue its Mace missile program will divert funds from more highly regarded missile projects.

Reporting this Friday, a spokesman for the House Defense Appropriations subcommittee said the Air Force will be asked specifically where it is getting the 100 million dollars it plans to spend on additional Mace missiles.

The Air Force, announced the other day it is earmarking that sum to continue the Mace, an air-breathing, surface-to-surface guided missile with a range reportedly in the neighborhood of 1,000 miles.

The House turned down an Air Force request in this year's defense appropriation bill for about 127 million dollars to continue the Mace.

The Senate concurred but inserted language in its report on the bill to the effect that the Air Force could continue the program if it could scrape up the money.

"We want to know where the money is coming from," the House subcommittee spokesman said.

Asked about reports indicating Chairman George H. Mahon (D-Tex) was irked by the Mace decision, the spokesman said: "I am quite sure Mr. Mahon is interested only in seeing that the Air Force doesn't use money that we gave them for missiles with higher priority and that are considerably more important to the defense of the country."

He said he was referring particularly to intercontinental ballistic missiles such as the Atlas and Titan.

Singer Tells Of Evidence In Payola

NEW YORK (AP) — A singer who also owns a record firm told newsmen Friday he had turned over two canceled checks to the office of Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan as evidence he had made payoffs to disc jockeys to plug his records.

Don Anthony, 31, was questioned by investigators for Hogan after the Bronx entertainer reported payments to disc jockeys "all over the country." He had been given police protection earlier in the day—but Anthony called off the guard during his interrogation Friday in Hogan's office.

The singer asked for police protection because he believed he had been followed while riding subways from Manhattan to his Pronx home. "No one has been following me lately," Anthony said. He described the persons following him previously as "cranks."

Also questioned Friday by investigators for the district attorney was Scott Muni, a disc jockey for radio station WMCA and first vice president of the Disc Jockey Assn., Inc., a recently formed organization Muni says has 200 members.

Muni said as he left Hogan's office that he had never taken payments to plug records over WMCA.

"In New York I've been offered money," Muni said. He then declared he had been approached in a "general way" once or twice out of town, and added: "I had a reputation and so they didn't offer me money."

Hogan's office announce meanwhile that Jack Lynn, program director for station WNEW-TV, had been subpoenaed to produce the books of Alan Freed next Monday.

Freed, a disc jockey, was dropped by WNEW earlier this week and has been subpoenaed to appear Monday before a Manhattan grand jury. Although he failed to appear voluntarily in the New York payola probe, Freed said he would comply with the grand jury's subpoena.

Congressional investiagors also are making an inquiry into payola—payments made for having records plugged on the air.

Freed has lost both his television and radio outlets here. He was fired last Saturday by WABC radio after he refused to sign a statement, saying he had not taken payola. Freed has denied, however, that he ever took any undercover payments to plug tunes on the air.

Release Set For Study Of Shakespeare

BATON ROUGE (Special) — A classic study of the philosophical foundations of Shakespeare's dramas with emphasis on "Macbeth" and "The Tempest" will be released by the Louisiana State University this week.

Originally published in 1937, the 256-page reprinted volume has been unavailable for many years. The book was written by Walter Clyde Curry and is entitled Shakespeare's Philosophical Patterns."

Containing a new introduction and index, the work traces the philosophical ancestry of two of Shakespeare's most famous works "Macbeth" and "The Tempest," the first down to medieval Scholasticsm and the other to the tradition of the Renaissance.

In the case of "Macbeth," the book shows the close relationship of Elizabethan thought to the vitalism of the Middle Ages, revealing the ultimate sources of Macbeth's changing character, of the demonic possession of Lady Macbeth, and of the Weird Sisters as representatives of the world of darkness.

Hardin Craig has commented on the book as a whole: "No approach to Elizabethan literature could be more fundamental and it is difficult to see how in such a limited space so clear and so complete a digest could have been prepared."

Walter Clyde Curry is now emeritus professor of English at Vanderbilt University, from which he retired in 1955, after fourty years of distinguished service. He is also author of "The Middle English Ideal of Personal Beauty" and "Chaucer and the Medieval Sciences."

5 Arrested On Narcotics Charges

Officers last night booked Dalton J. Castille, 32, Baker, and Richard B. Pardo, 28, New Orleans and Tampa, Fla., for possession of marijuana.

Three others were held on charges of investigation of narcotics. They were John W. Ryan, 28, New Orleans; Thelma Ann Ttate, 23, New Orleans and Plymouth, Mich., and Maxie Dale McCauley, 27, New Orleans and Tulsa, Okla.

Clemmons said the raid on Castille's house ended a joint investigation by the sheriff's office and the city police department that has continued for the past several weeks.

Lt. E. E. Rives said he and other officers told Castille they had a search warrant and began questioning him.

Castille put his hand in his pocket and drew out a small package wrapped in aluminum foil, Rives said.

"I guess this is what you're looking for," Castille said.

The package, Rives said, turned out to be a matchbox full of what later proved to be marijuana.

Candy Barr Queried By Federal Men

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Strip tease dancer Candy Barr returned here Friday from a brief honeymoon in Las Vegas to face questioning by the same internal revenue agents who previously asked her about ex-beau Mickey Cohen's finances.

The disclosure that federal agents were closeted with Miss Barr and her new husband, Jack Sahakian, came as her San Antonio attorney announced she would fly to Texas Saturday to surrender on a narcotics conviction.

Virgil G. Crabtree, chief assistant to the head of the Internal Revenue Intelligence Division, said only Candy "is not being detained by any representative of the U.S. Treasury Department."

When Miss Barr was questioned agents, they did ask her about the financial affairs of Cohen, the ex-gambler who championed her previously by the internal revenue cause and proclaimed he intended to marry her.

The attorney, Fred Semaan, said the surrender would be the first step in a last-ditch fight to keep the blonde dancer from going to prison for hiding marijuana in her brassiere.

Semaan said he would surrender Miss Barr to Bexar County Sheriff Owen Kilday as soon as she arrived from Los Angeles and then would immediately file a habeas corpus action for her freedom.

Semaan's disclosure was the latest development as authorities in two states began maneuvers to bring the shapely 24-year-old dancer back to Texas to start serving a 15-year narcotics sentence handed down in Dallas in October, 1957 after officers raided her apartment.

Semaan said his habeas corpus action will attempt to set aside the prison conviction on the grounds that Miss Barr was deprived of her civil rights in that the search warrant used to raid her apartment and obtain evidence was issued Oct. 26, 1957 but was not used until 36 hours later.

IN COURTHOUSE

2 Arrested Here After Disturbance

A disturbance erupted on the first floor of the Ouachita Parish Courthouse a few minutes after Fourth District Court had adjourned for lunch yesterday. Two men, one of whom testified in a minor trial, staged a fight as Courthouse employees gathered.

It didn't take long for deputy sheriffs, stationed in the courthouse to break up the battle at 12:20 p.m.

Alton Robertson, 39, of Swartz, and C. B. Grice, 62, Route 4, Oak Grove, each were arrested, charged with disturbing the peace by fighting, and placed in the parish jail.

At 2 p.m. when Judge Jesse Heard returned to the courtroom, there stood Robertson who had appeared during the morning as a witness in the trial of his wife, Mrs. Estelle Robertson. She had been found guilty of disturbing the peace and fined $25 and court costs or 10 days in the parish jail.

SENTENCE

Robertson received a slightly stiffer sentence: $50 fine plus court costs or 30 days. Grice a spectator at the trials also drew a $50 fine plus court costs or 30 days.

Sheriff's Department officials said the fight took place after Robertson and Grice left the courtroom.

Mrs. Robertson was charged with Pat Free, who was tried for simple battery and fined $25 and costs or 10 days.

In the routine, but lengthy, court session, George Lewis, 20-year-old Ouachita Parish Negro, was sentenced to one year in the state penitentiary at Angola for forging a $33.48 check.

Dosie Tarver denied theft of $665 and trial is set for Feb. 3. Fred Washington Thomas denied a charge of simple burglary, and will be tried Feb. 17.

Trials were held for six persons:

Found guilty were, James H. Johnston, fined $100 or 30 days for hit and run driving; J. T. Moore, fined $25 or 10 days for reckless driving; Pat Free, simple battery, Estelle Robertson, disturbing the peace, and John F. Wilson, reckless driving, each fined $25 or 10 days.

Doyle Nance was found innocent of vagrancy.

Clifford Ray Stansbury denied two charges, second offense driving while under the influence of intoxicating alcoholic beverages and driving after his driver's license was revoked. His trial is set for Jan. 22 on each charge.

Willie Dunn, Monroe Negro, denied a charge of attempted murder and trial date was set for Feb. 17. He also is charged with simple obstruction of a highway.

QUESTIONED

On the night of Oct. 21, Deputy Sheriff Walter E. Wilhite went to Dunn's residence in the Foster Homes, and questioned him about the highway charge.

Dunn is charged with grabbing a .12-gauge shotgun and attempting to wheel around on the deputy. The gun discharged, wounding Dunn in the left armpit. His arm later was amputated at Conway Memorial hospital.

Alonzo Dixon Jr., indicted by the Grand Jury on a murder charge in connection with the slaying of Alfred Murphy on June 20, pled innocent. His trial is set for Feb. 15.

Charged with speeding were: Wilbur Bishop, fined $35 or 10 days; David Lee Pitts, trial Jan. 15; Timothy L. Wheat, trial Jan. 15; Willie L. Grimble, fined $50 or 15 days.

Also charged with failure to post bond were Pitts, fined $25 or 10 days, and Wheat, trial set for Jan. 15.

PLEAS ENTERED

Six persons charged with disturbing the peace entered the following pleas: Lawson Bradford, innocent, trial Dec. 18; Charles T. Buford, Harold Lee Taylor, Gilbert Wayne Eubanks, and Murphy Wright, guilty each fined $25 and costs or 10 days; Walter O. Willis, innocent, trial Jan. 15.

On charges of reckless driving, bond was called on John Y. Brooks when he failed to appear for arraignment. Pleading innocent were: Eugene Brown Jr., trial Jan. 22; Billye Joyce Burns, trial Jan. 15; Ather D. Garvan. trail Jan. 22; Lee Thomas, trial Jan. 22; George P. Young Jr., trial continued to Jan. 15; Alexander Harper, trial Jan. 22.

Sentenced for reckless driving were: John W. Bush, John L. Hand, Doyle Dewayne Land, Forrest N. Warren, each fined $50 or 15 days; Henry Cooper, Willie Edward Washington and Earnest L. White, each fined $25 or 10 days.

Cooper and Dave P. Anding each were fined $25 or 10 days for driving with switched plates. Otha Thomas denied the charge and will be tried Jan. 22.

Otis C. Capers, charged with malicious mischief, (making a false report to the Sheriff's Department) will be tried Jan. 22.

Virgia Harris will be tried on Jan. 15 on a charge of driving without a chauffeur's license.

Tom Henderson was called on bond, Daron Floyd Riley was fined $25 or 10 days, and Frank Watson will be tried on Jan. 29, each on charges of driving without a license.

Henderson also was called on bond on a charge of failure to post bond within the required time.

Mason A. Neathery will be tried Jan. 22 on a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicating alcoholic beverages.

Bond was called on: Bill Roane, slated for trail on a hit and run driving charge, and Herman G. Anderson, charged with permitting operation of a motor vehicle with an improper muffler and failure to post bond.

Warning Issued Against Books From America

LONDON (UPI) —British paperbacked book distributors warned Friday that a flood of what they called cheap, lurid, and near-obscene American books would arrive in Britain soon.

But a check of the home-grown products displayed in London book stores showed examples that would make the American paperbacked trade blush and the American censors act.

The British claimed that lifting of import restrictions on low-priced American fiction books meant that millions of copies of "this sort of filth" would be dumped here.

HUGE PARADE

Hawaii Notes Admission Day

HONOLULU (UPI) — The 50th state of Hawaii, its famed beach resorts overflowing with tourists and visiting dignitares, Friday celebrated its first admission day.

Gov. William F. Quinn, as grand marshal, led the biggest parade in island history along a three mile route on Ala Moana Boulevard from Waikiki to downtown Honolulu.

Islanders were enjoying a five-day celebration that began on Thanksgiving Day and winds up Monday. For most, it was a holiday until Monday.

Madam Pele, the volcano goddess, added her bit Thursday when Milauea Iki crater on the island of Hawaii blew up again with a 16-hour show of nature's fireworks.

The 40-year-old governor, first to hold the post by election instead of appointment, led a parade that included 2,500 men in the military sections alone.

There were bands from the Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, Air Force, National Guard and reserves. Twelve floats displayed the history and culture of the islands and there were floats or entries representing each of the other 49 states.

The royal Hawaiian band, long a feature of steamship arrivals, and the Aloha Week Royal Court in colorful Hawaiian costumes were other parade features.

It was estimated 100,000 persons lined the parade route.

Visiting dignitaries included Secretary of Interior Fred Seaton, one of the strong backers of statehood. There were five United States senators, several congressmen, official representatives of state governors, State Department officials and foreign diplomats.

There was such a hubbub at the airport Thursday that at least one foreign official was lost temporarily. August F. Ompi, Indonesia's minister counselor to Washington, arrived ungreeted and without hotel accommodations.

He was about to make an angry departure back to the mainland when the Royal Hawaiian Hotel found him a suite and he agreed to stay until Sunday.

Thursday Hawaii paid tribute to Hawaii's war dead for the part they played not only in national victory but in bringing the islands into the Union.

Arrest Follows Probe Of Blaze Near Winnsboro

WINNSBORO (Special) — The arrest of Willie Howard Jr., Negro, 22, Route 1, Winnsboro, completed the investigation of a fire that swept across 195 acres of land one mile southeast of here doing extensive property damage and threatening several homes Thursday.

According to law enforcement agents of the Louisiana Forestry Commission, who investigated, Howard was charged with simple arson and placed in the Franklin Parish jail. Bond was set at $500.

According to agents, Howard said he had started to visit some friends and changed his mind. He rested a while in a vacant house on the "Old Ellis Place" and then "set the grass on fire to see it burn."

District Forester James N. Stevens, says investigators are working overtime on the rash of forest fires that have occurred and reminds the public that it is against the law to allow fire to spread negligently.

Such an offense, he said is punishable by a fine of up to $300 or 30 days in jail or both. Fires set deliberately are punishable by penalties of up to $5,000 fine or 10 years at hard labor or both, he added.

Gov. Coleman Could Call Special Meet

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Gov. J. P. Coleman weighed comment from legislators Friday to decide whether to call a special legislative session Tuesday.

Coleman told The Associated Press he has not mailed the official proclamation but that he had mailed lawmakers a copy of a proclamation containing 15 items and asked for comment on whether they would cooperate.

"They've been calling in and wiring in all the time," he said. "I'll know by the weekend whether to call them to Jackson at noon Tuesday."

Coleman's hesitancy about calling the session stemmed from a heart attack suffered by House Speaker Sillers of Bolivar County in Frankfurt, Germany, while on official business in Europe.

Sillers had told Coleman he would go along with some of the items Coleman wanted considered. The governor hesitated to call a session until he determined the feeling of the lawmakers.

The proclamation he mailed lawmakers was one he planned to issue before Sillers' attack.

He declined to discuss the items he planned to include in the official proclamation.

But he has told newsmen he wanted the Legislature to consider raising the 4 per cent ceiling on Balance Agriculture With Industry bonds, appropriating funds for a state coliseum, donating land for a boll weevil laboratory at Mississippi State University, re[illegible] the documentary stamp [illegible] and appropriating emergency funds for college buildings.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

FOR EISENHOWER

Solon Endorses Good Will Tour

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. John J. Sparkman (D-Ala.) Friday endorsed President Eisenhower's forthcoming 11-nation good will tour as a move that should win friends abroad for the United States.

Sparkman, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the 1952 democratic vice-presidential nominee, said the principal value of Eisenhower's mission is its "public demonstration to the world that the United States is interested in peace."

Sparkman told newsmen the President personally "has a great capacity for building up an attitude of friendship for this country."

"I'm glad he's going," Sparkman added. "I believe there will be some good from the trip because he has a way about him that creates confidence and we certainly need such an attitude of friendship in the countries he is going to visit."

Sparkman's comments constituted one of the warmest endorsements of the President's trip yet made by a high-ranking Democrat.

In the field of foreign affairs, he said, "the biggest weight around our necks so far as the nations of the world are concerned is the image that Russia has been able to develop that we are a war-making people."

Sparkman said he believed the most significant result of Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's visit to the United States was his subsequent concession that he was convinced that the American people do not want war.

"During all these years, we have been preaching to the world just that," Sparkman said. "If the President can get that idea across, we'll be in a much better position."

The President intends to brief Democratic and Republican congressional leaders alike before leaving Dec. 3 for his unprecedented trip to Asia, Africa and Europe. The briefing was designed to increase bipartisan support for his mission.

But the President has rejected as impractical a suggestion by Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.) that he invite former President Harry S. Truman or some other leading Democrat to accompany him on the trip.

Sparkman also told newsmen he expected some progress to be made at the contemplated summit meeting between Khrushchev and the Western heads of government next year. The conference is expected to be held in Geneva in late April.

GOP Voting Is Scheduled On Dec. 5th

Ouachita's 278 registered Republicans will get a chance to go to the polls on December 5th despite the fact that it's chiefly a day for Democrats.

Republicans will hold a Republican primary in six parishes to elect state committeemen.

In Ouachita, Republicans will elect two committeemen from a field of four candidates — attorney Robert Easterly, newspaperman John Bluck, jeweler Kenneth Lee and retired engineer C. C. Boardman.

Republican primaries will be held in Orleans, Jefferson, Tangipahoa, Caddo and Iberia parishes, as well as Ouachita.

With a general election scheduled for sometime in April, the Republican p arty, struggling to become a party in Louisiana, has 8,733 registered voters.

CANDIDATE

The Democrats will choose their governor from a field of 11 candidates next Saturday, probably sending the campaign into a second primary, January 9.

Thus, Republicans are awaiting the outcome of the Democratic race. A strong Democratic winner may keep the Republicans quiet, satisfied enough just in making a bid for a two-party system in Louisiana.

Certificates Awarded To Recluse's Heirs

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Federal District Judge J. Skelly Wright today awarded $22,000 in gold certificates, found in a mattress last year, to the heirs of a Covington, La., recluse.

The gold certificates were found when the mattress was being renovated in Hammond. They had been stuffed inside in a diaper.

The mattress was sold for $2.50 on the death of Emily Baton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clelan, who purchased the mattress, and Miss Baron's heirs both registered claims to the certificates.

The Federal Reserve Bank said the certificates have full value.

Crackdown Seen For Servicemen

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Good news for those who cry that servicemen are soft:

The base that first trains all Air Force recruits announced Friday it is tossing out the frills and ordering more physical conditioning and drills.

This is Lackland Air Force Base which gained national notice because it permitted recruits to skip physical training in favor horseback riding and roller skating.

Such courses as military law, history and traditions will be slashed, many of them in half.

Physical training will be doubled, Maj. Gen. Robert Stillman, Lackland commander, said.

"The pendulum has swung the other way," he declared, referring to previous treatment of basic trainees.

Lackland processed 84,000 airmen last year. By slashing the frills, the base can handle about 22,000 more men annually, and get them into combat units faster.

For the first four weeks of training, they henceforth will receive eight hours' physical conditioning weekly, compared with the present four hours.

In the second cycle of training, after some men have been sent to specialist schools, those remaining will receive about an hour more of physical training each week than in times past.

And the recruites face much more drilling, the commander said And, as any muscle weary ex-serviceman can attest, drill is strenuous physical training itself.

Commented a colonel who wouldn't let his name be used: "They may not know what a Russian general looks like after this, but they'll be able to knock the dickens out of him."

Probe Starts Into Actions Of Corporation

NEW YORK (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission began an investigation Friday into "corporate actions" of the Curtiss-Wright Corp. to determine if they were taken deliberately during the last week to affect the stock market.

Paul Windels Jr., regional administrator for the Southern New York and Eastern New Jersey regions of the SEC, said he called in Curtiss-Wright's president, Roy Hurley, and other officers for questioning Friday.

"Last Monday, the corporation announced production of a new type engine with only two moving parts," Windels said. "Last Wednesday they announced a cut in their regular dividend and we are investigating to see if this sequence of corporation actions was done deliberately to have an effect on the market.

"Shortly after announcing the new engine details the market on Curtiss-Wright stock went up more than five points in one day," Windels said, adding: "Shortly after they announced the proposed cut in dividends there was a scramble to unload.

"This twin action has had marked effect on trading in stocks of the corporation and whenever we detect any unusual corporate activity we run a market quiz."

He said he spoke with Hurley and other officials of the firm regarding the matter but declined to comment other than to say, "the investigation will continue."

Jefferson Jury Is Postponing Probe Report

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Jefferson Parish grand jury today postponed until after the Dec. 5 election its report on the probe of alleged kickbacks to Sheriff William S. Coci's political campaign by Coci's employes.

Jury foreman Lionel Bernardi said the jury would be ready to report "a few days after" Dec. 7. The jury has been conducting an investigation into the alleged kickbacks for several weeks.

One of Coci's deputies said a regular scale had been set up for kickbacks to aid Coci's campaign for re-election.

Forced contributions, the deputy said, ranged up to $200 for employes who made $500 per month.

Coci answered the charges with a contention that those persons who didn't want to contribute should look for other jobs.

In scoring 77 victories during the 1959 harness meeting at New York's Yonkers Raceway, trainer-driver Billy Haughton's standardbreds earned $392,832.

Pet Lioness Attacks Youth, Turns On Owner

But the boy, John Woodbury, escaped serious injury because Togey's claws and fangs had been removed. She had only her jaw teeth left.

Togey's owner, Lloyd Woodbury, a taxidermist, pulled the animal from John, his nephew, then shot and killed it with a .22 caliber rifle when it turned on him.

Woodbury said he was hunting with John and another nephew, Glenn Woodbury, 15, and he allowed Togey to tag along.

"Then Togey started stalking John. She knocked him down and the smell of blood must have set her off. She just reverted, I guess. You never know about wild animals."

Woodbury, who was given the 140-pound animal when it was a cub, kept Togey on a leash in his taxidermy shop but let her go free when he had her out in the country.

"She had never done anything like that before," he said.

A physician reported that John suffered cuts and bruises about his head and mild shock but was in good condition.

College Gets Grant From Foundation

The National Science Foundation has granted Northeast Louisiana State College the sum of $44,300 for a summer institute in biology and chemistry for high school science teachers.

The funds were granted for a nine-week program, scheduled to begin early in July, 1960.

Dr. Aaron Seamster, chairman of the biology department, will be director of the institute. Dr. William K. Easley, chairman of the chemistry department, will be in charge of the chemistry section.

EXPECTED

About 30 high school science teachers are expected to attend. Two courses will be offered: current trends and developments in biology and practical aspects and modern developments in chemistry. Participants will register for both courses.

Field trips are scheduled in each course, and guest lecturers from other colleges and universities are expected to address the classes.

Generous stipends are to be awarded participants in the institute, as well as their dependents.

Information on the program will be made available to high school principals in the near future. Seamster said that he would welcome inquiries from potential participants.

TENTH STRAIGHT WIN

Neville Trounces Minden, 28-6 In AA Playoff Opener

By BOB ANDERSON
World Sports Editor

RUSTON — Neville proved its superiority in the first three minutes and pounded home several more lessons on the way to a convincing 28 to 6 rout of Minden in a state Class AA bi-district playoff here Friday night.

Coach Bill Ruple's Tigers showed their class to Minden's Crimson Tide and approximately 4,000 shivering fans by marching 72 yards in seven plays to start off the first quarter, came back with another touchdown in the period, a third in the second quarter and a final in the fourth.

Neville's victory was over a team that had knocked over another unbeaten Tiger eleven in 1956. Neville, state AA runnerup last year, was in no danger last night.

Minden, a highly regarded team that had won nine straight since opening this season with a loss to Ruston, was never in the ball game until the closing moments. Coach Elton Kelly's tide went one yard into Neville's end of the playing field on the first play of the second quarter and didn't see Neville territory again until the fourth.

Halfback Neal Gunn, who started Neville off to its 35-0 runaway over Ouachita last week with a long touchdown jaunt in the first three minutes, dashed 47 yards here last night for Neville's first touchdown. The score came with only two minutes and twenty seconds gone in the quarter, and Neville followed it up with another with 47 seconds left to go in the period, when Devone Payne plunged one yard.

Joe Cage went one yard for the third Neville score with 50 seconds to go in the half, after quarterback Joe Turner had set it up with a 61-yard gallop to the four.

Neville started a 73-yard march in the third quarter, finished it in the fourth when Turner slid a half - yard for a touchdown. Early in the march, Turner had gone 42 yards for a touchdown that was called back on an illegal use of hands penalty.

Cage kicked all four of the extra points for Neville. Minden's District 1-A champions finally got moving in the final period on the passing of quarterback Lamar Greer and the running of fullback Bobby Ashley, going 87 yards in thirteen plays to score just before the game ended.

Ashley pulled a half - yard for the touchdown, but Charles Connell's conversion attempt was wide. Ashley gentrated about the only offense Minden was able to muster against Neville's hard - nosed line. The 175-pound fullback gained 71 yards, all but seven of Minden's rushing total. Greer hit on five of nine passes for 64 yards to round out Minden's offensive showing.

STATISTICS

Neville will have a week off before it sees playoff action again. Eunice and DeRidder battle for the 4-AA title tonight with the winner slated to tangle with 3-AA champ Natchitoches next Friday.

That winner in turn will play Neville the following weekend.

Neville rolled up 310 yards rushing and none passing in rolling to their tenth straight victory of the season. Gunn was the top gainer with 105 yards in twelve trips. Cage got 74 yards in 17 carries, and Payne picked up 41 yards in twelve trips. Turner had the top average for Neville, gaining 71 yards in five carries for a 14-yard average.

Turner tried only one pass and missed, as Neville stuck almost strictly to the ground.

Neville's line, turning in one of its best performances in a great season, outcharged Minden's forwards throughout the game. All-State tackle candidate Mickey Cox turned in another tremendous performance on defense, along with center Lucian Branch, halfback R. F. Wilson, tackle Charlie Snapp and end Jimmy Love.

Neville won the toss to open the game, and immediately started winning everything else. The Tigers received the kickoff and moved quickly to the Minden 47 on a quick burst by Cage, Payne and Gunn, before halfback Gunn ran wide to the right, cut back quickly, passed into the clear at the 30, and sprinted into the end zone standing up.

After Minden took the kickoff and couldn't move, Neville ground out another touchdown march on 52 yards in ten plays, with Payne punching one yard off tackle for the touchdown.

Minden lost a scoring opportunity in the second period because of an extra man on the field. Henry McClure charged through to block a Cage punt deep in Neville territory and the Tide recovered on the Tiger 16 but the officials counted 12 Tidesmen on the play and Neville picked up a first down instead of losing the ball.

The penalty was one of many. Minden was penalized nine times for 72 yards, four of the penalties being for personal fouls. Minden lost several players because of injuries during the rough game.

Late in the second period, Neville started off on its own 35. Turner went wide on the first play and dashed down the right sidelines 61 yards to the Minden four before Taylor finally pushed him out of bounds. Payne went two yards and Cage ran it twice, going over from the 1 on his second try.

Cage kicked the extra point, and Neville had a 21-0 lead with 50 seconds to go.

Both teams were shut out in the third period, with Neville taking over on its own 27 late in the quarter, before starting its last touchdown push.

On the next-to-last play of the quarter, Turner went wide again and went 42 yards for a touchdown, aided by a tremendous block by Cox that took out three Minden defenders. But the play was called back and Neville was assessed 15 yards for illegal use of hands.

Runs by Cage, Bill Becton, and Devon Payne kept the drive moving, and Turner finally got his touchdown in the fourth period on a half-yard sneak. Cage added the extra point, and Neville had a 28-0 advantage with 8 minutes and 20 seconds left in the game.

Minden finally recovered sufficiently to drive for its touchdown in the closing minutes, going 87 yards in 13 play for a score. Ashley gained 47 of the yards in the push, and Greer picked up 36 on 3 pass completions.

Ashley went a half-yard for the touchdown with a minute and ten seconds to go. Connell's kick was wide, and the game ended three plays later.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco's new 15 million dollar baseball park, seating 45,000, will be opened April 12 as the San Francisco Giants and St. Louis Cardinals start play in the National League.

The field, Candlestick Park, has been built on the bay near the city's southern boundary.

The Giants said Friday the 77 home games next season will be played on 76 dates. The only double header is with the Chicago Cubs on Memorial Day.

There will be 13 Saturday home dates. Twenty-three night games are on the Candlestick Park schedule—four against Milwaukee and Philadelphia, and three against Los Angeles, St. Louis, Chicago, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati.

The first night game will be played April 14 against the Cubs.

PANTHERS BOW, 7-0

Dragons Triumph, Take 2-B Crown

LAKE PROVIDENCE, La. (Special) — Quarterback Noble Ellington sprinted 30 yards in the seecond period for the game's only touchdown as the Mangham Dragons downed Lake Providence, 7-0, to win the district 2-B title.

Guard Glen Stamper set up the winning touchdown, intercepting a Panther pass and returning it 50 yards to the 30. Jerry Smith added the extra point to make it 7-0.

Lake Prividence threatened once in the second quarter but a stout Dragon defense repulsed the drive. In the third stanza Mangham marched to the Panther five where they were held on downs.

The playoff game was necessary when both clubs finished in a tie for the district title. Lake Providence took a 12-0 decision over Mangham earlier in the season.

Numerous fumbled marred the contest, played before a fine crowd despite near-freezing weather. Mangham trailed in the first down department seven to three.

Mangham will meet Wisner next week in the first round of state playoff action.

April Skies and Dusky Ram will carry 117 pounds, New Commander 115 and Chinese Bandit and Gaylad 114, scaling down to 108 on My Round.

The second division will have Midas Farm's Ira Eaker, winner of three races this year, under top weight of 122 pounds. Opposing the speedy son of Our Love II will be Win with Win and Benell 117, Doc Schaeffer 115, Harrison County 114, Lupe de Troit and Praesepe 110, Marikay 109, Stradone, Prey and Edgar G. 108.

The track was closed Friday and officials expect a banner Saturday on the heels of Thursday's record-breaking opening program when 19,075 fans wagered $1,012,477.

AFL Owners Reject Offer To Join NFL

HOUSTON (AP)—K. S. (Bud) Adams, owner of the Houston franchise in the new American Football League, said Friday night he and league President Lamar Hunt of Dallas have turned down a new offer to join the rival National Football League.

"We're going full steam ahead and will battle them right down to the end," Adams said. "We're not looking at any more NFL propositions."

Adams said he and Hunt conferred here Thursday night and early Friday with an NFL club owner who flew in by plane. They also talked with two others by telephone, he said.

Adams declined to identify the rival loop owners with whom they met. He said he and Hunt were offered Houston and Dallas franchises in the NFL "with no strings attached" and at assessments considerably lower than the going rate.

The offer, he said, would not include the other cities of the AFL — New York, Boston, Buffalo, Minneapolis, Los Angeles and Denver.

"Lamar and I talked all day and came to the conclusion that the NFL is still trying to sabotage the AFL," Adams said. "We're not looking at any more NFL propositions.

"That was a last-ditch effort for us to go in with them and we're not going to do it. Both Lamar and I are getting sick of them blowing smoke rings and trying to get us on their own terms.

AFTERNOON GAME

Techmen Close Out Season Against Tough Southerners

RUSTON, La. (Special) — Shooting for an upset win, Louisiana Tech's gridders will close out the '59 slate here Saturday afternoon in an expected rugged battle with highly ranked Mississippi Southern.

Advance ticket sales have been good and a large crowd is expected to be on hand for the non-conference tussle at Tech Stadium. Kickoff time is set for 2 p.m.

Because of the large crowd expected. high school football squads of the area will not be admitted to the game as guests of Tech, it was announced by head coach Joe Aillet of Tech.

Two added attractions for the Saturday afternoon game will be an appearance by the Homer High School band and a performance by the Dixie Dolls of Shreveport.

Both Tech and Southern will take good season marks into the Saturday fray. Southern has more than held its own against some of the large schools this fall, winning six out of nine frays. Tech is riding the crest of eight straight wins after dropping the season opener to Lamar Tech. A win for the Bulldogs will give them a 9-1 record and Tech's best season mark since 1955.

In the Southerners the Techmen will face one of the biggest lines in small college ranks. Coach Thad Vann's Mississippi eleven has a line that tops 210 pounds per man and only one man is under the 200 mark. Big guns include 225-pound center Charley Ellzey and 220-pound end Hugh McInnis.

Tech will try to hold the Southerners with a light but rugged forward wall that averages 199 per man. Being outweighed up front is nothing new for the Tech team this season, however, as the team has been outweighed in most of the nine tilts so far this fall.

Tech will have a weight advantage in the backfield as the Bulldogs will tip the scales at 191 per man and the Southerners average 175 per back.

Tech's halfbacks J. W. Slack and Paul Hynes are still leading the Canine rushing yardage. Slack has ripped off a total of 585 yards in nine frays and sports a 5.0 average per carry. Hynes has 514 yards to his credit and a 5 - 4 average per tote. Halfback David Williamson picked up 69 yards last week against Northeast State to take over Third-place in total yardage with 252 and a very good average of 6.4 per carry.

Southern's top ground gainer is fullback Buddy Supple who has 348 yards to his credit and a 4.0 average in 87 carries. In second place for the Mississippi eleven is halfback Arnold Spence with 197 yards in 61 tries.

Tech's Slack continues as one of the top scorers in the Gulf States Conference with his 39 points. Hynes has put across four TDs for a total of 24 markers. Topping the Southern scoring is Supple with a total of 32 points in nine games.

Tom Causey, fine Bulldog end from Monroe, took over Tech's pass receiving yardage last week and has now hauled down 13 aerials for a total of 145 yards and three touchdowns. In the Southern camp the top pass receiver is halfback Andin McLeon who has grabbed 10 aerials good for 141 yards and two TDs. End Jerry Hudson of Tech has 105 yards on nine catches this fall.

Mississippi Southern now holds nine straight victories over the Bulldogs. Tech's last win came back in 1949 when the Bulldogs took a 34-13 battle. Southern won last year's game at Hattiesburg, Miss., by a 14-0 count.

Miss. Southern

La. Tech

Mustangs May Draw Bid To Liberty Bowl

DALLAS (AP)—Southern Methodist heard Friday that it might get into the Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia against Penn State if it makes a good showing against Texas Christian in the Southwest Conference finale Saturday.

George Kerrington, vice-president of the Philadelphia classic, came here to advise SMU officials that Southern Methodist, Georgia Tech, Georgia or Clemson are in line for a bid.

Kerrington said the Liberty Bowl opponent for Penn State would be selected Saturday night.

Steers To Start Bowl Practice

The 20-17 triumph Thursday gave the Longhorns a berth in the Cotton Bowl, where they meet Syracuse Jan. 1.

Practice for the Cotton Bowl will start the second week in December. Coach Darrell Royal plans to leave for Mexico on a hunting trip early next week. Later he will fly to New York.

AT AQUEDUCT

Pair Head Field For Display 'Cap

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Whodunit and Dotted Line, both winners in $100,000 races this season, head the field in the $50,000-added Display Handicap at Aqueduct Saturday as racing stages its final week end in New York for 1959. It's the top attraction on a rather skimpy national program.

Jan Burke's Whodunit, winner of Hollywood Park's $100,000 Sunset Handicap, is top weighed at 120 pounds for the 2-mile Display for 3-year-olds and up. If all 12 entries start the race will be worth $58,600 with the winner getting $37,490.

Conn McCreary will ride Whodunit while Bili Boland will be up on Dotted Line, the 6 - year - old King Ranch mare who won one division of the $100,000 Man O'War Handicap at Aqueduct.

Elsewhere a number of $10,000 feature races show on the card. Another, the Newport Handicap, was cancelled at Narragansett Park because of a lack of entries.

The two top weights, Mrs. H.H. Hect's Monte Carlo (122) and Up and Coming (120), the New Zealand representative at the Laurel International, dropped out of the Exterminator Handicap at Pimlico. That left Ashlar, with jockey Sammy Boulmetis, carrying the most weight at 118 for the 1¼ miles.

Tropical Park, which split its opening day feature Thursday, comes back after a day off with a two-division Alligator Handicap at 5½ furlongs for 2-year-olds. Eleven are entered in each division with the Midas Farm's Ira Eaker, top weight at 122, in the second division with Larry Gilligan aboard. The Hasty House Farm's Prince Charger (119) with jockey John Rotz, tops the first division, which includes the April Fool Farm's April Skies (117), only stakes winner in either division.

Battle Dance and Twentyoneguns shared the top weight at 120 in the 1 1-16-mile San Mateo Handicap at Bay Meadows. The Searcher (118) is next among the six expected to start. Jockey Don Pierce will ride Battle Dance, with George Taniguchi on Twentyoneguns and Gordon Lanoway on The Searcher.

Redbird Wish (118), a M. H. Van Berg entry with Sorex (110), was given the top impost in an expected field of eight for the Crescent City Handicap at the Fair Grounds. Jockey Wayne Chambers is up on Redbird Wish for the 1 1-16 miles for 3-year-olds and up.

AF-Colorado Game Looms As Air Battle

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Colorado and Air Force, a couple of teams who share a conviction the best way to play football is to throw it as often as possible, got some good news Friday.

Fair and warmer weather is predicted for their game in Folsom Stadium Saturday.

Gale Weidner, Colorado's sophomore All-Big Eight quarterback, and Rich Mayo, the split-T craftsman for Air Force, are the two best passers in the Rocky Mountains.

Colorado's sophomore-studded team, after a poor season's start, has won three of its last four for a 4-5 mark to date. Air Force has lost two of its three games since a 13-13 tie with Army and sports a 5-3-1 reading.

SMU Seeks To End TCU Title Hopes

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Southern Methodist will try to thwart Texas Christian's hopes for a Southwest Conference championship tie and at the same time further its bowl aspirations when the two old rivals clash here Saturday.

A crowd of 40,000 is expected for the season finale.

Texas Christian's future is already assured—it will play in the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston Dec. 19—but the Christians also would like to tie Texas and Arkansas for the conference championship and boast an 8-2 record for the season. It would give the Horned Frogs a good mark to carry into the bowl game.

Don Meredith, the passing star of Southern Methodist, faces the Frogs for the last time and if he can shoot them down he will finish ahead in his career. TCU whipped the Methodist quarterback when he was a sophomore but Meredith led SMU to a 20-13 upset of the Frogs last year. However, TCU already was conference champion.

7 DOMINATE VOTING

4 Repeaters On All-SWC Squad

By ED FITE

DALLAS (UPI) — Backs Don Meredith of Southern Methodist, Jim Mooty of Arkansas and Jack Spikes of Texas Christian along with tackle Don Floyd of TCU won all - Southwest Conference psurs for the second straight year on the United Press International honor team announced today.

This quartet along with Texas guard Maurice Doke, Arkansas center Wayne Harris and Floyd's TCU tackle running mate, Bob Lilly, dominated the voting by UPI sports writers and conference scouts.

Texas and TCU each placed three men on the team, Arkansas and SMU two each and Rice one. Baylor and Texas A&M failed to place, but spotted one man each on the second team.

The fourth man in the backfield with quarterback Meredity, fullback Spikes and halfback Mooty was the only sophomore to make the mythical team—Texas' Jack Collins.

In addition to TCU's tackle tandem of Floyd and Lilly and Harris at center, the first team line was composed of ends Monte Lee of Texas and Henry Christopher of SMU and guards Doke and Rufus King of Rice.

Meredith, holder of the national pass-completion proficiency record, was the only unanimous choice, while Doke, Floyd and Spikes missed only one first-team ballot and Harris and Lilly only two. All six were named on every ballot, but second - place ballots kept five of them from being unanimous.

he voting was not close for any first-team positions except at end where Christopher had stiff competition from Baylor's Sonny Davis and TCU's Bubba Meyer, who wound up on the second team.

Other second team honors went to tackles Larry Stephens of Texas and Billy Luplow of Arkansas, guards Ramon Armstrong and Roy Lee Rambo of TCU, center Boyd King of Rice, quarterback Charles Milstead of Texas A&M, halfbacks Lance Alworth of Arkansa ,sGlynn Gregory of SMU and Rene Ramirez of Texas, whose power running could be used as a fullback. No other fullback came close to this second quartet in vote - pullingp ower.

Lee, Harris, King and Lilly are juniors and, like Collins, will have a chance to repeat next year.

Meredity polled the maximum of 70 points; Dike, Floyd and Spikes got 68; Harris and Lilly 66; Collins 62 Mooty 61; 51; King 44 and Christopher 34.

Daniel Says AL To Take In Brooklyn

NEW YORK (AP)—The World-Telegram and Sun Friday said the American League will consider an expansion plan to include Brooklyn and Minneapolis-St. Paul at its annual meeting Dec. 17.

The story, by Dan Daniel, said the Brooklyn team would play in the 50,000-seat stadium proposed by the City of New York for Flushing Meadows. That stadium and site offer was turned down by Dodger owner Walter O'Malley before he shifted his National League franchise from Brooklyn to Los Angeles two seasons ago.

The plan was proposed by a high official in the American League, the story said, adding that the plan reportedly was discussed by co-owner Dan Topping and Del Webb of the New York Yankees and General Manager George Weiss. That American League club would have to approve the addition of another club in its territory.

Weiss, a member of the American League's Expansion Committee, was quoted as stating that the league decided expansion "to nine or 10 clubs for 1960 was not feasible. The jury now is out on expanding in 1961."

Weiss also was quoted as saying American League President Joe Cronin probably will call an early session of the expansion committee at next month's league meeting in Miami.

Yankee officials were reported en route to the minor league meetings opening next week in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Cronin said in Boston before leaving for Florida that his only comment was that the league's fact finding committee had been ordered to investigate every aspect of possible expansion.

Vols Attempt To Rebound In Vandy Tilt

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Vanderbilt and Tennessee meet Saturday with the Commodores seeking their first football victory over the Volunteers in Knoxville since 1937.

Tennessee will be trying to bounce back after successive setbacks by Mississippi (37-7) and Kentucky (20-0). The Vols have been unable to develop any punch in their single wing attack since their 14-3 upset of Louisiana State. State.

Vandy will present in halfback Tom Moore one of the finest running backs in its history. The 211-pound Moore has accounted for 992 yards this fall—569 rushing, 170 on passes, 62 on pass interceptions and 191 on kickoff returns. He is third in Southeastern Conference scoring with 54 points.

Vanderbilt and Tennessee currently are tied for seventh place in the 12-team SEC with identical .500 percentages. Vandy has a 2-2-2 record in league play, while Tennessee has a 3-3-1 mark.

SYRACUSE NAVY PICK

By STEVE SNIDER

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Sports of all sorts:

Army coach Dale Hall says Oklahoma is the best team the Cadets have played against so far this year, picking the Sooners over Penn State and Illinois . . . those three all beat Army . . . "of course," Hall added. "Illinois must have come a long way since we played out there."

Not much doubt about Navy coach Wayne Hardin's best opponent pick . . . the Midshipmen tangled with top-ranked Syracuse and lost 32-6 . . . "Syracuse and Maryland are the only teams that outgained us this year, but we beat Maryland," said Hardin.

Ed Lopat, new pitching coach of the New York Yankees, is a firm believer in spotting flaws in a pitcher via movies . . ." Sometimes you can talk your head off and still fail to make your man understand," said Lopat. "But show him a movie of himself and he usually can see his trouble right away. That's what we did with Whitey Ford when he came out of the Army and he got back in the groove quickly."

The trick, though, is to get movies of a guy when he's going good . . . not many Yankees were fit movie subjects last year.

Buff Donelli, whose Columbia football team wound up last in the Ivy League, says his trouble was too many quarterbacks . . . "Any coach who fools with four quarterbacks in one year ought to have his head examined," Buff conceded . . . However, Buff's trouble apparently was trying to decide which three were the worst.

Pete Reiser, former Brooklyn Dodger star who moves up to the Los Angeles Dodgers as a coach next year, wasn't even unlucky. He made a habit of banging himself up against outfield walls chasing fly balls . . . Branch Rickey finally decided to put foam rubber padding on the walls in Brooklyn but Pete had "had it" by then.

Monty Stickles, a great end and field goal kicker, is one of 17 Notre Dame seniors winding it up against Southern California at South Bend, Ind., Saturday . . . In his three seasons, Stickles booted field goals for victory margins over Army, Duke and Navy . . . last week his conversion kicks downed Iowa, 20-19 . . . He is third on the squad in yardage on passes caught, fourth in number of tackles made and is one of three Irish players who blocked a kick this year.

Syracuse coach Ben Schwartzwalder wired New York football writers this week, "we have a good chance of maintaining our perfect football record this Saturday" . . . It's an open date.

Dick McCann, general manager of the Washington Redskins, says the club has suffered so many injuries this year it never has been able to start its 11 best offensive and 11 best defensive players in any game . . . "We've had everything but snow blindness," he says.

PLAY WEST MONROE TONIGHT

Irish Divide Pair With Ram Cagers

BASTROP, La. (Special) — Three players connected in double figures here Friday night to lead St. Matthew's to a 61-47 victory over Bastrop and hand the Rams their third loss without a win.

In the girls' opener, Bastrop took the measure of the invaders, 50-20.

Wes Kendall put in 15 points to spark the Rams. Teammate Charles Burks tallied 11 and Ned Head scored 9.

Bastrop jumped into a 12-10 lead after one quarter, but Coach Jim Mahoney's Irish came back to lead 31-26 at intermission and were never headed.

Miami Meets Florida With Bid At Stake

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A Miami football team that came back from disaster in one season is angling for an Orange Bowl bid when it meets state rival Florida Saturday.

Coach Andy Gustafson shook up his staff of assistants, meshed a good crop of sophomores with 14 lettermen off last year's 2-8 team and has turned out a winner.

The Hurricanes have won six and lost three. They are working on a string of three impressive victories and are favored to make it four against a Florida team that has been having its troubles.

If Miami wins, it is expected to move into the Orange Bowl Jan. 1 against Missouri of the Big Eight Conference.

The Gators have four victories, four losses and one tie.

Florida will have to stop Fran Curci if it is to win. The 152-pound Miami quarterback, at the peak of a fine career, is accurate with both long and short passes. He is adept at the run-pass option play which has given Florida trouble before.

Usually a strong defensive team, Florida this year is 10th among the 12 Southeastern Conference teams on defense. Pass defense statistics are respectable but they may be misleading since Vanderbilt and Georgia found weaknesses there and other opponents were able to gain well enough on the ground and didn't need to pass.

Miami's line is bigger than Florida's. And it prove its mettle the past two weeks against South Carolina and Michigan State, which Miami Whipped 26-6 and 18-13 respectively.

At halfback, Miami's Bob Rosbaugh and Jim Vollenweider appear better than anything Florida has except possibly Jack West-Brook. Miami's Frank Bouffard and Florida's Jon MacBeth are both fine fullbacks.

LAST BIG SATURDAY

Army-Navy Tops Schedule Of Traditional Contests

By JACK CLARY

Army vs. Navy, the kingpin of all rivalries for color, pageantry and hard-nosed college football, tops a traditional week end schedule Saturday that also features a host of interesting neighborhood battles.

But don't shut the door on the season, even though this is the last big week end. For the best may be yet to come next Saturday, Dec. 5, when Syracuse, top-ranked in The Associated Press poll for the past three weeks, must whip an upset-minded UCLA team if it wants the mythical national championship.

The fact that Syracuse hisn't playing this week end won't detract from the firework that are expected from coast-to-coast. Five bowl spots are due to be filled and there is a share in the Southwest Conference title at stake.

The great interest, however, still is in the 60th inter-service classing in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium. More than 100,000 spectators and a national television audience are expected to watch subpar Army and Navy teams perform at their season's peak. Game time is 1:30 p.m. with TV handled by NBC.

Army, a one touchdown favorite, will rely on its lonely end offense powered by quarterback Joe Caldwell and ends Bill Carpenter and Don Usry. Navy's Joe Tranchini and Jim Maxfield, a pair of agile quarterbacks, will fire Navy's big salvos. Army's Bob Anderson and Navy's Joe Bellino are top running threats.

Army, 4-3-1 this year, leads the series 30-34-5. Navy has a 4-4-1 log.

Five of the nation's top ranked teams—Louisiana State (No. 3), Texas (No. 4), Wisconsin (No. 5), Washington (No. 9) and Arkansas (No. 10) have finished their seasons and are waiting to play in bowl games.

But only three have opponents. Wisconsin and Washington are set for the Rose Bowl and Texas faces Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl. The others are going to get partners over the week end, in addition to some non-rankers who have accepted bids.

Mississippi (No. 2) probably goes into the Sugar Bowl against LSU if it beats intrastate rival Mississippi State (2-6). The bowl game would be a replay of Ole Miss' only loss (7-3) in nine games to date.

Georgia, Southeastern Conference king at 6-0, ends its regular season against conference and backyard foe Georgia Tech (6-3). The Bulldoge (No. 6) can't announce bowl plans until after the game but indications are that it will pair with Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Texas Christian, looking for a victory to tie Arkansas and Texas for the SWC lead, meets Southern Methodist. The eighth-ranked Horned Frogs form the known half of the Bluebonnet pairings while SMU is one of the teams being considered for Philadelphia's Liberty Bowl against Penn State. Georgia Tech is another.

Miami (Fla.), 12th ranked with a 6-3 record, is looking for the host spot in the Orange Bowl if it beats Florida 4-4-1. Big Eight runner-up Missouri is already in the classic.

The Midwest's big game has Notre Dame (4-5) at home to seventh-ranked Southern California, unbeaten until it lost to UCLA last week. The Irish will be striving to finish at .500 in Coach Joe Kuharich's first season.

UCLA warms up for its game with Syracuse against Utah.

Other top rivalry games include:

EAST: Boston College at Holy Cross.

SOUTHWEST—Baylor at Rice.

FAR WEST—Arizona at Arizona State.

Sooners 3-TD Favorites To Topple State

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma State's Cowboys ride onto Owen Field Saturday seeking to unseat the Oklahoma Sooners for the first time in 14 years in their traditional football battle.

It will be the 54th game in the long rivalry which has seen Oklahoma win 39 times. Oklahoma State has won eight contests and 6 have ended in ties.

The last time the Cowboys claimed victory was in 1945 when All-America Bob Fenimore and his friends ran rampant for a 47-0 decision. But the ensuing years brought nothing but despair for the Cowpokes as Oklahoma marched triumphantly under the guidance of Coach Bud Wilkinson.

AT WEST PALM BEACH

Ragan Smashes Par, Takes Lead

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Dave Ragan of Orlando fired a 7-under-par 65 for a 36 hole total of 135 to seize a three-stroke lead Friday at the halfway point of the $15,000 West Palm Beach Invitational Open Golf Tournament.

Ragan vaulted from sixth to first with his rounds of 32 and 33 over the 6,745-yard West Palm Beach Country Club where par is 72.

Three players tied at 139. Defending champion Pete Cooper of Lakeland had a 69. Garner Dickinson Jr., of Palm Beach shot a 68 and Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., had a 67.

Ragan started with four straight birdies, chipping up eight inches from the hole on No. 1 and missing an eagle by a scant inch on No. 2. A 10-footer on No. 3 and a 15-footer on No. 4 completed the string.

Ragan, winner of the Eastern Open this year and runner-up in several other tournaments, sank his longest successful putt on No. 11, a 30-footer.

His only bogey came on the 17th hole when he hooked into the trees on the left, came back too strong over the green, pitched up and missed a 3-foot putt.

The leaders:

Dave Ragan	70-65—135
Jay Brewer	72-66—138
Arnold Palmer	72-67—139

Jordan's Fight Is Postponed

Jordan, of Los Angeles, has been suffering from the flu. His manager, Jackie McCoy, requested the delay to give Jordan more time to get in shap for the Brazilian champion.

"We asked for the postponement because we have been told this guy Barreto is pretty rough and we are not taking any chances," said McCoy. "I know it's not a title fight but Don has a lot at stake and could lose a lot of his reputation if he fought badly here."

Because of the delay in the welterweight fight, the Dec. 5 bout between Danny Kid, Filippino bantamweight, and Eder Jofre has been set back to Dec. 12.

Bueno, Turman Win Matches In Melbourne Meet

The only American in the tournament, Mimi Arnold of Redwood City, Calif., advanced to the third round with a 6-4, 6-2 victory over Madonna Schacht of Australia.

Neale Fraser, Australia's Davis Cup hero, opened the tournament with a 6-4, 6-0 6-2 romp over Pat Okane. Bob Mark, another ranking Aussie, defeated Brian Kearney 6-2, 6-2, 6-4.

52-Yard Field Goal Longest

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—The Fort Worth Star-Telegram says the 52-yard field goal Texas A&M's Randy Sims kicked against the University of Texas at College Station Thursday was the longest in Southwest Conference history.

Pasqua's boot in the last seconds of the game was from placement on the 36-yard line and won the game for the Mustangs 10-7.

Then as now the goal posts were 10 yards back on the goal line.

Sims' kick was from placement between the 41 and 42-yard lines, but nearer the 42.

SERVICE CLASSIC

By JACK HAND

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Army rules a slight favorite over Navy in their 60th battle Saturday before 100,000 fans at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium. All hands are primed for a passing duel between the Cadets' Joe Caldwell and the Middies' Joe Tranchini.

The weatherman predicted a cool afternoon with variable cloudiness for this annual blend of colorful pageantry and hard-nosed football. The thermometer was expected to dip into the low 40s. Gusts of wind were due to reach between 15 and 25 miles an hour. The game, scheduled for 1:30 p.m. EST, will be carried on NBC television.

For the first time since 1926, new coaches will be on both benches in this game. Dale Hall, whose main job was scouting Navy as an assistant to Red Blaik, has succeeded the colonel at West Point. Wayne Hardin, a member of the Navy staff for four years, has taken over Eddie Erdelatz' old role.

This has been a year of frustration for both teams. Army, No. 3 in the nation last year when it was unbeaten, comes into the big game with a 4-3-1 record. The Cadets lost to Illinois, Penn State and Oklahoma and were held to a 13-13 tie by the Air Force. Navy's record is 4-4-1. The Middies fell before Southern Methodist, Syracuse, Miami and Notre Dame and were tied by Pennsylvania. Neither team regained the peak of its opening victory over Boston Collete.

Injuries to key personnel practically ruined Army's season. No less than 28 men have been sidelined at various times, including Steve Waldrop, the starting right halfback, and Don Bonko, the No. 1 fullback, both lost for the season.

Navy also sputtered and missed fire when Joe Bellino, its ace halfback, was either out of action or crippled. Jim Maxfield, who seemed to have beaten out Tranchini for the starting quarterback job, suffered a severe knee injury in the Maryland game. Although the knee was in a cast for some time, Maxfield has been working out fornabout a week and is expected to see spot duty.

Caldwell and Anderson are the big men for Army. The quarterback, a wiry 6-footer with an accurate arm, has completed 99 of 165 passes or 60 per cent. Anderson, who scored 18 points in Army's 22-6 victory over Navy last year, has gained 270 yards in 62 carries although he has been bothered all year by an injury to his right leg. Anderson also passes occasionally.

It will be the last game for both Caldwell and Anderson as well as Bill Carpenter, the "lonely end." Other Army seniors in the starting line-up are end Don Usry, guard Mike Jezior and center Bob Oswandel. Carpenter, of course, is Caldwell's best catcher, although he has been hampered by shoulder trouble. He has nabbed 39 passes for 498 yards this season.

Tranchini's completion percentage of 54 per cent is inferior to Caldwell's. Maxfield has completed only 46.2 per cent but he hits with the long gainers.

Navy's ground attack centers around Bellino, a racehorse halfback who is very dangerous on punt and kickoff returns. Fullback Joe Matalavage is more consistent at fullback than Army's sophomore Al Rushatz. Among the seniors in the probable Navy starting line-up are Tranchini, Bellino, end George Bezek, tackle Larry Boyer and guard Bill Thomas.

The Army still uses Blaik's "lonely end" offense with the right end split wide. He does not join the huddle getting the plans by hand signals. Army attacks from an unbalanced line.

Hardin's style of play also is basically the same as that used by Erdelatz. The new coach was forced to discard plans of using a two-platoon system because of injuries and lack of depth in the line.

Army holds a 30-24 edge in the series with five tie games among the 59 already played.

Tech Ranks Seventh On NAIA List

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Lenoir Rhyne College of Hickory, N.C., is the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics' No. 1 football team of the year, the NAIA announced Friday.

Lenoir Rhyne, which will host Southern Connecticut State Dec. 5 in the Eastern NAIA championship playoff semifinal, wound up the season with a 9-0 record.

The Bears polled 326 points, most ever given any team in the NAIA ratings.

Western Illinois, also undefeated and untied in 9 games, came in second. Hillsdale, Mich., College, to play Texas A&I at Kingsville, Tex., in the other end of the playoff semifinals Dec. 5, is third.

The winners of the semifinals will meet in St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 19 for the NAIA football championship.

East Texas State was fourth in the final ratings, Texas A&I fifth, Presbyterian of South Carolina sixth, Louisiana Tech seventh then Southern Connecticut, McMurry of Texas and West Chester, Pa., State round out the top ten teams.

Putnam Not Bitter After Suspension

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Co-Capt. Duane Putnam, for eight years a star lineman for the Los Angeles Rams, indicated no bitterness Friday over his suspension for breaking training regulations.

The former College of the Pacific athlete, rated among the best offensive guards in the National Football League, said in his suburban Granada Hills home Friday:

"I played eight years with the Rams and I enjoyed every minute of it.

"The people in the Los Angeles organization are tops and treated me great.

"Presently, all I want to do is get my ankle and shoulder ready so I can play football next fall."

Putnam was flown home from the Rams' temporary training site in New York Thursday by orders of General Manager Pete Rozelle. He had alrady been declared out of the Baltimore game Sunday because of his bad ankle.

Putnam said he is due to have his injuries examined further and predicted an operation might be necessary on his ankle.

KEEN RIVALS

Bowl Scouts To See Atlanta Tilt

By MERCER BAILEY

ATLANTA (AP) — Representatives of four bowls have reserved seats for Saturday's big football game between Southeastern Conference champion Georgia and Georgia Tech.

Officials of the Orange, Gator, Bluebonnet and Liberty bowls are among the 44,000-plus ticket holders for the annual regular season windup between these two keen rivals.

Georgia, ranked sixth nationally, carries an 8-1 won-lost record into the contest. Tech, which dropped out of the national rankings after losing to Alabama, has won six and lost three.

The game, to be played on Tech's home field, is rated a toss-up. There is talk in informed circles that both teams are likely to receive bowl bids if the game is as close as the oddsmakers figure it, regardless of which team wins.

An 8-2 record should qualify Georgia since the Bulldogs are the SEC champs. Tech's past bowl record—eight victories without a loss under Coach Bubby Dodd—is in its favor, along with the closeness of Tech's three losses. Auburn beat Tech by 1 point, 'Bama by 2 and Duke by 3.

Both Dodd and Georgia Coach Wally Butts agree it probably will be a tight game.

"I look for a close score with no more than a touchdown and probably only points separating the two teams," said Dodd, whose teams have lost to Georgia the last two years.

Tech's stock improved slightly late in the week when quarterback Fred Braselton began passing with more ease and accuracy. Braselton, the Yellow Jackets' top offensive operator, missed the Alabama and Notre Dame games with an injured shoulder and arm. Lingering soreness in the joints has prevented him from returning to peak form but Dodd said he looked much better in a Thanksgiving morning drill.

Georgia, a big surprise this season, is in top shape. Quarterback Francis Tarkenton, the SEC's leading passer, is expected to try to capitalize on Tech's spotty aerial defense. The Bulldog ground attack features halfbacks Bobby Walden and Fred Brown and fullbacks Bill Godfrey and Don Soberdash.

Tech has more dangerous runners available than at any time since the second game of the season. Halfbacks Floyd Faucette and Billy Williamshon, who have carried most of the load, will be backed up by speedster Chick Graning, Frank Nix and little Kenny Thompson, plus fullbacks Taz Anderson and Ben Smith.

Va. Tech's Pugh Heads All-Southern

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Alger Pugh of Virginia Tech, the slippery halfback who led the Southern Conference in rushing and scoring, Friday was named captain of the 1959 all-conference team.

The captaincy annually goes to the player who leads the voting in balloting for the honor team conducted by The Associated Press.

Pugh's popularity with coaches, newsmen and radio-TV sportscasters who helped The AP select its team was understandable. The 5-11, 179-pound Tech senior from Fredericksburg, Va., ran for 615 yards and passed for 244 yards, stacking up a total offense of 859 yards.

In addition, he scored 11 touchdowns for a conference-leading 66 points.

Even so, Pugh was a narrow victor in the voting over two other players—ends Carroll Dale of Virginia Tech and Paul Maguire of The Citadel. Dale had been the captain of the 1959 honor squad.

The complete All-Southern.

Ends—Dale and Maguire.

Tackles—Mike Lashley, William and Mary, and Pat Lamberti, Richmond.

Guards—Bill Lopasky, West Virginia, and Mike Zeno, Virginia Tech.

Center—Ron De Melfi, George Washington.

Backs — Howard Dyer, VMI; David Ames, Richmond; Sam Horner, VMI, and Pugh.

49ers Taper Off For Scrap With Browns

WASHINGTON (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers ran through a final light workout Friday before taking off for Cleveland and their National Football League game with the Browns on Sunday.

It will be the first meeting of the two old playmates from the All-America Conference since 1955 when Cleveland won 38-3.

The 49ers are banking on slim John Brodie to break their two-game losing streak and keep them at least tied for the lead in the Western Conference.

The former Stanford passing star, filling in for the injured Y. A. Tittle, has been running the team during the week's workouts at Georgetown University. His coaches say they're not worried about his ability to do the job.

Cleveland is the solid pick, however. The 49ers came East with a 6-1 record and sole ownership of the conference lead. But successive setbacks to the Chicago Bears and Baltimore Colts have dropped them into a tie with the Colts.

The 49er squad will fly to Cleveland Saturday afternoon, and will head for San Francisco right after Sunday's game.

'MUST' GAME

Browns, Frisco In NFL Feature

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The San Francisco 49ers, who hit the road and found it a road to ruin, limp into Cleveland's Municipal Stadium Sunday to face the Browns. It figures to be a bust-up game for the loser's title hopes in the National Football League.

San Francisco was the surprise club of the season just three weeks ago, riding a four-game streak for a 6-1 record as the 49ers rolled east. But they now have lost two straight—14-3 at Chicago against the Bears and 45-14 at Baltimore, a loss that cost them quarterback Y. A. Tittle and left them tied with the Colts for the Western Conference lead.

The 49ers and Colts, defending NFL champs, have 6-3 records with three to play. That means Baltimore could cinch the Western title at San Francisco next week if the Colts can couple a victory over Los Angeles with a San Francisco defeat Sunday. The Colts are 9½-point favorites over the tailend Rams (2-7) at Baltimore.

Cleveland, tied with Philadelphia for second place in the Eastern race after last weekend's 21-20 upset by Pittsburgh, is a 10-point favorite over San Francisco. The Browns and Eagles have 6-3 records and trail the New York Giants (7-2) by a game.

Philadelphia plays at Pittsburgh, with the Steelers (4-4-1) favored by 4. The Giants are at home against Washington (3-6) and are 110-point favorites over the Redskins.

The Bears (5-4) and Chicago Cardinals (2-7) stage another meeting in their anything-can-happen city series in the only other game scheduled. The Bears are favored by 7.

Green Bay (5-5) and the Detroit Lions (2-7-1) are idle after the Packers won their Thanksgiving Day game 24-17.

With Tittle out of action because of a knee injury, the 49ers have to go with seldom-used John Brodie at quarter against Cleveland's bruising Jimmy Brown, fleet Bobby Mitchell and passer Milt Plum. Brown, the NFL's leading rushing for each of his three seasons as a pro, has powered for 1.013 yards—a 112-plus average.

Dickie Moegle, whose pro experience has been picked up with the 49ers' defensive unit, will back up Brodie as San Francisco's No. 2 quarterback.

The Colts will be shooting for their third in a row since losing at Cleveland and Washington on consecutive weeks, while the Rams have dropped five straight. Quarterback Johnny Unitas has extended his consecutive game record for touchdown passes to 34. His 24 TD tosses are just five shy of cracking the record set by Sid Luckman for the Bears in 1943.

Quarterback Chuck Conerly, who pitched the Giants free of a Cardinal rally last week, is healed and healthy for Conerly Day and the Skins in New York. The Giants who have a showdown with Cleveland next week, voted to hold a Thanksgiving Day workout, passing up a day off in their shot for a second straight Eastern crown and third in four years.

OLE MISS HEAVY FAVORITE

Sugar Bowl-Bound Rebels Take On State In Finale

STARKVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Mississippi's mighty Rebels wind up their football season Saturday against oft-beaten old rival Mississippi State. And with a Rebel victory goes a certain invitation to the Sugar Bowl game in New Orleans on New Year's Day.

Anything short of a Rebel landslide would be surprising. Oddsmakers have the Rebels favored by a strong four-touchdown margin. Mississippi has tasted defeat only once in nine games while a 5.4 yard average.

Mississippi State's best offensive weapons are its quarterbacks, Billy Hill and Billy Tohill. Neither rank among the conference leaders, but the Mississippi State offense is seriously hampered by a lack of experience. State's sophomore - laden club, however, figures to be a conference threat in a year or two.

The Rebel-Maroon rivalry dates back to 1901. Ole Miss leads with 27 victories to State's 24. Four games have ended in ties.

State shows only two victories — both over minor league opponents —in nine outings.

The bid to the Sugar Bowl game is a mere formality. Louisiana State, the only team to whip Mississippi in the regular season, accepted an invitation earlier this week and reports are that Mississippi was approached by the Sugar Bowl — unofficially — some time ago.

LSU edged the Rebels 7-3 in one of the season's great games last month. All-America halfback touchdown run on a punt return Billy Cannon's incredible 89-yard touchdown run on a punt return proved the difference. But the game was so close that pressure has been great for weeks for the rematch.

Logically, such a game would be the best the Sugar Bowl could obtain. Mississippi ranked second in this week's Associated Press Poll while LSU held the No. 3 spot.

But back to the task the Rebels face tomorrow.

Mississippi's offense is built around the talents of quarterback Jake Gibbs and fullback Charlie Flowers. Gibbs leads the Southeastern Conference in total offense with 595 yards gained passing and 166 rushing. And he ranks only behind Georgia's Francis Tarkenton in the passing department.

Flowers, the Rebels' best bet for all-America honors, is the leading ground gainer in the SEC with 675 yards on 125 attempts for

'Frisco Cage Coach Takes Year's Leave

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Phil Woolpert, who coached the University of San Francisco to two NCAA basketball championships, Friday took a year's leave of absence for health reasons.

Friends doubted he ever would return to coaching. A clue was that he also took leave from his post as athletic director.

Ross Giudice was named head coach for one year. He has been USF freshman coach and Woolpert's assistant with the varsity nine years.

Woolpert said he requested leave because of a recent back injury and "the effects and rigors of coaching upon my health." He said he has no idea what he may do. "My plans are indefinite," he added.

Friends said he also found the strains of coaching too severe.

In nine years, Woolpert's Dons won 154 games and lost 74; won the NCAA in 1955 and 1956; won 60 straight in 1954-55-56, still an NCAA record; won 104 and lost only 10 in 1954-58.

Woolpert's statement said, in effect, that he has no other coaching job in sight. Both his statement and USF's sounded like a farewell.

"I've turned down offers of other institutions in the past because I always was completely satisfied with my relations with USF," said the coach.

Joseph T. Keane, S. J., moderator of athletics at USF, said:

"We always considered Phil a most outstanding man for our coaching situation. We always will think that."

Rice Favored To Tumble Baylor

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A crowd of about 35,000 is expected Saturday as Rice and Baylor meet in a football battle that will settle fifth and sixth places in final Southwest Conference standings.

Rice will be a touchdown favorite and it will be only the second time this season for the Owls to find themselves in such a role.

The Owls place most of their hopes on Billy Bucek, a senior who zoomed to runner-up spot among total offense leaders in the conference after switching from halfback to quarterback at mid-season.

Rice holds a 1-6-2 season record and a 1-3-1 conference record. Baylor is 3-6 and 1-4.

The lone conference victories for both Rice and Baylor were over Texas A&M.

BI-DISTRICT PLAYOFF

Delhi Crushes Winnfield, 31-0

WINNFIELD, La. (Special) — Ken Newton came out of his halfback slot to score 19 points in leading the Delhi Bears to a 31-0 victory over Winnfield in a bi-district Class A playoff here last night.

It was Newton & Co. all the way and the Tigers could never find running room, picking up only three first downs. All of them came in the final minutes of play.

For the first 11 minutes it looked like a real nerve-stretcher but quarterback Jess Newcomer shot a 39-yard scoring pass to halfback Leo Coleman. Newton failed on the point after to end the first quarter.

Newcomer opened the second stanza with a 16-yard toss to Newton who went over standing but a Newcomer-to-Kent Fuller PAT attempt was no good.

In the third frame Newton pounced on a Tiger fumble at the Winnfield 47 and on second down gathered in a 46-yard areial from Newcomer for the third touchdown. Newton's run for the point failed.

In the fourth quarter Tiger fullback Jimmy Bolton fumbled on his 30. Newton grabbed the loose ball and it was Newcomer to Fuller for the score. Newton ran the only point of the night.

Then the Tigers coughed up the ball on downs at the Delhi 49 and Newton wiggled over right guard for a 51-yard touchdown scamper. His run for the point was stopped short.

Winnfield made its best scoring stab when end Jerry Burch intercepted a Newcomer pass on the Winnfield 10 and galloped to the Delhi 30. They gave up the ball on downs.

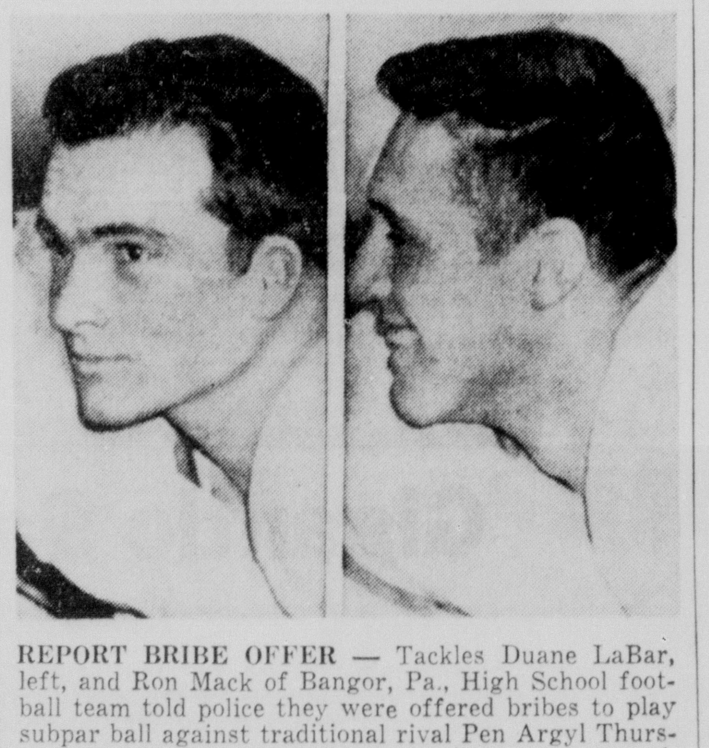
With a minute left to play and Winnfield rolling with three first downs on four plays, Delhi halfback Bob McKay hauled in a Tiger pass and romped 45 yards to score but a roughing penalty nullified the play.

Newton brought his total scoring for the year to 134 points on 24 touchdowns and 10 extra points.

It was the only time the Tigers have been unable to score all season long.

Delhi picked up nine first downs in the rout.

The Tigers actually fumbled themselves out of scoring position as they did against Jena which upset Winnfield two weeks ago.



REPORT BRIBE OFFER — Tackles Duane LaBar, left, and Ron Mack of Bangor, Pa., High School football team told police they were offered bribes to play subpar ball against traditional rival Pen Argyl Thursday. The 18-year-olds, both over 210 pounds, starred, however, as Bangor beat Pen Argyl, 20-0. The youths said a short, stout man offered them $100 last weekend to take it easy. Both boys played the full game. (AP Wirephoto)

Mineral Water Bowl Features Emporia, Austin

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo. (AP)—A pair of fine quarterbacks match their passing powers Saturday night when College of Emporia of Emporia, Kan., and Austin College of Sherman, Tex., meet in the 10th annual Mineral Water Bowl football game.

The Emporia attack will be led by Joe Ortiz, 5-9, 160-pounder, who has gained a total of 1,142 yards this season. He has run 506 yards and passed for another 636 on 28 of 69 attempts. He has a four-year total yardage of 4,146.

Austin's Bo Miller, 5-10, 178-pound quarterback, has gained 1,205 yards for the high scoring Kangaroos. Miller has completed 79 of 138 passes for 997 yards and added another 208 rushing.

Both teams, boasting 8-1 records, have averaged more than four touchdowns a game.

CLOSE JACKSON-BIENVILLE

Area Hunters Go Into Full Swing

By SAM HANNA
Staff Writer

Northeast Louisiana hunters got into full swing yesterday as a cold front moved in to improve conditions.

But there was no room for improvement as far as filling the game bag on the Jackson - Bienville Game Management Area near Jonesboro.

Hunters killed 325 deer there in two days, enough to close the area for the year.

Biologist John Haygood said late yesterday wildlife officials decided to close the game area when the kill rose to 325. A maximum of 350 deer — any deer — was set before the season opened.

Original plans called for opening the area to "any deer" hunting on Thanksgiving Day through Monday, or a limit of 350 deer.

Meanwhile, biologist Joe Herring's aides made plans for a three - day buck-only season on the Union Game Management Area near Farmerville starting today.

The season will be operated on a permit basis today, Sunday and Monday. Still hunting only will be allowed.

Check stations will be operated at:

1. West side of the area at the main entrance on the Truxno-Concord highway approximately three - fourths of a mile from the Tennessee Cemetery.

2. East side of the area at the bridge on Big Cane Creek on the Concord- Truxno highway.

While deer hunters were mopping up, duck hunters got spotty shooting on Black Bayou and Wham Brake near Monroe. The season opened at noon on Thanksgiving Day.

But the cold front was expected to improve hunting over the weekend. With the season opening in Arkansas Monday, the hunting should get better when the gun pressure drives the flights south.

Bird hunters had bad conditions on opening day, Thanksgiving Day. Warm temperatures, too much grass and dry weather kept the dogs from working too well.

However, this sport too should be better this weekend, thanks to the chilly temperatures.

Nats Offer To Lease Park In Chattanooga

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—Calvin Griffith, president of the Washington Senators, has offered to lease the Chattanooga Lookouts ball park to local interests for $1 a year and permit them to operate the Southern Assn. club. Chances of such a deal materializing, however, were called doubtful Friday.

The News-Free Press, in an article by baseball writer Allan Morris, said the offer may be too late.

League directors have given Lookout President Joe Engel until the annual minor league meetings, starting Sunday at St. Petersburg, Fla., to say whether the club can be operated next year.

Griffith Friday—in a letter to Engel—reiterated his stand that Washington will not operate the Class AA Lookouts next year.

The Lookouts, the ball park and the franchise were put up for sale by Griffith at the end of the past season. Dwindling attendance was blamed for the move.

Southern Cal Meets Irish At South Bend

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Southern California, ranked seventh nationally seeks its first victory at Notre Dame since 1939 Saturday as both teams end their 1959 football season.

The Trojans, licked six straight times at South Bend, will try to bounce back from a 10-3 upset by UCLA last week. It was their first loss of the season, ending a string of victories over Oregon State, Pittsburgh, Ohio State, Washington, Stanford, California, West Virginia and Baylor.

The Irish will be striving to break even for the campaign, Coach Joe Kuharich's first season at his alma mater. His team has beaten North Calolina, California, Navy and Iowa and lost to Purdue, Michigan State, Northwestern, Georgia Tech and Pittsburgh.

Notre Dame had one of its finest games last week with a 20-19 upset of Iowa. It was the first time since before the start of the season that quarterback George Izo recovered sufficiently enough from an ankle injury to play all the way. He pitched three touchdown passes, hitting on 14 out of 25 attempts for 295 yards.

The Trojans, powered by a line that includes Marlin McKeever at end, his brother, Mike, at guard, and Dan Ficca at tackle, are rated the best USC team in many years and are favored to bet the Irish.

Indians Take 59-36 Verdict Over A&M

MONTICELLO, Ark. (Special) — Northeast, behind the sharpshooting of Fred Bradley and Lannie Johnson, erased a three-point deficit and rebounded to whip Arkansas A&M, 59-36, in a pre-season practice contest here last night.

It was the second straight scrimmage win for Coach Lenny Fant's Redskins over the Arkansas quint. The Tribe took a 66-45 decision earlier in the week.

Bradley, a returning letterman, paced the winning attack with 15 points on seven field goals and a charity toss. Johnson, a Monroyan, followed with 11. John Ferrister was tops for the losers with 15 points.

Make-Up Master Warns Against Masking Face

By MARGUERITE DAVIS
United Press International

CHICAGO (UPI) — Make-up should "interpret" a woman's face, not mask it, says one expert.

Syd Simon, who teaches the gentle sex how to apply cosmetics for the best results, said make-up should "bring the features of the face into balance."

His pupils are taught to highlight and shadow the face, to make the most of good points and minimize the un-attractive ones.

Simon offers two courses in make-up. One instructs the woman in how to pretty-up for daytime or informal occasions. The second includes coaching on how to achieve a more exotic appearance for evenings.

The beauty needs which Simon said should be found in every woman's dresser are:

—Cleansing tissue and cotton-tipped sticks.

—Cleansing cream or lotion, moisture cream, lubricating cream for very dry skin, and freshener for oily skin only.

—Foundation cream or lotion, powder, cream rouge, "two or three eyeshadows because this should match the lady's dress," three lipsticks in blue, clear and yellow reds, blue and black mascara, and a soft lead pencil in lieu of an eyebrown pencil.

Simon can work almost any magic with make-up. He has camouflaged black eyes and birthmarks.

He turned down one prospective customer, however, a young man who asked to be made up to look like someone else, "just anyone else." Suspicious, Simon pressed the caller on why he wanted to shed his identity, and finally drew the confession that he planned to stage a hold-up.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

The Mother Of Twins Gives Good Advice

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

I am sure this letter will be welcomed by mothers of small children who are hard put to entertain them. Mrs. R.K. writes, "Dear Mrs. Eldred: On behalf of mothers of pre-school children I want to tell you how I have managed 3 year-old twins satisfactorily.

"All tots like water. My boys are allowed to do their breakfast dishes while still dressed in their pajamas. They are changed to dry clothes immediately afterwards.

"When they are dressed and bundled up I send them out to empty the wastebaskets. They spend as much time playing outdoors as the weather permits.

"They sleep in trundle beds. This makes it possible for their sleeping room to double as a playroom. Also they get climbing experience as the bed had a ladder, and by pulling the lower one part way out, it makes a step. The spreads are denim which withstand hard usage. They get it.

"Toys"

"A plastic clothes basket substitutes for a toy chest and is much cheaper. They have tubes made of heavy cardboard that curtain rods come in, to use as whips for their rocking horse. They have a xylophone toy to be struck with wooden mallets.

"For quite play they have scrap books and boxes of crayons. Each box is identified and I do not allow one child to accept a torn book or broken box if the other child is responsible Crayons go out of reach when not in use.

"Painting with water on newspaper holds these twins' attention for long periods. They wear aprons and sit at the kitchen table. The demands for more paper are endless and they get dirty but it all washes off.

One's Permissive

"May I say that in any set of twins one is apt to be permissive, letting the other talk, think and act for him. The first step in helping such a child is to encourage him to talk and make the other be quiet.

"The second step is to insist that he make decisions which he might prefer to leave to his brother. I am happy to say my submissive twin is now becoming as noisy and hard to get along with as his brother. I must admit I miss the little boy who never made any trouble."

How nice this is and I hope mothers with two or three small children will make use of some of your wise suggestions.

Our 10-cent booklet "Introducing the Arts to your Child" has something to say about scrap books and crayons. Send 10 cents and a stamped, self-adressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS . . . Children carry the Christmas message this year on many greeting cards of the American Artists Group, Designers and Illustrators and Tasha Tudor collections. Pictured are representative cards from all three groups, as each artist interprets in his own way the importance of children in the Christmas traditions: children at home on Christmas Eve, children of all nations dancing around the Christmas tree, small carol singers on a city street, the procession of choir boys, farm children with a special tree for their pets, and children in church.

YOUR PROBLEMS

Take Friends Along To To Meet Pen Pal

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: Do you believe in fate? Well I do—now. That letter in your column on whether or not a young man should be forced to marry a girl appeared just in time to decide a crushing problem for us. Now, we feel we're doing exactly the right thing.

Your words "an unwilling groom makes a poor husband" made a lot of sense. When we showed it to our daughter she said "Ann's right. I know in my heart Nick doesn't want to marry me. That settles it."

You'll never know what a favor you did us, Ann Landers. For the first time in months there is peace and contentment in our home. The baby will be put up for adoption through an agency and our daughter will start life over in another city. God Bless You. — GRATEFUL FOLKS

Dear Ann Landers: Are you teched in the head or what? How can you advise a young girl to have a baby out of wedlock?

Whether or not the parents are madly in love is of little importance when a baby is on the way. Your advice in this case stank.

—ALABAMA READER

Dear Ann: Good for you. I had a shotgun wedding and I've wished a million times since that the gun had been pointed at me, not him, and that someone had pulled the trigger.

I knew Jack didn't want to marry me but my parents insisted. My mother kept harping "Every child is entitled to a name. Nothing else counts now."

I was only 17, a nervous little girl, ignorant and scared. I thought mama knew best. Besides I had brought so much shame on the family I couldn't hold up my head —much less give them an argument.

I've been miserable for 10 long years. I know now I would have been much better off to face the situation alone. Jack has never been a husband or a father and I'm going it alone anyway.

—ANNA

Dear Ann Landers: You ought to be tarred and feathered. The idea, advising an expectant mother not to marry! After I read the advice I got my bifocals out to make sure my eyes hadn't played tricks on me.

Romantic love is just a lot of nonsense anyway. No matter what people get married for, the romance doesn't last beyond a few months at best. As one wit put it "Marriage is the Keeley cure for the intoxication known as love." So, they might as well get married to give a child a legal name. It's a better reason than most. — X-PERT SAL

Dear Ann: I was one of those foolish girls who let my folks push me into marriage because I was in a family way at 17. My boy friend told me if he was forced to marry he'd make me sorry. He's kept his word.

He has told our son who is now 9 that he had to marry me and has warned the boy against getting mixed up with women like his mother. The poor child is too young to know what he's talking about but he'll know someday. I've had to work since the boy was 5 weeks old because my husband says "his money belongs to him." Divorce is against our religion. My life is ruined and I'm only 25.

Your advice is excellent but it came too late for me. — MISERABLE

Confidential to all who wrote on this subject: The mail has been running 35 to 1 in favor of NOT forcing a marriage. Every one who wrote has had first-hand experience. Thank you all for letting me know how it looks from inside the lodge. Your letters are deeply appreciated. — ANN LANDERS

To learn the difference between a marriage that "settles down" and one that "gets dull," send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "What To Expect From Marriag enclosing with your request 20 cnts in coin and a large, self-adressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Laners will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-adressed envelope.)

Hat Chat

BY HATTIE MOORE

This is the year when you'll really go wild over hats. Thanks to those understanding milliners, hats, hair and ready-to-wear have entered a triple alliance that will make you more hat-minded than you've been in years.

Rosalind Russell, voted the "best hatted woman in America," says, "The new hats will truly go to your head and turn the heads of the men in your direction. You'll want a whole wardrobe of them.

If you once thought of one or two little hats to go with almost everything, you'll get over this outmoded idea fast once you see the variety of styles, fabrics and colors."

Rosalind Russell
"I love hats"

We are in complete accord with Miss Russell. When you see how much the new hats do for you . . . what a different personality you are in each, you'll want to buy every new type you try. Begin with your suit hat since that's the first new outfit you'll wear in the Fall. You have a choice of pixie types, or derbies, homburgs and fedoras — but with such a feminine look you'll forget they were borrowed from the men. Very femme fatale are the ones with eye shadowing brims.

These, along with the Garbo-type slouches and high-crown cloches, are the perfect complement with the new tie-belted wrap and coachmen coats . . . and the longer belted jackets seen in suits and costumes.

For afternoon . . . you'll love the way you look in the new tall pill-boxes that are so elegant. Or perhaps you'll prefer one of the high-climbing toques, spiraled turbans, or the new, Russian-inspired chechias in tall, stiff or rather softly-draped types; in fur or fur-felts.

Colors are delicious, even when subdued. There are two schools of thought . . . one to blend your hat with your costume, such as gold, moss green, coffee, cocoa beiges and grays with clothes of matching tonality.

The other idea is to liven black, gray and all those subtle, smoky tones with white, beige or vibrant reds, purples, royal blues and turquoise. This is certainly the season to be hat-happy with every costume, on every occasion.

College Policy Change Leaves Will In Uproar

MONTPELIER, Vt. (UPI) — Boys will be boys, but it's costing some of them in this state a college education.

On Sept. 4, 1950, Mrs. Blanche E. Brockway left $30,000 in trust to "help some worthy Vermont-born boy unable to attend Vermont Junior College because of insufficient funds."

In 1951, the college accepted its last male student and became the Vermont College for Girls.

Now the college has petitioned the state attorney general to have the will modified so it can get the money.

But Attorney General Frederick Reed said the intent of the will should be maintained and the money should be used for Vermont boys to study at another college.

The case has gone to a chancery court for decision.

Mother and Daughter Are Champion Jewelers

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Your engagement ring should be just as modern in design as your refrigerator or your electric range, says Mary Schimpff, of Bloomington, Ill., a four - time winner of Diamonds - U. S. A. and the Diamonds - International Awards.

Mary is the junior partner in a mother - daughter jewelry firm which has attained international renown. This year she was one of 24 jewelers from seven countries honored by the awards given annually for excellence of design in diamonds. She has won previous honors in 1955, 1956 and 1958. Says she:

"I got interested in jewelry design while I was studying art in St. Louis. During one summer vacation my mother and I made some jewelry on a work bench in our greenhouse, and didn't realize we were starting a business. Every piece we made that first summer was sold, and after that we started jewelry design in earnest."

Mary and her mother, Mrs. Frances Schimpff, started their business after the death of her father. Mrs. Schimpff had studied art and had worked in the fashion business in and around St. Louis for a number of years. Mother and daughter decided to go into the jewelry business in their home town about 10 years ago. Since that time Mary has won a number of "Young Americans" craftsmen awards in addition to the Diamond Awards, and has had her jewelry designs included in exhibits shown in museums around the world as a part of the U. S. state department's cultural program. Says she:

"We concentrate in contemporary designs in precious jewelry. We feel that jewelry should be as modern as current fashions in clothing and home decoration. Everything else is modern — cars, appliances, houses — why not jewelry?"

Mary finds the jewelry business fun.

"We always know all about engagements and special anniversaries 'way ahead of time," says she. "It's a good way to keep up with the news."

Mary and her mother work together on most of their orders. Sometimes one works out the original design, sometimes the other. They start by drawing all designs in color, then make paper patterns, much like dress patterns, which they use to cut the metal used in the jewelry. Sometimes they make models in wax and then cast the designs in gold or platinum. The equipment required is simple, says Mary—drawing boards, a jigsaw and a blowtorch.

The Schimpffs have become known for original designs combining diamonds with various other colored stones, such as rubies, sapphires and emeralds. Many of their pieces are moderately priced, such as their winning entry in this year's international competition — a pair of seahorse earrings combining small diamonds and a cultured pearl with red enamel and platinum, priced at less than $500.

Miss Taylor Reported Doing Well

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Elizabeth Taylor, stricken with double virus pneumonia, was reported doing well Friday.

But hospital authorities said they could not predict how long it would take the disease to run its course.

Double pneumonia means both lungs are infected, while virus pneumonia is a primary type, caused by bacteria invading an otherwise healthy person.

"It could last three days, or three weeks, depending on how it develops," said a spokesman for Columbia - Presbyterian Medical Center.

This is in contrast to secondary pneumonia, which develops through complications from some other ailment, and always involves extended bed care.

Miss Taylor entered the center's Harkness Pavilion Thursday, after suffering from a persistent cough for two weeks.

"She was and is regarded by her doctor as being in good condition," a hospital spokesman said.

He skipped one show Thursday night to be at her side, and took a room at the hospital near hers. However, a spokesman said he would continue his engagement, and give his scheduled two shows Friday night.

Another entertainer, singer Judy Garland, recovering from a liver ailment, was reported "coming along well" at Doctor's Hospital.

How To Keep Well

HERNIA REPAIR IN TOTS

Children recover rapidly from operations and it is advisable to have certain defects corrected early in life. The 6 month old infant with a hernia in the right groin is a good example. Surgery was done on Tuesday morning and the parents were surprised on Wednesday when told they could take the child home. I dropped in on the family on Friday and the tot was crawling about the floor, having a gay time.

This quick recovery after surgery for hernia is unheard of among adults and demonstrates the ease with which children withstand surgical repair of this defect. The youngster is too young to know what happened and will not become emotionally upset.

Surgery for hernia is safe in infancy and offers a minimum of risk. The surgeon must be skilled, however, in handling the tissues of children, as the parts are small and underdeveloped. On the other hand, their tissues are in good condition, which offers the best chance for permanent cure.

When a hernia was detected in a child 40 years ago, the parents were advised to buy a truss and await future developments, as physicians realized that spontaneous healing occurred now and then. Operation was suggested when the hernia persisted.

Inguinal hernia is the most common defect of this nature. Before birth it is the normal sequence of events for the male glands to descend from the lower abdomen to the outside. The blood vessels and spermatic cord remain attached and descend along with the testes.

The abdominal wall in the groin is weakened by this process unless the opening thru which the testes descended is blocked off completely. The body does a poor job, considering the number of men with hernia. Swelling is noted in the infant where the wall is weakest; it is noted later in life following strain or after a period of inactivity that weakens the abdominal wall.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

HEART STOPS BEATING

P. W. E. writes: A relative in another state died and I wrote to the coroner asking the cause of death. The answer came back: Cardiac arrest. I don't mean to be flippant but isn't this what always occurs at death? It doesn't seem to me to be an adequate answer.

REPLY

You are correct, altho the term is used occasionally when the heart stops for no apparent reason, such as during an operation or after an electric shock. Most death certificates include additional information. Many coroners are not physicians and someone in the office may have sent you the first diagnosis noted on the certificate.

AFRAID TO GO OUT

J. F. writes: I have a horrible fear of going outside. I phoned a few psychiatrists but they won't make house calls. Is there any way I can cure myself?

REPLY

Yes, but it will take strong faith in God who said "Fear not, for I am with thee."

HAMMER-TOE

W. F. writes: What causes hammer-toe?

REPLY

Some individuals are born with a foot in which one toe is clawed like the head of a hammer. In others, the second, third, or fourth toe of one or both feet is bent at right angles thru prolonged wearing of short shoes.

HIATAL HERNIA

Mrs. L. writes: Is surgery necessary for hiatal hernia?

REPLY

Not if symptoms are present which can be relieved with conservative measures. Send a stamped, self-adressed envelope for our leaflet on hernia.

Test Program For Cranberries Slowing Down

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Government inspectors have stopped testing cranberries on an emergency, round-the - clock schedule now that Thanksgiving is past, an official said Friday.

J. K. Kirk, assistant to the commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), said the testing program still has "high priority," but that FDA inspectors have been put back on normal work shifts. He said they were "wearing out" under the emergency schedule.

The FDA has not yet reached a final decision on what to do with the 250,000 pounds of cranberries it has impounded so far. But in all likelihood the berries, found to be contaminated with a chemical weed killer which causes cancer in rats, will be buried.

CLOTHES Make Your Man

By Harry Juster

DEAR MR. JUSTER: Why does a man in his sixties try to dress like a college boy? My husband insists on wearing tweeds, button down shirts, bow ties and pork-pie hats. He laughs and won't pay any attention when I tell him I think that a man of his age should have a little more dignity.

Mrs. G.R.F.

Can't a man be debonair and dignified at the same time? I'm not recommending that an older man should blossom forth in bizarre colors and styles. However, I can't agree on setting an age limit on wearing clothes that have a little zest, providing they're properly coordinated. As long as he acts his age, he doesn't have to look it.

DEAR MR. JUSTER: What's happened to the full cut suits? All I see and hear about is the trim look. I notice that you're constantly referring to Ivy and Continental models. I like wide shoulder, full-chested coats and roomy pants. As far as I'm concerned nothing's as comfortable.

Comfort's a matter of design. Your suit needn't resemble a sack to give you ease. Coats with thick padded shoulders, extra inches of cloth under the arms and balloon size trousers are superfluous. Proper fullness across the back and chest is the key to comfort. This feature is incorporated into the current trim styling that makes most of us look taller and slimmer. Try it. See if you don't agree.

DEAR MR. JUSTER: After spending hours carefully ironing my husband's shirts, it kills me to see the way he manhandles them. No amount of fussing and fuming will change the way he puts on his tie. He buttons the collar and turns it up. Next, he ties his tie and then turns the collar back . . . all wrinkled. What's the secret to avoid messing a perfectly ironed collar?

Mrs. K.

The secret is three little words —button collar last. Tell him to slip the tie under the turned down collar and knot it. Then button up and tighten knot in place. This simple method will prevent any further wrangling and wrinkling.

DEAR MR. JUSTER: My wife of four months maintains that washing sweaters ruins them. As a college student on the G.I. Bill who wears a lot of sweaters, I find the cleaning costs pretty steep. Isn't there some safe way to wash them?

G.I.

What are you wearing, delicate cashmeres? Today the selection of washable sweaters is practically unlimited. There are handsome knits of every description and style made of man-made fibers or of specially processed wools that take to washing like a duck to water. There's no need for your cleaning bill to exceed the cost of soap flakes.

TIP FOR THE DAY
Clothes Need Time Off, Too

No coffee breaks, no time out for lunch for your clothes. They put in eight hours—and more—a day. Just as you, they need care and rest. Caress them with periodic brushings, put them to bed gently and give frequent days off. You'll be repaid by their working longer for you and not showing their age.

NEXT WEEK — Learn how to criticize your husband and make him like it.

Returns Home

WASHINGTON (UPI) — David Hearne, 21-year-old playboy son of Irish Ambassador John J. Hearne, has returned to Ireland, a spokesman for the Irish Embassy said Friday.

The spokesman said that young Hearne, who has been involved in frequent scrapes with police, left for Dublin by plane Wednesday. Newsmen were informed earlier this week that David would be present at a family Thanksgiving dinner.

Questions and Answers Guide For Homemakers

By BETTY PEPIS

Q. — We plan to move into our new home very soon and I would like some advice as to wall covering, draperies and a dining room rug. Living room couch is dark brown and club chairs are tan. Living room rug is aqua. Dining room is right off the living room in an ell and I would like walls of the two rooms the same color since there is no divider.

A. — Paint walls aqua, paler than the living room rug. Get an aqua background print for the draperies, preferably with some brown in it. A brown rug for your dining room could be the shape of your dining room table and would look purposeful rather than accidental. Repeat print on dining chairs if possible.

Q. — We just bought an old house that has oak trim in the living and dining rooms. We plan to paint the walls white or champagne and get wall-to-wall carpeting of sandlewood or beige. Have you any suggestionsz

A. — If you would like to make your old house look more modern, I would paint the walls to match the oak which I assume is in the natural gray-beige shade, rather than in an unrelated neutral like champagne. The rug, then, might be in a bright contrasting color like emerald green, cherry red or orange.

Q. — I am planning on redecorating my home. I would like to get maple furniture for the living room. My daughter bought my husband a desk in maple and now I would like to buy end tables and a coffee table. Both my girls say that the two end tables have to match, while I feel that they do not have to match. There are so many useful and attractive tables in maple that I feel the two end tables can be quite different.

A. — You are right. Your daughters are wrong. Unmatched tables are much more acceptable as good decorating today. In some well - decorated rooms I have seen lately even the wood has been different. In a French style bedroom, for example, a decorator used a walnut end table at one side of the oversized bed and a small painted desk in place of a bedside table on the other side. Mixing rather than matching is the best rule in decorating today.

Q. — I have a nice sized bathroom. The tile is white with a black border on top and bottom. The floor tiles are black and white and the fixtures all white. What colors would I use for walls, windows and shower curtainsz I prefer paint to wallpaper.

A. — Your all - white scheme with touches of black leaves you free to either select your favorite color or be guided by the color scheme of the adjoining room. At any rate avoid pallid pastels and go for some bright color like a hot pink or true lemon yellow, using the bright color on your walls and for shower curtain. Paint ceiling white and have pure white curtains.

Judy Garland Feeling Better

NEW YORK (UPI) — Singer Judy Garland, under treatment in Doctor's Hospital for Hepatitis, was reported improving Friday and "feeling better."

Her husband, producer Sid Luft, said he and Miss Garland were "both encouraged."

"The doctor says it takes time, but she will get well," Luft said.

Steel Union Suggestion Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Commerce Department Friday rejected a suggestion by the United Steelworkers Union that steel be stockpiled for defense use if the industry strike is resumed after a Taft-Hartley law injunction expires Jan. 26.

The action came as representatives of the industry and union agreed to resume peace talks in the long dispute here next Tuesday.

Philip A. Ray, acting secretary of commerce, indirectly accused the union of trying to shift to the government the responsibility for any defense lags which might result if the walkout is resumed.

In a letter to Arthur J. Goldberg, the union's general counsel, Ray said stockpiling would not assure steel for defense requirements.

"Only continued production of steel in all its phases can supply the real needs of defense," Ray said.

Goldberg wrote Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller a week ago suggesting that the government should stockpile steel.

"While I have not abandoned hope that a settlement in steel will be reached before the 80-day injunction expires. . . . I must advise you in all candor that at the present writing no settlement is in prospect," he said.

Ray, in reply, said, "I am sure you do not intend to leave the impression that you and the parties who you represent are not making every conceivable effort to bring about a settlement at the bargaining table which will truly reflect the public interest."

Grain Futures Weakened By Steady Selling

CHICAGO (AP) — Light, steady selling weakened grain futures prices Friday and the market closed with only one small plus sign in the entire list. Most of the losses, though, were small.

The selling, as often happens, appeared to reflect an absence of any significant bullish factors to develop over the Thanksgiving holiday rather than any particularly bearish influences.

Flour millers and other domestic grain processors apparently were out of the market for the holiday week and none of the expected export business showed up.

The general steadiness of the market for the most part has been sustained for several days by the meager movement of grains from farms and elevators into commercial channels.

Wheat closed unchanged to ¾ cent a bushel lower, December $1.98⅜-½; corn ⅛-½ lower, December $1.10 - 10⅛; oats unchanged to ¼ lower.

Demand Hike Strengthens Hog Market

CHICAGO (AP) — An improved shipper demand strengthened the butcher hog market Friday and prices were steady to 25 cents higher.

One small lot of sorted No. 1 grade scaling 200 lbs brought $13.60, the highest price of the week and up 10 cents from Wednesday's top. The supply of 8,000 head was off 2,000 from expectations and brought the week's total to 40,000 compared with 54,500 last week.

Mixed No. 1 and 2 and strictly No. 2 grades sold at $13.00-13.50 and the 190-220 lb mixed 1-3 grades at $12.75-13.25. Heavier weights sold down to $12.25 and sows at $9.00-11.00.

The few sales of slaughter steers included some rejected entries from the International Livestock Exposition and these brought $26.00-29.00 with the market mostly steady. A few good and mixed good to choice moved at $24.25-25.50. Some offerings carried over from earlier in the week still were unsold.

Vealers and bulls were steady. No heifer sales were reported. Vealers cleared at $23.00-28.00 for standard to good grades and bulls at $17.50-20.00 for utility and commercial.

Wooled good and choice slaughter lambs were strong to 25 cents higher, selling up to $19.50. Ewes moved at $3.00-5.00.

BUSINESS HIGHLIGHTS

United Press International

TO RENEW EFFORTS

As federal mediators prepared to renew their efforts next Tuesday to wrap up a Christmas steel-contract package the industry Friday faced the imminent stoppage of vital ore boats on the Great Lakes.

Cold weather has virtually shut down Great Lakes shipping and the St. Lawrence Seaway locks will not operate after Monday because of possible ice jams.

REDUCE CAR OUTPUT

The holiday and steel shortages combined to reduce car output this week to an estimated 45,554 units compared with 123,088 cars a year ago, according to Ward's reports. However, the statistical agency noted that the industry will have assembled 5,530,500 autos by the end of the year or 30 per cent more than the 1958 production.

TO RECALL 25,000

The Chevrolet Division of General Motors announced it will recall 25,000 workers at 13 plants next Monday and Tuesday. Chevrolet already has recalled more than 5,000 of its workers idled by steel shortages.

PURCHASES CLIMB

The Federal National Mortgage Association reported its purchases of home mortgages continued to climb and sales dropped in the third quarter of this year because of tight-money. FNMA said it acquired 18,590 government-backed mortgages valued at $219,330,000 from lending institutions and mortgage houses in the July-September period.

URGES TAX CUT

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce urged an immediate tax cut for all individuals and corporations to help stabilize the dollar and promote economic growth. The business organization said the revenue loss could be offset by a temporary across-the-board sales tax.
